

The Christian Path.

Biblical theology.

This is the official theology of what 1st century ministry believes in, yet it was written for the Evangelical, Pentecostal, and neo-charismatic Christian movement as a whole, and covers all important topics in the Christian life. Seen in combination with the rest of the books of GRRRRR, it represents a Reformation of Christianity.

Our Church is also called "Church of Light" at www.1stcenturyministries.com

This book is book 2 in the GRRRRR series, or The Great Romantic Revivalist`s Reformation Revolution Renaissance series.

Dedicated to Jesus, love of my soul. Dedicated to Martin Luther.

This was the book I wrote during the 500th anniversary of Luther`s reformation.

Which is why this book is the most precious to me of all my books, as it details my life-ambition, my calling, some wisdom, and my patriotism, a book where I express my zealous love for Christ and his Church, dedicated to the awakening and unification of his bride: REFORMATION!

The “GRRRRR” series, by Thomas Eidsaa:

The 6 book GRRRRR series, or “The Great Romantic Revivalist Reformation Revolution Renaissance” book series, is the lion’s roaring wake-up call for all Christian truth-seekers to unite in an ever-changing world, an eye-opening 21st century upgrade of Christianity which I saw much needed, detailing my research into neo-charismatic theology, apologetics, ontological arguments, the problem of evil, eschatology, and conspiracy theories of great importance to every Christian. Things we are too afraid to talk about... With Luke 12:3 and Hebrews 12:27 as inspiration. All books are one-of-a-kind blockbuster compendium of never-before published content I saw myself imbued to write, with passion for revival in the Church, because I happened to have that knowledge. Thank you God with dedications...

It is a work aimed at waking YOU up to the evil you never thought existed. “What you don’t know can still kill you”, and being a Thomas, I took this authorship upon me as doubter at first, but found Christianity to be the most viable faith... My books are a guide, and a compendium of all important topics relating to the radical Christian faith in a dangerous, unpredictable 21st century change of Europe.

I take the reader on an amazing journey – re-discovering 1st century Nazarene knowledge and philosophy with 21st century science, theology and societal problems as an ailment to society. My work can be seen as a paradigm shift or a reformation of Christianity in an age where we watch YouTube movies about occultism and conspiracy theory, yet never hear it preached in Church, and I truly, personally believe the knowledge herein will create peace on Earth if acted upon, being a pacifist myself.

I believe Christians hold the sole responsibility for the Earth and must act as such. To eliminate polarities and create peace, I have therefore created the Ontological, Metaphysical Law of Source, Love and Light, which I hope will be the universal, humanistic, inter-religious, and scientific “conduit of all things” for the future; the bedrock of a Golden Age Utopia, upon which all differences are set aside.

I also believe the neo-charismatic Christians deserve their own theology, unity and nation by now, being the largest growing Christian group in the world, which I dedicated myself to see happen as outlined in the last book, the Kingdom of God, where I outline a utopian system of Christian governance that I hope can be a light for all nations...

I myself am only a disabled, humble servant of God, and pray for Aarons to wake up and lead that romantic renaissance parade of love, light and laughter. Yours sincerely and thank you for buying my book for the mission of knowledge. Thomas.

Chapter 1: Our vision: The Romantic Revivalist Reformation Revolution Renaissance!

Introduction: Christianity in the 21st century? What is at stake.

I am a conspiracy theorist, and while this book is my only book without conspiracy/fringe topics, the book being wholly theological in nature, this introduction will be dealing with basics of "conspiracy thought", just to inform you of my background and beliefs as an author. Thank you for reading me through.

Because this book is part of a book-series about conspiracy theory: A Masonic-Satanic-Illuminati poison has seeped into the main branches of Christianity (The Vatican), into Judaism, Islam, all schools of science, the government, culture, the media, the monetary system, etc, and our Christian lands are in peril!

The multiple forms in which our nations and political parties are infiltrated and threatened is itself proof of not only a devil, but devils operating from INSIDE our government, thus I recommend you to study conspiracy theory. The Church has lost non-compromise and needs to awaken! REAL MEN must rise, addressing issues of societal corruption EVEN inside the Church! But sadly, most conspiracy theorists are men that are laughed at and isolated, even by the Church. The enemy is clever.

For details about the conspiracy, I recommend you read some other books. This book will be theological in nature only.

Through analysing the scope of lies being taught in all schools of society, I decided I had to become an author for the need of a Christian reformation revival renaissance in all sciences, and levels of society, today, to retake our Christian lands!

Over one million Christians have been killed by extremist Islamic terrorist groups, Boko Haram in Ethiopia, ISIS/ISIL, Al-Qaeda, and the Muslim Brotherhood in and around the Middle-East, but why have the main-stream media given NO exposure to this genocide? Most of the Christian population in Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, Iraq, etc has been killed or forced to flee. The problem isn't immigrants, but the conglomerate of conspirators in western banking whom finance the wars – making money, training and delivering weapons to terrorist groups, all to put mankind against each-other for the state to receive emergency powers.

With the rape-epidemic, terror, violence, genocide, pedo-grooming, and all the devilry caused by Muhammad's teachings, why doesn't the media report this? The official answer is because the Muslims are seen as second range citizens with a long who have not yet learned to be integrated and multicultural. In other words: If the media exposed their devilry, there would be civil war in Europe, not to mention that Islam would die out more quickly.

Let's face it: Europe, whites, and Christianity have never been dealt with so little respect in the media. The entire establishment has shifted from Christianity and capitalism to Islam, atheism, Satanism and socialism/communism.

This is the greatest threat Christianity has ever seen, and with the movement of feminist liberal retards, strong white male conspiracy-theorists are easily isolated in favour of gullible feminist males with a good job and income. It's hard for clever men to find a spouse today. Our future core-value family are perishing. If we lose our seers, discerners of the times and our leaders and prophets, our strong white males cannot find real women to reproduce, and Christian religion, the glue that once defined the west cannot operate as a unified identity led by truthers, we MUST assume that western culture, Christian religion, and the white race is already dead.

The unofficial, true narration of the replacement theory in Europe (white genocide) is how the conglomerate/capital/elite create wars to mix races and religions, thereby dividing society under need of a powerful police state you're your protection", to create a one-world communist government police-state monetary system that the antichrist envisions, where Abrahamic religion won't be tolerated. The three world wars were planned out with this purpose by the Luciferic Freemasons, as freemason Albert Pike declared in his freemasonic book: Morals and dogmas long before WW1.

There is no way an intelligent person can live in the 21st century and not believe in the miracles of Jesus flooding the internet. But will they abandon their Mosques and throw away their Talmuds??? The Illuminati had an easy job recruiting non-Christians against God, and the replacement conspiracy theory (replacing the white man) was enforced at the start of the free information age, global communication, where the Satanic Illuminati's target were the super-rich conglomerate of Jews, Muslims and Freemasons (the elite) who through free internet information could not turn away from their strict religious convictions upon realizing their (Jewish) ancestors had been wrong, and went to Hell for having killed Jesus and not believed in Him, thus they became Satanic pawns of the Illuminati (as "they" had planned), a force still hiding their true Satanic intentions in the guise of religious Jews, Muslims and other non-Christians to keep their religious pride, financial empire, conglomerate, and all they've built from collapsing with the realization of miracle healings on YouTube; now serving the Illuminati who know Jesus is the messiah, and Christianity the true religion, but serve mammon, materialism and pride.

The devil's pawns has taken over our system/government and has replaced true history, true archaeology, true physics, true astronomy, etc with lies. The Bible tells how Satan is the father of lies.

So, I asked myself: How can we stop this?

Every good civilization was based upon personal freedom and coherent ethics, and not a parasite state or communist monopoly. But our society has become divided, where cold apathy and individualism rules.

Christ is the answer to all our problems, if we raise up our conspiracy theorists and act like MEN, not fleeing from FACTS.

Why are the Christian-humanistic values of Jesus the eternal answer to a good civilization? Because a good future can only come through ethical unity based on universal truths and codes proven by science and philosophy - the language of today: Christianity must be the first to undergo the scientific method and validate itself and its miracles. This cannot be avoided.

After we have enlightened, and united people from all levels of society, and institutions under our Christian banner, we will read out the poisonous (Masonic) virus that has infected the west, and it's people.

The west will be based upon the Hellenistic-Christian principles of humanism, and medieval Islam must go. Or else: The west will not survive, and be a cold, individualistic society of divisions ruled by an atheistic police-state because of the abovementioned reasons. Western humanism, and Islamic religion are not compatible. Their Sharia laws of Muslim thought and hierarchy are simply too distant from our laws of common sense.

If Christianity, the backbone of western humanism should fail to convert the Muslims, scientifically dealing with Islam, all will be lawlessness and individualism under a police state of unspoken fear. I fear my prophesies will come to pass:

With Christianity dead, paganism will defend ethnic-European pride against Islam, the globalists, and the left. Pagans claim to fight what they call the "Jewish conspiracy" while this conspiracy that also involves rich Jewish Rothchilds is in fact not Jewish, but druidic, masonic, and pagan like themselves. Satanic. Pagans say only paganism can defend Europe, and the white race. Pagans say that Christians are "crypto-Jews". Ergo: Pagans fail to realize they are "crypto Jews" themselves, and that cultural Marxist war of "replacement theory", globalism and mixed races is not against whites or pagans, but against Christians.

Resorting to paganism to protect Europe is the same as being a "crypto Jew", using their own words. Are not our Illuminati royals, the freemasons, the druidic Satanists, and the globalists at Bohemian Grove a pagan cult??? They're certainly not Jewish or Christian! I would even go as far as to say that the Vatican sect of paedophilia we see rising, defined as the whore of Babylon by Peter Diamond, is a Roman-Pagan sect, a claim that I also base on the writings of Leo Zagami and William Schnoebelen!

The TRUE Church must rise! Christianity must cure Christianity (The Vatican), re-take our magnificent Christian architecture, then deal with Islam, and make Europe a golden age of Christ! The cure to everything is TRUTH, true Christianity and it's humanist western values, not inhumane PAGANISM!

This is not a war against pagans or whites, but a war against Christianity, as seen through the dismantling of Europe's state-Churches, the political media agenda censorship of Christians massacred, the freemasons false-flag Christian terrorism like Utøya 22.07, Christian persecuted from China to the Middle-East, the media's total ignorance to this genocide etc. God calls Satan the deceiver, the murderer, liar and destroyer. The above is evidence for that Satan is real, and in charge of much of our governance, which ironically must signify that Christianity is also the true religion. Why people cannot see this obvious calculus bothers me, particularly the abovementioned white-patriot pagans, the New-Age, the intellectual and the conspiracy-theorist establishment bothers me: With all the focus on eastern and European esotericism: How can they miss out the millions of video-taped miracles performed by Christians in the name of Jesus??? Truly, Satan has blinded them!!!

Another easy calculus is: If there is an Illuminati conspiracy of western politicians sacrificing children at Bohemian Grove (fact), the CIA-Mk-Ultra (fact), and our freemasons and Churches being hijacked by pedophile Luciferians (fact), and if all these embrace Islam with open arms, while covering up the genocide of Christians (fact), then: Islam is the chosen religion of Satan and the Illuminati. (fact.) And Christianity must be the TRUE religion. (fact.)

The Satanic-masonic-elite tries to weaken Christianity through infiltrating politics state-Churches, the Catholic Church, destroying the family, and promoting a gullible ignorant gospel of the antichrist; relativism, feminism, gay-rights, multiculturalism, really abusing the term "love", and separating it from "responsibility."

as we see in the dissolution of the Church`s core values and lack of morale.

Paganism, New-Age, and even hardcore Satanism, and Luciferianism has entered most Churches. The Vatican even praised Lucifer as God. It is on YouTube.

The masonic-Satanic-elite`s plan is to kill Christianity, and the west through the lies of Islam, atheism, and paganism combined. They want to make it so that paganism, and atheism are the defenders of Europe, and the victors over Islam. That atheism, and paganism becomes the great hero, while Christianity, and the Catholic Church was the traitor who let in all the immigrant Muslims that "every native European hated", while the latter was in fact only infiltrated by pagans themselves!!! Get the idea?

The math goes like this: Islam, and paganism/atheism will fight each-other, and kill Christian moralistic values of true love, humanism, and the idea that we are all eternally valuable in the process.

There will be a 3rdWW as described by masonic author Albert Pike, where Christianity, Judaism and Islam dies out. The result will be a world without polarities of race, religion, borders or language, aside from atheism, western esotericism, "New-Age spirituality" and paganism as India survived.

Paganism will eventually gain a foothold, because of its nationalist nature, along with New-Age, and Hinduism which survived in the great nuclear-power India. The new Arabian population of Europe, and the battered, tired middle east will resort to the pantheon of ancient Canaan, Babylon, Sumeria and Egypt. Abrahamism will be hated by academia, the media, and blamed for WW3: The war on terror.

Europa is a Greek goddess who rides a bull, the beast, as depicted outside the EU parliament of Brussels, which is built to resemble the Biblical tower of Babel.

This is the final stage of the NWO when the Gods will return from space, and their enterprise will be complete, just as it was prior to the flood, or during Nimrod's tower of Babel. One world. One religion. One world bank. One language.

This New-World-Order will probably last for another 500.000 years, just as long as the ancient God-Kings of Babylon reigned as recorded in the Enuma Elish.

The giant Nephilim, and seraphim reptilians will return as "space brothers", introducing many hybrid humanoid species, and the Christian Age of Homo Sapiens Sapiens only lasted from 0 A.D – 2000 A.D.

Europe is becoming Europa's Tower of Babel, the whore of Babylon riding the beast. We must not lose America, or the power balance shifts to fascist-atheistic China, such as they have planned with her fixed economy.

The future west will then be a mix of pagan-eastern-religions, Islam and atheism fighting each-other until atheism, and eventually Satanism wins.

Islam dies into its pre-Muhammed origin of Babylonian polytheism.

Religion shapes society, and the future NWO religion will be the Babylonian system envisioned by its prophet Aleister Crowley. This might dominate the world for another 500.000 years, or more, if we are to be realistic and look at statistics and the historical duration of Nephilim rulership according to the Enuma Elish. (Yes, I believe the 6 days of creation are metaphors and that the Earth is very old). During which time, no single man will be saved. By God may it not happen. This is what the Christians have brought upon themselves by letting freemasons, and Satanists infiltrate the Churches, media and governments of formerly free western nations.

The battle between indefinite Crowleyanity, and Christ's return is being fought these 2-6-10 years. These few years will decide which alternative future wins.

THAT is why Satan is fighting me (as a Christian) so despotically tortuous and covertly, because Satan is a defeated coward, and if he was exposed to the light, to me and Jesus, nobody would follow him. Remember: Satan masquerades as an angel of light, which means he IS NOT Lucifer, the name that means "bringer of Light", a term he has taken to fool us as he masquerades. Darkness is darkness, and hides in the shadow of light, or else it would have no form. That is why darkness always hides in the holiest places, and corrupts God's holiest creations, take per instance sexual immorality...

Satan has already weakened my intellect, my mental, and physical health down to zero. He is covertly fighting me and defaming me, because he cannot face me head on and win now that I have survived his attacks for 7 years. He knows I am a strong white male, a natural born leader and hero. He will do everything to pervert your identity as strong men and warriors.

That started already when I was 7 (according to both me, and the Illuminati who target me.)

I feel helpless. God is all I have.

Will you carry on your responsibilities???

Will you defend a future for me, and yourself???

Conclusions: This is the voice of the prophets!

1. It's time to make MEN great again, and call corruption and conspiracy for what it is: Satan's work.

2. It's time to re-unite the Church, with Pentecostal/neo-charismatic Christians retaking the corrupt older churches like the Satanic pedophile Vatican, calling it for what it is.

3. It's time to leave Babylon (the system) and live in self-sufficient monastic societies for the purpose of re-creating/creating the world's first school. (Re-creating all schools of science.)

4. We must use this knowledge to convert all the world's atheists and Muslims, re-creating the utopian dream our Christian forefathers envisioned for Europe only 50 years ago, this "falling of the tower of Babel" achieved by Christianity dethroning and exposing the lies of "the system"/all schools of science, proving God, miracles, the source-field, and God's Son through replicable scientific experiments: Make the schools of science Christian again, as they were only 100 years ago, before lions turned into cattle and forgot true source-field physics and morale.

Christianity was the core of our civilization, and inseparable from science and education only 100 years ago, when mostly all great scientists were Christians. And further back, when you could only educate yourself through learning Latin and becoming a monk. It's time our state-hospitals stop overlooking the million cases of Christian healings, called "spontaneous healing."

Jesus is lord.

Christianity's 3 goals

1 Perfect Politics and Society.

2 Perfect Religion and philosophy.

3 Recreate, and perfect science. and all scholarly fields.

*Create a foothold on Earth.
Prove our scientific religion.
Create global Christian unity.
Monopolize truth by slaughter of all academia and science.*

Deus Vult!

Make men great again!

Judaism was a patriarchy and then a male monarchy. Jesus, God and Adam are/were male. The prophets were male. The smartest experts in every field are men, from cooking to sports and intelligence. God created man to rule, and women to serve. Even the New-Testament testifies this, although Jesus was seen as revolutionary for having female disciples.

Today it's the other way around. Women's rights have developed until where they now can become bishops and presidents.

I have nothing against the feminism, but feminists. Women today are programmed to believe they are the centre of the world, and don't even need men to think for them, while they live in their fantasy Disney world of the 21st century west where all is love, relativism, nobody would harm you, and war ended long ago. "War is just something crazy nationalists or religious fanatics do. There is no evil in the world." Well, there might not be much evil in women, but there sure is in men, because men are dominating hierarchical selfish conquerors by nature, it's how even reproduction works, you can ask your school teacher. WE need MEN to fight evil MEN.

I have never met a woman who was able to think for herself, who pioneered anything, or went against the norm to fight the real dangers: The Illuminati. Women are programmed from early childhood to be gossip girls, gullible, slanderer, self-absorbed and the diva from soap-operas.

And as we know: Women are much easier to covertly manipulate and mind-control than men. Men ask questions. If the enemy can make the sexes equal, then males basically become the woman's sex slave, and have no other purpose if there are no natural predators and the world is perfectly peaceful.

And, so most successful relationships today are of indoctrinated students who meet at university, agree to not think about or talk about the problems in the world, and watch TV in their spare time instead, never knowing what is coming from them. When they're not working, or taking care of their kids, they are tired, and flee into the immediate satisfaction culture of entertainment broadcasting. All married males that I am certain knows about the Satanic conspiracy are always told by their female partner to "shut up, it's stressing me, you can't save the world." Always.

Men have a natural response to dangers, threats to their habitat, and handle stress, battles, and dark, scary information much better than females do. Men are men, and female will never be.

And so what if you are "successful" in this world, get a wife, a job, kids, and waste all your life supporting the Kingdom of this world: You just wasted all your time on treasures of this world, in such a critical time as this, going straight against the teachings and examples of Jesus.

Would you sacrifice yourself and your reputation for your bride, the Church, and loose all friends, even going to court and sentenced to death for telling the truth and doing the right thing? You are the Kingdom of HEAVEN! SEEK not the pleasures and treasures of this world! The meek, the low will inherit the Earth! Would you sacrifice your worldly pride for a beautiful pearl, the Kingdom of God? Have you even understood the New Testament?!?

I have concluded that the parasites have already won. Neither I, nor any male nationalist conspiracy theorist that I know can find a mate. We are labelled as dangerous and neurotic be mainstream media. All those who I knew who met and married a partner in Church were of the funny, gullible, always up-to-date with the latest radio-music and soap-opera type. Real men like myself stereotypically call such subhuman Hollywood biproducts for "people pleasers", "ear-ticklers", and certainly not "male."

The enemy is clever, and has created a system that rewards men (in particular) for being disillusioned gullible funny boys marrying Disney princess girls, raising adult-acting disillusioned children, because "saving the world is too much stress." "Don't worry, be happy!" "Jesus won, don't be scared." "Christ is soon coming back."

And these are the successful families that currently constitute at least 95% of Christian communities... The men aren't remotely masculine, the women aren't remotely feminine, (they act like childish brats and bitches) , and their children are self-absorbed brats that try to look and act like adults.

This system is Hell.

Mostly all the brave male Christians that I know, never get to marry, and are lone wolves like myself. I have found that women can in rare cases become activists if they see other activists do the same thing, particularly in news. I've never met and only remotely heard of (Joan of Ark) self-made female activists/conspiracy theorists. Simply put: Women follow and are easily manipulated. And men always lead. Bad men, at this point in time. Selfish megalomaniac psychopaths from ultra-patriarchal Jewish dynastic banking families.

Because of such feminist marriage conduits in Church, all Christian leaders of today dare not speak up against the system: All Christian leaders are absolute trash; Hollywood biproducts that speak of "the love of Christ", yet know nothing of male responsibility towards the flock against threatening evil.

atural selection has ceased, and true men can't find any mating partners to raise Christian core-value families of future politicians. There are few of them, even in history. Males have achieved ENORMOUS accomplishments.

We need men to speak up in Church and strategize more than ever. On with your hats, boys!

Today it is seen as good if a woman stays in her childhood Disney fantasy as a diva, princess or goddess all her life, living in an illusion, a dream, believing everything she reads in gossip and health magazines, believing in what politicians tell, programmed by Hollywood, music and lies of "what it means to be happy". Nowadays, the man is supposed to have a big dick, a beautiful car, a great career, be funny, live in the illusionary world, don't take things too seriously, and serve the woman's sexual needs.

My point is that the 21st century system of human mating puts real men, warriors, conspiracy theorists, men, at a great disadvantage. I have in fact only heard about 5 female conspiracy theorists in my life, including authors, and none of them were leaders, protestors or activists against the powers-that-be. Islam and Judaism are too much patriarchal, while western Christians are far too less patriarchal, because let's face it: We won't be respected unless we let our brave, young male warriors utilize their innate manly nature. The enemy knows this and is clever. Men are natural action-heroes with a greater spectrum of reaction, solutions and aggressions than female who are by nature submissive and inclined to believe what the strongest alpha male says. This goes back to tribal nature and biology. But the problem today is that the alpha male is a lying career-politician conspirator and a fag, along with the media-conglomerate which is all-together leftists and feminists.

It has gotten so far that men are not even above the woman in Christian relationships anymore, so that if REAL men, like conspiracy theorists raise their voice in the Church-coffee room or at stage to give a message of our current status quo (Christianity has never seen a greater threat than today), the people are pre-programmed by political leftists and media not to take them seriously, especially if they're conspiracy theorists or nationalists, which are always constantly being labelled as either laughable, psychotic, dangerous or bad by the mainstream media. There was a time when a man could take off his hat, raise his voice, and people had to listen to him, because he was a man: "Did he really say that?", and take it into consideration, but today, such lonely wolves are scorned by society and laughed at.

It has even gone so far that society has adopted a new term for it: Sexodus. Men are leaving relationships like never before.

Satan will do everything to replace your God-given character-traits and identities. He is working full-time against strong, white-nationalist Christian males to label them as racist, drug-abusers, dangerous, conspiracy-nuts, while they are in actuality God's heroes of the 21st century, the greatest heroes fighting the greatest Christian battle of our time: Protecting the strong, core-Christian families.

Now: Who will be the first to confess their objections against me for claiming I'm the true King of Norway and a target of the CIA? But because I'm labelled a conspiracy-theorist, they laugh at me for saying such things, while if a joking tv-star had gone out and said it, the girls would go crazy. My strength and courage to lead was ruined by bullying already when I was 12, and totally gave up my life, suicidal, almost, having lost all: My freedom, privacy, reputation, girlfriend to the secret surveying sect. I took the name "nothing of nothings", and wandered the woods alone for the rest of my life's broken pride.

So, don't bully strong kids who want to save the world! Tell them to believe in themselves and have courage! Whenever I meet children, I always teach them, always love them, and always tell them "to have courage, be true to themselves, wear their emotions on their sleeves and believe anything is possible." Always. For I was told the exact opposite by family and bullies all my life.

I want to finish this article by directing attention to a self-proclaimed strong-willed rebel criminal nutcase King of neurotic conspiracy-theories and pseudo-science. That's what they said about him back then, and that's what they'd say about him if he returned, 100% guaranteed, with all schools of science being wrong. Who am I talking about? A supremacist religious fanatic! A strong, dominating male patriarch! "Eeek!" Goes the leftist, feminist Church.

A man who was SO male he walked into the 3rd temple and drove ALL the moneychangers out ALL by Himself. Imagine that happening during a Sunday sermon: One dude driven by zeal of God emptying the Church and beating up the Church-service team as pastor, basically.

I have no idea how Jesus drove them out by themselves.

He was even so male that he died protecting his bride, the Church, sacrificing his life and reputation, even sacrificing his Kingship. Accepting and choosing death by crucifixion, the most painful death-penalty known to history, takes quite a man.

And you dare call yourself his disciple? What have YOU suffered? Do you protect YOUR bride? Do YOU go against all your Church, all the system, telling the truth, even if it gets you in court or even killed? No. You talk about love without knowing that true love carries responsibility. You talk of love and lie their soaking in the prayer room during Christianity's worst historical crisis!

Put on your hats men and wake them up!

A childish culture of idolatry: Forbidden by the Bible.

Perhaps you think that demon-worship and idol worship was a thing of the past? The opposite is the case.

Leviticus 26:1

Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall you set up [any] image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I [am] the LORD your God.

The Gods and idols of today are television, porn, idols, super-heroes, tv-stars, musicians, and anime-characters. An idol is something you worship or liken yourself to, making the abovementioned no different than ancient Semite demons.

You are a valuable possession of God, which makes your time and your energy valuable. By giving your time and energy to working for the state, watching Hollywood movies, and trying to be just as cool as the anime-hero poster in your bedroom, you worship false idols. Through this, you GIVE room, access, ENERGY AND PRAISE TO THESE DEMONIC ENTITIES: The IDOLS OF OUR TIME! Never liken yourself to a graven image, an idol or a fictitious hero. Be who God made you to be. Define your identity in HIM! Ask yourself: Can I liken myself to this cartoon hero and at the same time stand before the throne of God? If not, then you are a HERETIC and an IDOL WORSHIPPER! Let God and other Christians heal your soul and speak LIFE into your identity! We will soon touch upon millennial identity problems.

Fasten your identity in: 1 Christ/God and Church, 2 family, 3 nationality/tribe, 4 field of interests/passions/dedications/paths of life/purpose, 5 work, and base your IDENTITY in what YOU are and DO, not who or what IDOL you are LIKE!!! Because the Bible never tells us to relax, slack off, or have free-time anywhere, not in a single scripture. This is why the Jews are so successful. God only told us to rest on the sabbath, the only time Jews rest, and to keep that day holy, focusing their identity in GOD, and NOT in Marvel movies! Because you ARE/BECOME what you CONSUME!

I am experienced in the demonic, have been bullied and labelled. There is little difference between worshipping the devil and worshipping the devil's culture and the devils idols, giving your power, time and identity to the devil. By idolizing a figure, you give power to that thoughtform. While idols were for kids, only 30 years ago, it's not so anymore. Today's parents are fatherless, regressing back to childhood themselves. We will get to that.

Why is there no class to teach economy, household, parenting, social behaviour and life-wisdom and "common sense", like "be brave and believe in yourself" at school? We are rootless and robbed of our emotions by society. The sexualization of children take our emotions from us in school, as nobody dares admit how they feel, leading to severe post-trauma later in life.

The re-arrangement of classes, take our deep friendships from us at school. The childlike culture of having idols well up to adult age is because all are emotionally traumatized from school, and regress back to their childhood. The family is ruined, adults act like children, and children act like adults, or at least adolescents. This phenomenon of identity crisis, childlike behaviour and seeking identity in comic-book characters and idols is due to forced development during the early onset of puberty, hindering natural growth of the ego, and leading to an identity crisis. There even is a name for it. AED: Arrested emotional development.

Addictions, greed, immaturity, fear, blame, shame, resentments, anger, confusion and suffering can all signs of arrested emotional development.

When we get 'stuck' in our emotional development, we cease to learn how to take responsibility for our actions and our lives. We get stuck at the point of some trauma that happens in our life that we don't know how to let go of or to process.

Arrested Emotional Development is being stuck in (or Anchored to) an emotional level of development from childhood experience also called "resource states". Out of these 'negative' beliefs comes an underlying and unconscious commitment, e.g, I'm not good enough, I was a mistake, I'm dumb, etc.... In my case this happened when I refused to be class representative as a 9 year old, as I was suddenly overwhelmed by fear and a pounding heart, what I had suppressed since early childhood "this can't be happening, this is some conspiracy going on and I have NO idea what it is," which totally flattened my ego for the rest of my life, all traced back to this one incident that made an unspoken oath "I am always supposed to put myself low", an identity crisis that has ruined my life to this day.

Dr. Erik Erikson, a famous psychologist, found that unresolved Childhood Developmental Tasks “leave a life-long residue of emotional immaturity.”

Many Hollywood insiders have claimed that popular culture is owned and ruled by freemasons, and Jewish Satanists, targeting your children through their iPad; an idol or graven image. Many of these movies are gateways to Hell, and many demons come through the television to possess you to be just as pretty, cool, or a badboy as the fictional characters.

Such “devil`s” movies are often based upon Masonic archetypes, the dragon, beast and whore, the Satanic trinity, easily identified. One example would be Naruto, who is a hero, but a demon, or Darth Vader, who is the antagonist, but have the same storyline and attributes as Jesus. This is the way they twist good into evil, and evil into good, intermixing them. It`s Satanic, and the work of the devil. Not to mention that music videos, their stars, and their concerts openly worship Satan.

What culture do we live in? The Satanic culture: Satan being proud, dark, individualistic, materialistic, powerhungry, and a badboy. Being bad, deceptive, greedy, perverse, and outright evil are the new morals of today, proving that you are a strong male or female. It`s the law of the jungle, kill or be killed. This is a Satanic culture based upon the epithets of Satan; liar, murderer, deceiver, accuser (slandering), tempter, individualistic, greedy, and a materialistic love for money etc. Satan or Lucifer is planned to be the God of the New World Order, a global communist world order under open rule by Satan and his demons.

Mankind is naturally inclined to worship and adore God, and this is a positive thing. But without God, you lack your true identity, and become orphaned without truth, because God is truth about who you are. Your mind starts entertaining false identities, popular culture, idols and worship things other than God.

Western Americanized post-modern relativists and cultural Marxists; most of the millennials, the population of today, have ever-increasing problems with finding their identity, statistics show, and the evil system is created so, separating us from our parents, tribal identity, religion, nationality/nationalism, and perhaps most importantly; childhood friends, identifications, which historically has been friends, tribe, colour, religion, pack, language, nation, and values having been replaced by popular-cultures and their “pick-and-choose your subculture”, all which are American cultures, part of Babylon.

Ask yourself this: If the state is controlled by Satan, and you are a compromising citizen, aren't you a citizen of Hell too, or even a Satanist? And if most of the popular idols, movie-heroes, and villains are Satanic Freemasonic archetypes, and you worship them, and have your identity in them, are you not a Satanist? It's an interesting question, but luckily the Bible says we are IN the world, but not OF it. Yet go a round with yourself on this one and examine your idols and identity. Perhaps if you KNOW the evil projects of the state but do not tell people, object, react and rebel, then you are PART of the evils of this system???

Ask yourself this: If you know something, and know it is wrong, then as a Christian; how can you stand before God explaining that you didn't fight it??? Didn't the Israelites, Jesus, and the apostles have to fight??? These are Biblical times, and now it's your turn.

Our current system is alien to children and man. We live in houses, not villages, don't know our neighbours, are taken to school, love our classmates, are raped by losing our classmates again and again, before losing our virginity's naive worldview of reality to the hard truths of adulthood, work, the corporate community, and conspiracy-reality, already caught in the web of the system unable to turn back time, working hard, gnawing your teeth before waking up to a mid-life crises asking:

Who am I, what is my purpose, and where did my childhood dreams die along the way? Where did my friends go? Was this all there is to life!?!

Our current system is aimed at creating soulless materialist workers/slaves with separate individualistic false identities. What does Satan accomplish by this?

By separating individuals from our historical true identity, breaking family, nationality and religion, which once upheld society, the state hollows your soul, and hopes to create your field of work, identity and thoughts with what the state wants; e.g queer identity, gay identity, emo, punk, sport-guy, or "pick and choose your subculture identity", so that people are exhausted, society grows cold, obedient to lies, people are distant, as all are individualistically caught up in their own bubble of reality, unable to unite against the coming world communism.

People of today are fatherless AED children reverting back to childhood seeking instant gratification through porn, entertainment, food and drugs, the so-called "instant gratification culture", because instantaneous access to psychological and emotional stimuli is accessed by porn, video-games, and Ipads since early childhood, an unprecedented sociological experiment.

Scientists have found that these childhood gratification habits, like porn, creates strong neuron pathways in our brain that becomes the template for all other social behaviour for the rest of our lives, so that when confronted with overwhelming work in adulthood, we post-traumatically regress back to our childhood habits of instant gratification, and often develop personality disorders.

That is why entertainment aimed at yesterdays children is today aimed at adults, take for instance Hollywood's Marvel superhero movies and Disney Star Wars. Hollywood was the wood of choice for druids to make their magick wands. It's mind control.

These masonic Hollywood movie examples are made sooo childish and unrealistic (even in fantasy) it's meant to dumb you down into accepting garbage as entertainment, and disconnect you from reality, so you are emotionally upset to make you easier to control.

With the introduction of the fifth generation of media, 5g, which includes the new virtual reality, the imprisonment of each individual into their own escapist bubble sub-culture Iphone reality is complete. Race, tribe, family, real-life friends, real romance and real-life fun is dead long ago. With virtual reality's great commercial success, and cybernetics prosthesis bridging the gap between electrical brainwaves and computers, getting a chip in your brain for instant access to the internet, seen through your own eyes, inside your own head, is probably only 10-20 years away... Men of Israel: RISE! REBEL!

Wear skirts and cover your hair?

As the upper middle-class Christian core-value family breaks apart, so does the foundation for western culture and our nations.

With true masculine leadership replaced by sex-addicts, true femininity replaced by feminists, true childlikeness replaced by adult-acting brats, what hope is there if our very reproductive tradition stops, the family replaced by immoral, rootless, fatherless, motherless and selfish people, adults reverting back to the innocence of the childhood they lost when they went from their Disney-world into pubescent maturity? Insert your sub-culture of "I wish I had been so cool." Men have been reduced to status-symbols, and women reduced to sex symbols. The sexual culture is carnal and selfish, without any love.

Austrian psychoanalyst Dr. Wilhelm Reich was able to trace all neurosis (mental illness) back to sexual tension, the shame and the pressure it caused during childhood. It is also a fact that the age of sexual orientation/interest expands from your first sexual awakening in childhood, which would make all future adults pedophiles! If you had a girlfriend as a 13 year old, you will still see 13 year olds as attractive even in old age, studies find.

I stay mostly at home or in Church, but when I do go to stores, I see girls dressing like adults, acting like adults, showing their tight hips, lucrative tiny legs, and their private parts through their tight jeans to anyone, twerking and dashing around as sex-objects wherever they go to get attention.

This is not right, they are too young, and are not ready to adopt to adult sexual dress-codes of fashion and thought, whatever money the industry may make of them.

It is time for Christianity to say STOP! The Old Testament, and conservative Jews of today teaches to veil the hair of women. Men used to wear hats, and beautiful daughters used to have fathers with pride who cared, not dressing their daughters up as sex-objects for every pedestrian stranger to feed of them!

If I ever got a daughter, I would probably dress her in a white skirt with flowers, as not to show the shape of her legs and private parts, and also a cover of her hair. I would tell her the adult truth, and not hide it from her; to smile, act cute, with demeanour, "TRULY feminine", act a little cautious and reserved in public, and tell her that men of today are "not like your father and have been reduced to sexual predators."

I encourage and EXPECT all Christian men to do the same:

TELL THE WORLD MY DAUGHTER IS NOT FOR SALE!

Will the LGBT+ revolution soon introduce paedophiles as no longer a mental disorder? I'm not sure, but paedophilia was historically part of all pagan cultures.

We can see their plan for the future by looking at the past, they try to recreate Babylon: A culture where all early teens who reached maturity had to prostitute themselves by LAW in the temple of Aphrodite/Ishtar. Like the Norwegian Princess Martha Louise's dream of "Astarte Education" an "angel-school" she planned and still lead today, under the name of "Soulspring", although I still believe in her good heart's intent.

This was already a problem when I grew up, but with the millennial iPad generation of children fed on adolescent entertainment, it has gotten really, REALLY bad! Wherever I go, I see girls down to 6-7 years acting like teen soap-opera stars from Disney, "I am the sexual princess", dressing like adults, LITTERALLY looking over their shoulders twerking their asses up the counter in stores, and wherever they go to attract adult males, without knowing what really goes on, they feed on attention from perverse males wherever they go, because they have seen it on television, not knowing what they do, cause they are children.

This is not the Christian path of evolution!

It is time to separate the sexes in school, and to introduce dress-codes once again. Personally, when I was in school, I cared NOTHING about the boring math, because ALL my attention was drawn to the pretty bimbos who dressed and acted like bitches for sale. And what's up with make-up anyways?

Are girls even OK with being seen as sex-symbols? Is THAT true feminism??? Insanity...

Boys especially go through severe emotional trauma, which later becomes post-traumatic, as they regress to their childhood, by having no-one to be honest with about the shame, inadequacy, and built-up hormonal stress from exposure to extreme sexiness, by girls acting sex-symbols in school.

As Wilhelm Reich proved over 100 years ago, this early onset of sexuality leads to AED and neurosis later in life, emotional complexes, destroyed personalities, perversion, and a ruined view of women: All because extreme sexual temptation, which HAS to be suppressed (e.g at school) , fantasies that feed on our children like a vampirical cloud of inhibition and frustration, that feeds on our children day and night, preventing home-work, making them frustrated and rebellious.

And then you have the problem of shame, bullying, group suggestion, pressure, from as young as when you start to read. But being a child, he/she doesn't know what he/she feels as shame, depression, etc, as these suppressed unaddressed feelings only later reveal themselves in life as mental illness. Just look at the statistics and tell me I'm not right...

Do you want a society of childish reprobate liberal brats regressing back to their childhoods? Where adults act like children, and children act like adults?

Why not hand over power and LGBT to the children already? Are we not a child-worshipping culture?

No, this is the ultimate dissolution the very backbone of society, the commercial Hollywood re-branding of male/female identity, our inner selves, Christian core values, the Christian core family: The family falling apart. Hollywood commercials has taken over parenthood and replaced the natural growth of a child into an adult.

With hundreds of American cultural terms and sub-cultures, how can we still call ourselves a people? How can you say that what these people have are lives??? Where and what IS "Norwegian" nowadays? Where is our identity as "WE THE PEOPLE?"

All this is done by the devil who uses the "divide and conquer" strategy, dividing the people, crushing true masculinity, creating opposites, thus giving more power to the state as the people crave security from e.g terror attacks.

Today, we have already lost free speech, freedom of movement, personal space, and the ability to dethrone the state as a Norwegian people, as our opinions are censored online, our internet data is logged and filed by the state, and immigrant Muslims flood our borders.

Norwegian people no longer chat with strangers, in fear of opposing cultural views, that they might be gay, a Muslim or whatever.

The longer we wait, the greater the divide becomes until the winning culture parades the streets, celebrating their Luciferian New World Order of liberalism, cultural Marxism and porn. Historically speaking, it would be correct to say our current culture is that of gay-PRIDE marches, from a bird perspective.

It is time to parade the streets with national-romance, love and light (morale and truth) , celebrating national culture joyously, uniting the Norwegians, defeating cultural Marxism and the NWO tower of Babel.

It is time we go back to monastic societies; villages where the bride and bridegroom are one. Where the tree and its branches are one. Where the Christians are one just like Jesus is one with the Christians. Where Heaven and Earth are one: The Kingdom of God. It`s time to live together like the first Christians, in ghettos if so, and develop Kingdom culture. If you lose our culture, how can we win the nation and it`s streets, it`s people?

It`s time to find that inner child, tell your long-lost classmates that you love them, and make that inner child into a man: Who God says you are, a leader with non-compromise to the system, Satan, the state. Re-unite the bride and create the first Christian nation! The world`s first Illuminati-free state! The first true schools of science...

The Kingdom of God!

I disagree that the main theme, the red thread of the Bible, is a story of salvation. From the household of Noah to fleeing Egypt, the patriarchal judges, the Kingdom of Judah and Israel, the main teaching of Jesus, to the communistic welfare society of the 1st Church, the main theme of the Bible is God establishing, rescuing, re-establishing, and conquering this world, which is Satan`s Kingdom. Jesus clearly tells this.

John 14:30

I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me.

John 12:31-33

Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out. And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself.' This He said, signifying by what death He would die.

Satan is the ruler of this world, and the main recurring theme of the Bible is God establishing his NATION of believers.

Mark 1:14-15

Now after John was put in prison, Jesus came to Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

This was the main teaching of Jesus, and is absolutely critical to understand for Christianity to survive and advance, as corrupt the governments are today. So get off your coach and unite the Christians!

John 17:21 "that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me."

This is the main theme of the only prayer Jesus offers to God for his believers, proving that his message was a nation, a Kingdom (theocracy), priest-rule, or even a communistic village. That all Christians shall be one must be understood as an absolute commandment on par with the other commandments of the Bible, our one-ness being that which Jesus expressed the most care about both in the Bible and today. History shows that all nations who lose their Christian state religion falls economically, culturally, and often lose their nation to invaders. Remember! The devil uses "divide and conquer" ideologies. He has divided the body! A dismembered body isn't much of a warrior. If he can divide us, he hopes that he can win.

Matthew 21:43

"Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it.

The main message of the Bible, establishing God's Kingdom on Earth is evident, and something you might have prayed before without noticing.

Matthew 6:10

Your kingdom come.

Your will be done

On earth as it is in heaven.

The opening prayer and ending prayer in the Lord's prayer are about establishing God's KINGDOM. The verse tells us what God's Kingdom's wills are: Heaven! Before Christ's death, the Earth belonged to Satan, but after Christ's victory, the Kingdom of Heaven was to be established.

Matthew 24:14

And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

We need to build the world's first, Illuminati-free Christian territory/headquarters on Earth, if we are to prepare his coming by defeating the lies of Illuminati quackademia. A strategy centre uniting the Church. Who are we? We are biblically exemplified as "the chosen people/Israel/the Christians". The entire Bible is about the Kingdom: An invasion of Heavenly ways and governance. Setting up a foothold on Earth.

The Bible and Jesus most important words has now told us that our main focus of Christian work AND Christian prayer both should be establishing the Kingdom of God, the theocracy of God.

Jehovah's Witnesses are the only Christian sect who act like a Kingdom separate from this world. Because of Jesus denial of the Kingdom of Israel, the Kingdoms of the world (becoming Caesar) , and because He taught all Christians are a separate Kingdom, Jehovah`s Witnesses do not vote or partake in politics. They also do not sing national hymns, which they regard as worship, because as Jesus tells us, the governments of this world are Satan`s.

John 18:36

Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here."

Jehovah`s Witnesses got one of the most important teachings right, the purpose with the entire Bible, which strangely has been overlooked by all Christians of today.

John 14:30

I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me.

Matthew 4:8.10

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. "All this I will give you," he said, "if you will bow down and worship me." Jesus said to him, "Away from me, Satan! For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.'

Satan is the God of this world, yet you believe Paul over Jesus in Romans 13:1-16, Paul, whose writings many zealous Christians take with a pinch of salt, and do not even regard as sacred canon. And even in our time, when it is evident that our governments, media, monetary system, etc are the Beast-System of the end-times, you still haven`t figured out that Romans 13:1-16 was written for that time only by Paul because Christians were persecuted at that time, not to mention that it could have been added later, because it clearly contradicts Jesus teachings.

Romans 13: 1-6. Paul teaches Christians how to conduct themselves towards those in authority. He writes, "Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God." Paul`s words seem clear—Christians must obey the laws of the land.

WHAT!? This certainly falls into the same category as Paul writing Corinth in 1 Corinthians 14:34, saying "women shall not speak in the congregation," although we know Jesus often spoke with women, even whores and pagans, and let women speak in his "congregation" when he was alive. Paul wrote this because as all 1st century historians could tell you, Greek Corinthian culture was EXTREMELY discriminating towards women. Men were even supposed to be gay, because women were seen of no, or little worth. This evidently caused a problem between the Church of Corinth and Greek society. The same logic can be applied to the persecuted Roman Christians in Romans 13:1-6. It was written to that particular congregation, and for that time only: Repent, and don't put Paul over Jesus!

Jesus: Satan is the ruler (of the governments) on Earth and Christians should live in communistic theocracies. Paul: God is the ruler of the governments on Earth and Christians should submit to national law. Most Christians are Paulians, not Christians! We must read the Bible as a whole, and give most credit to the verses of Christ.

We see how Paul either wrote out of fear, or out of Jewish indoctrination, contradicting Jesus, because it's a common Jewish lie up until today, that God puts all Kings in place, when the Old Testament (Joseph, Daniel, etc) really teach that God affects governmental business, and if not; why would the Israelites have to fight the pagan Kings and enemies of Israel??? So must we fight in our time to: See the Bible as a whole.

But, of course, some governments had laws we accepted, once, but not in the Beast-system of OUR time. Revelations clearly tell us to exit this end-times Babylon and live separately, preparing his coming, building his Kingdom government. Jesus and Peter prayed for our unity and taught us to live separately anyhow, in communistic welfare theocracies, beast-kingdom or not. That Christians are imbued to live in such a way is inseparable from Biblical faith, the Book of Acts and John 17:21, the only prayer the only time Christ HIMSELF prays in the Bible. Living together is to be seen as an absolute commandment, judging from all scholarly views of all Christian denominations. His heart is so crystal clear: "May they be one." Thus, we must unite. Not only would uniting be good for strengthening our Church, bringing peace to the world, no, it is an absolute commandment.

Jesus had the opportunity to become the King of Israel and the world. At the time when Satan tempted Jesus, there already existed a worldwide empire, the Roman Empire, which must have been a great temptation to Jesus Christ, or else, Satan would not have tempted Jesus in such a manner. Jesus was tested with his ambitions for power and dominance so secure the world, but Jesus knew that the world first had to be saved by his sacrifice, and then he would fulfill the Old Testament prophecies of the messianic Kingdom, which is the main theme in Isaiah and Zechariah.

Zechariah 14:9

And the LORD shall be King over all the earth.

In that day it shall be—

“The LORD is one,”

And His name one.

Revelation 5:10

And have made us kings and priests to our God;

And we shall reign on the earth.'

Revelation 2:26-27

And he who overcomes, and keeps My works until the end, to him I will give power over the nations—

'He shall rule them with a rod of iron;

They shall be dashed to pieces like the potter's vessels'— as I also have received from My Father.

For info about Christ's second coming, I recommend my own book, the Secrets of Revelations. Let's follow the Bible as true disciples and create the Kingdom, welcoming Christ. Do you expect Him to come to a scattered body? Jesus spending one day with one arm here, one arm there, telling them to unite?

Most Christians comfortably believe Christ will do all the work, destroying evil, uniting the Church, and setting up his Kingdom. May I ask where??? And have you prepared for his words, his truth, his educational platform, started his priesthood, etc? We are already IN the Kingdom, so form your own nation, the first Pentecostal/neo-charismatic nation in world history! Is that too far? Is it not our religious right? If there existed Christian nations long ago, then sure we can do better today! But most Christians believe in this word, and elevate it above the recurring theme of the Bible, the story of the Israelites and Christ's teachings:

When asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus replied, "The kingdom of God will not come with observable signs. Nor will people say, 'Look, here it is,' or 'There it is.' For you see, the kingdom of God is in your midst."

A scattered, infiltrated, broken body of Christ has no Christian nation in the world, no intelligence agency, barely any think-tanks, no private schools, nor any Earthly stronghold outside the lies of quackademics anywhere on the planet. The west is financing terror group jihad murdering millions of Christians persecuted everywhere on the planet, without media exposure, and you still believe you are preparing his kingdom by neglecting all other scripture and following these verses? Let me explain to you.

The story of the Bible is the Israelites struggle for independence. This is the eternal word and has not changed to this day. Our Christian struggle today is exactly the same, the Israelite/Christian struggle for independence.

Yes, the Kingdom of God is in our midst, but it is also Israel, the body of believers and the Church. That should be evident, taking all of the Bible into account, and not only this verse! Does not Jesus pray for us to be united? If you read Luke 17:20-22 from the circumstance where Jesus is a threat to the government, planning to set up his own Kingdom, and is asked where the Kingdom of God is by hypocritical pharisees, it is no wonder he answered: "The Kingdom of God is within." It was an easy win, and the most truest definition of the Kingdom of God. By now we should understand that Romans 13:1-6 and Luke 17:20-22 stands out as the only verses standing out from the entire rest of the Bible. These verses were written when the Kingdom of God was at threat by the Jews and Romans.

Or what did you imagine? That because of this verse: Christians shall have no nation? No private-schools? No Churches? Jesus was simply trying to make a point, and the Bible must be read as a whole. I strongly urge you to pray over this, as I felt God has put this message so clearly on my heart. The Kingdom of God is elsewhere defined as 1 Israel in the Old Testament, as 2 Heaven in the Lord's Prayer, and 3 as the Church. So, what is the Kingdom of God; what is Heaven like? What form of governances are Biblical?

The recurring governmental form in the Bible is theocracy, either in the form of priest-rule by patriarch Judges, or Judah's anointed Kings and priesthood, where national is also religious law, and there is little or no distinction. Now, monarchy, as in the theocratic monarchy of King David is wrong. Jesus is our eternal King and High Priest. The priesthood is also abolished, with all Christians being equal brothers and sisters, one of the core teachings of Jesus Christ.

The garden of Eden was peaceful anarchy. Heaven's governmental system is the same: Everyone knows only good, not good and evil, as happened after Satan took the form of a serpent and seduced Eve.

The governmental system that we are to follow is the Church of the book of Acts.

Acts 4:32

The congregation of believers was one in heart and soul. No one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they shared everything they owned.

Taken literally, this would be anarcho-syndicalist welfare communist theocracy, that is, ghettos, monastic societies, or villages where the Church is the governing body, representing God and the Bible, and acts like school, religious school, social welfare, children's care, elderly centre, judicial centre and/or police station, hospital etc. As all are brothers, the Church/this system has no leader, only "representatives of the Kingdom" as this is where GOD rules, not where PEOPLE rule. This is the Biblical governmental model or The Kingdom of God/Heaven/Christ. Self-sustained ecologically intelligent farming communities built on future high-tech alternative physics technology. The term anarcho-syndicalist would be right if we are to implement this inside of another country, thus excluding ourselves from their laws, as anarchists. Anarchy is no laws, only nature, and the governing form of Heaven and Eden, where man knows only good. Anarchy also symbolizes strength and freedom, two important factors of Israel/the Church and the Bible, e.g "free will and free economy."

A free market economy / right-wing capitalism has been the Biblical recipe for Jewish fortune in all ages, capitalism contributing to Europe and America`s great fortunes, strong economy through competitive market economy.

If we were to amplify the Acts governmental system into a nation-wide system, focusing on the 4000 year long Judeo-Christian tradition of free-will/economic freedom/capitalism, which I term ultra-liberalism (in the scholarly sense of liberalism, not the modern term "liberals") , as well as applying the communistic welfare system of the book of Acts, this 1st neo-charismatic independent Christian nation would be a "ultra-liberalistic welfare theocracy" where people have independent property and economy (not communism) , but welfare (having everything in common) is sustained by paying a biblical 10%+ income as taxes to the Church which takes on the role of parliament, comprised by voted Church leaders. The Church/parliament is without power, as the Church is the people, and traditional government ceases to exist, Church departments overtaking the role of earlier government departments, and government officials replaced by hired "government" officials (experts in every field e.g doctors in healthcare, engineers, scientists etc) suitable for distinct Church departments, with an internet direct democracy, love for Jesus, no corrupt media, and transparency in the Church, will prevent rats in the system. The people are thus the government and the parliament. This is just one model.

Read my entire new state model if interested, but for now, I think we should focus on Christian ghettos (or villages) with private schools and start claiming our religious rights.

It`s ironic that Muslims live in ghettos while Christians don`t, as Muslims have no commandment to do so, contrary to us Christians which are specifically told to 1 "be one", and 2 "have everything in common" as Jesus and the book of Acts command us. This is a Biblical absolute that has been forgotten.

Yet most Christians assume the Kingdom of God doesn`t have any governance. HIPOCRITES! Have you not read Isaiah and Ezekiel?! Just ask yourself this: How can a great number of Christians live together worldwide without any governance??? Show me a working example where mankind lives without physical representation of society, structure and governance.

Biblical characters, the early Church, and most prominently; Jesus life show us to be courageous lights in a dark world, fighting for freedom, justice and non-compromise to evil. He died fighting corruption himself. But you believe you can fight, be light, and defeat tyranny only by praying, without making a physical manifestation of Kingdom culture because "the Kingdom of God MUST be ONLY within", only in the prayer room!?! So, you lie there in "soaking worship" while ISIS perform genocide of Christians, and you excuse yourself for doing nothing about because "this is Satan`s government and media, but CHRIST`S Kingdom is not of this world". Even a child would realize that doesn`t make sense. What happened to "your Kingdom come, your will be done on EARTH as it is in Heaven"? Luke 13:1-6 was only relative to the time prior to Christ`s victory on the cross. But now, the Kingdom of Heaven is among men. This should be self-explanatory. Yes, THE Kingdom is spiritual, amongst us, but "the Kingdom", or the physical representation of it is physical. Only such an explanation makes sense.

Picture yourself this: Inside a congregation are a team holding hands, saying "we are the congregation", yet on the entrance to the building it says: "The congregation." The most true meaning doesn`t necessarily mean the other meanings are false. Yes, God`s Kingdom is within, but it is physical. Christ doesn`t mean to say: Don`t build Churches. He only tries to demonstrate the most vital point: The Kingdom of Heaven is within.

Pray about this: Why would Satan tempt Christ with worldly power if that was not his goal? The Lord prayer begins and ends with "let your Kingdom/Heaven`s governance come."

Matthew 6:13 "For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever."

How can God be given the power, the Kingdom, and the glory on Earth if there is no Christian Kingdom, no Christian nation?

And with the lamb now being victorious after his sacrifice on the cross, the Kingdom of God has (anno domine) come among men, and the great commission and the Lord`s prayer instructs us to build his governance/Kingdom.

Revelations 5:12 "In a loud voice they were saying: 'Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!'"

So the Bible clearly instructs us to give Jesus power. Let me ask you this: What is power without governance?!? Let me further back up my claim.

Revelations 19:16 On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

You gullible hypocrites! How can there be Kings and Lords without any Christian system of governance?!? Assuming that these are "co-rulers with Christ", us, and evidently not Satanic rulers, and that we are a "heavenly Kingdom of priests", that is, we are royal Kings and Priests, as is Biblical.

From what we have concluded, then let me ask you this: How can Jesus have the power, and we be his Kings and Priests if we have no system of governance??? Heaven is a theocracy, so the Bible clearly tells us to prepare Jesus theocracy. That was what the papacy and Christian nations with Christian Kings was all about, the pope being the Vicar of Christ. Our ancestors understood the Bible, but Christians today are un-manly, frightened cowards who dare not even dream of a Christian nation, seeing such dreams as "extremists", whileas there were dozens of such Christian nations only a hundred years ago. Now we all know the pope is the antichrist, but you get my point: Will you do nothing to prepare Christ's coming?

Conclusion: All Christians seem to have missed the entire message of the Bible, from Noah to the first Church, from Isaiah to the modern conspiracy-theorist prophet, and from the Kingdom of Judah to historical Christian nations:

Christians have taken Luke 17:20-22 and Romans 13:1-6 out of context from all the rest of the Bible. Christians have used these verses as a ban on Christian nationalism, Christian patriotism, Christian supremacy, and basically outlawed building God's Kingdom, the (ultra-liberalistic anarchistic) welfare theocracy, Christian ghettos, Christian communities, and use these verses + "Jesus is gonna fix eeverything" as an excuse to sit back and watch the Islamic holocaust of Christians while our formerly Christian nations die, with Christian patriots being seen by the Church as extremists and dangerous conspiracy-theorists.

On this rock I will build my Church, said the Lord.

It was the historical Jesus Christ who physically appeared to me, (yes, he does that, He's still alive) and two witnesses in 2012, in a hut in Sweden, after we had discussed starting a Church. God had miraculously led us together, and gave us the EXACT same visions of that Church, among other things, and that it will become the ONE-TRUE-EVERLASTING-CHURCH of the 1000 year reign, founded on St.Peter, which is ironical, since the father of one of the 3 witnesses that saw the Resurrection had a father who was a priest, who built 6 Churches, whom had written a gravely serious book "What if St.Peter returned today???"

This certainly awakened the Master's attention. I fell down to the floor and worshipped my Father. The others simply saw a blinding light.

I also met Gabriel, and Michael in dreams that same week, and even that very day, only one hour before the morning visitation. We are a messianic-Jewish family, and I consider the two other witnesses my parents.

Let me just state a fact. You believe you know Jesus??? We will discover that he functions as a synchronicity-key of God's revelation of endless mercy, but what I want to tell you is that he is no longer on the cross... He is a very fierce, majestic being, utmost wise, and a King. Respect him as such. His eyes were literally ablaze, and I mean literally.

So I was adopted by messianic Jews, and that is why I changed my name to Thomas Eidsaa for a time, an old noble family from Sweden, historically a family of generational priests on good terms with the monarchies, and with personal connections to historical popes, who met these on several occasions.

But when I come home to Norway, the pagan, Nazi police of Norway tortured me for having seen the resurrected Christ, and sent me to mental-institutions to kill me...

But Gabriel, and the Resurrected Jesus watched over me until I completed the books on this page that Gabriel one day told me to write, and so I did.

We were originally going to call it the Church of St.Peter, but I was isolated, and not allowed to travel back to my family in Sweden, so I stayed behind enemy lines with my biological family, who tortured me, yet wrote the books over 3-4 years, and called the Church "1st century ministries" , for God had prepared me all my life, and I had the knowledge.

My goal, or Christ`s goal is to create a perfect, biblical Church of ABSOLUTE truth now that we have all knowledge about the 1st century in the 21st century.

(The knowledge they don`t teach you at school.)

Where do we strike as Christ Universal Bride???

The cultural, and monetary elite are invulnerable, while the technocratic elite is vulnerable.

We can`t produce a Christian version of Hollywood overnight...

Nor can we take over the financial empire...

But we CAN and MUST attack the technocratic elite.

Technology and education. Investigative journalism.

The science we`ve had since Einstein, and Darwin are masonic lies.

Led by a technocratic elite in all fields of expertise.

Lawyers, doctors, teachers and scientists.

Satan LOVES to inverse the truth.

Science is "the atheistic religion of Illuminati quackademics."

Their thesis` are not based on fact and is just as much a religious faith as any other.

The technocratic elite is therefore your target, and you will begin your journey on this website. Here you will find mindboggling information on how "they" lied to you...!

We will reform the theories of physics, theory of evolution, and history!

We will reform the curriculums at schools, the universities, books, and the Church!

Then we will build God`s Kingdom upon this TRUE Science. A science where religion (Christianity) , and science is inseparable. Because as you will discover: TRUE science is Holy, and gives GLORY to the creator.

THEN we can build a TRUE civilization where ALL are enlightened brothers!

We want a Heavenly Kingdom of Royal Priests as in the Bible!For we are the Christians of St.Peter! On this rock, Jesus will build his Church!

Not the Circus Church, or the Vatican 2 Sect as defined by the Roman Catholic Fr. Peter Diamond...

My vision.

We combine 1st-century, and 21st century, spirituality and science to life!

Visit www.1stcenturyministries.com

The goal is to create a Kingdom of Priests!

Because any historical high-civilization is built on ethical unity through science, and religion inseparable.

The sacred science - now monopolized by a monetary, technocratic, and cultural elite.

This is thus no civilization. We`re sheep while secret societies rule us!

We will START a trojan horse civilization of enlighteners WITHIN the post-America trans-culturalism!

You might see this website as a prophetic commando-central for what mission Heaven has in store for you!

We have 5 projects - and more -

When completed: All the world will be a Christian utopia! Guaranteed!

This is a time when Christians must take ACTION!

When things go bad, all Christians PRAY!

Prayer is the oldest excuse for not taking ACTION!

And it is nowhere in the Bible. Relying on prayer, and hope is the devil's greatest tool.

Prayer can change the spiritual. But not a man pointing a gun at you.

All targeted individuals KNOW that.

You must realize you've been lied to, and that their lies have

THE EVILLEST INTENTION!

You must realize that PRAYER does NOT work war, only ACTION!

We Christians are the institution of Heaven, and the state has become the institution of Satan, god of this world.

It's all in the Bible.

Does Church only represent Sunday-church-service?

NO!

It represents alternative government, media, culture, physics, schools etc.

The Vatican has failed us!!! TRAITORS!!!

Christianity has NO backbone!

Where is the replacement??? RIGHT here on this site.

We are the first institution of Heaven on Earth. The Church of St. Peter, not the "Vicar of Christ!" Blasphemy!

Because this is the first time Christianity has organized a functional rebellion.

Whose goal is to create a perfect, biblical Church of ABSOLUTE truth now that we have all knowledge in the 21st century. (The knowledge they don't teach you at school.)

And that this lighthouse of absolute biblical truth, now founded upon 21st century science and absolute truth will be a watchtower for all eternity guarding the people, so we never fall into slavery, or the NWO.

A Church with truth as teachers, and caretakers of this world.

When the state no longer serves the people, the Church must rise to be that leading role. To protect the people from the state.

A Church that is not only about Sunday-service, or practicing religion, but a Church that actually involves itself in society and represents God's divine order and KINGDOM. Against corruption, inequality and lies.

A watchdog watching the watchers. Protecting the people from their own state.

THAT is my vision.

Because most of what they teach at school are lies, and you should realize: The state doesn't care about you.

They serve agendas of international companies and money.

Not the people.

They must therefore be removed by the Church IF we are to function as GOD'S GOVERNERS OVER EARTH!

When the Church realize they are at war with the world.

Not because we declared war on them.

But because they declared war on US.

When the Church realize they`re doing everything to keep us down.

When the Church realize our politicians serve foreign agendas, and that we have been lied to.

A great spiritual, and technological revival of FREEDOM will come like a flood, and reshape this world.

Just like every major civilization was rose because of ethical unity through common technology and spirituality among all its people.

That is the ambition of this Church.

To start a CIVILIZATION.

THE FIRST ILLUMINATI FREE NATION???

To be a light of TRUTH, and a LEADING role for all Christians in all nations.

This is THE Church of Christ.

But all Christians are our brothers of the body...!

They just lack my prophetic eyes...

We will reveal the truths of this world to the public like a lighthouse for ALL!

ALL will see our light, and our leading role!

The lies will BURN AWAY! The Church will be SANCTIFIED! GLORIFIED!

And it will usher in God`s Kingdom on Earth as in Heaven!

A 100-year Christian-futuristic village will lead to a 1000-year kingdom!

That is what Gabriel promised me!!!

When the Church once again is on TOP!

There is proof of God, and we will show it to the world.

They have forgotten and believed the lies quackademics.

But we will make them remember:

Where mankind belongs: In God`s hands.

Led by a TRUE Church. A lighthouse. Of TRUE saints.

Not the common Church, or Vatican WHOREHOUSE!

We are a neo-charismatic Christian church of Nazarenes believing in the Mazzaroth.

We follow the Jewish traditions, sabbath, candle lighting etc.

We are multi-national, multi-ethnic, non-racist, yet Christian-supremacist.

We are scientists, apologists and conspiracy-realists. Building an Acts17Apologetic Empire.

We believe the devil has many agents of deception in this world. The Black Brotherhood.

We are non-compromise to secret societies, slander, evil and conspiracy.

We actively seek to dethrone this illusionary false world and create a real world built upon a reformed curriculum of contemporary quackademics.

We know the secrets of the shape Earth.

We know the secrets of alternative history, giants, Nephilim, angels, and before them:

The ancient humanoid reptilians. The oldest Gods. The seraphim.

We know the secrets of the multidimensional universe.

We know of Christ`s birth 19.08.01 BC.

We know of the Ether, the Source-Field, and the hermeticism of Enoch.

We know the secrets of technology, water, and herbal medicine.

We believe in a code of source, love and light as sacred scripture, revealed to me by Gabriel, whereupon finishing writing it, me, and several other witnesses saw it RAINING INDOORS FROM THE ROOF! The prophesied Age of the Water bearer had come!

But I can't know everything!

I ask therefore:

Will you join me to create Christ's World??? <3

If you feel called to join, you undertake a lifelong oath to truth, and non-compromise to evil: Become a Christian perfectibilist! With utopian, Christian world-dominance as your future goal of life! Establish God's Kingdom of Heaven on Earth!

As responsible gardeners of Eden. <3

Remember: 12 disciples changed the world!

Reformation Revival Revolution. A vision of the Kingdom.

Most reformed Christianity, and Pentecostal churches have become money-business circuses. We will get deep, and reed out 2000 years of confusion. They sell miracles to desperate widows. They sell success-Christendom. They sell emotions. Personal development therapy, going on, and on about the simplest bible verses, and never addressing the bigger picture.

They are in no way a lighthouse which we claim to be. Nor do they look around and see the times. None care for the mission of establishing the 1000-year reign, the wholeness of the church, the future, the nation, or for those who are lost! In what way do they represent a Heavenly kingdom of a royal priesthood? In what way do they represent a civilization? In what way do they represent God's government? In what way do they represent truth and light? Is it not only about Sunday church service?

They pray to the clouds, but do they affect nations? They are only practicing religion.

While Satan built bunkers with UFO's, and monopolized all science, history, media, banks, and sectors of society: We still do not fathom that it's not only about practicing religion. It's about a Kingdom. Heaven's ways on Earth. Is not that the Lord's prayer you pray every day? And the Lord has imbedded this purpose to deeply in my soul.

God has spoken so clearly to me in dreams and visions all my life. He said: Aim for a 100-year society, and I will make it into a 1000-year kingdom. It's first about getting the Bible, and religion right. That's done. The neo-charismatic, and Pentecostal movements operate in the fullness of his glorious spirit.

Secondly it's about making it a continuous society, like the first Christians continuously met in a communitarian fashion.

Then it's about starting Heaven's civilization. Retaking the scholarly fields with true Tesla science, and alternative history. We reach a stage when the Church REALLY becomes a light to the heathen world.

You all know of the (Satanic) Illuminati NWO conspiracy. Christians are called to be the forerunners. The fighters. The heroes of not only religion, but society, and humanity as a whole. To fight evil with whatever, it takes wherever it is.

Why? Because we represent Heaven on Earth. Good vs evil. Amen. Our biblical mission is a society. A Heavenly Kingdom of Priests. How glorious!

We must in all be non-confirmative to evil, and non-compromise to lukewarmness, and half-way solutions. We are the body of Christ and need a lighthouse. We cannot have a body without a head, and we can no longer trust state churches, or the catholic church to represent Christianity. The Lord is telling us to see the signs and times.

Luke 12:56

Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

Christ is obviously talking about the Mazzaroth, which we will get into. A great treasure lost in time.

The battle is raging!

God had a pastoral, and prophetic calling for my life that started as very young. Much like Martin Luther. Yeshua, Jehovah, and the archangels have been giving me visions, and visitations about starting a temple of God since 2012. He led me to the right people, and I journeyed to Israel that same year with a hunger, and many tears. I was 9 years old when God called me to a life of service. I was 12 when he poured out his pastoral, and prophetic anointing on me.

The road has been rugged, but Christ is the path, and even though it's full of reeds, I'm still on it. I always was.

It has been a hard spiritual battle, but every time I've been about to give up, an angel appeared (Gabriel), and gave me the same vision time after time for 7 years, piercing the darkness, and driving away the demons until God's task is fulfilled.

The vision I saw was always about an arch of stones covering Norway. The arch was made up of many stones, and two angels identified themselves as Michael and Gabriel, and spoke how God will build his Kingdom in Norway. God has HUGE plans! Hallelujah!

Jesus, and the angels (Gabriel, Michael, Uriel, and others) visited me in many dreams, but the one night I had the vision I first told you about was very special. I was staying in at a cabin in Sælen Sweden with two devoted Christians. One hour after I woke up, while I was telling the dream, we had an apparition of the transparent Jesus in his ascended form, appearing in the middle of the room, blinding the two others who were present. He only looked at me until I cried, and then he was gone.

The girl I was talking to had confirmed the dream, and the presence was so powerful Jesus decided to show up!!! Can you believe it!

I was on the floor smiling and crying for 10 minutes bowing and praying. We spent one week in that cabin, praying, and receiving visions about this Church.

The crazy part is how we always received the same visions! For one week! She was very gifted in the prophetic. These two others (messianic Jews) present shared God's dream of establishing an Israeli Kingdom in Norway.

They were from the order of St. Peter. One of their parents had even written a book titled "What if St. Peter came back today? "

So, all three of us had been prepared for this outpouring we received in the cabin as we had all had visions about God doing something fantastic in Norway and establishing His Kingdom! Wow! So, he had led us together miraculously which was very supernatural. Although this couple lived in Sweden, we met at a concert in Flekkerøya Norway.

He was videotaping the concert, and I was the one who started the conversation, and we didn't stop before we had been sharing our visions for three whole days in a cabin by the sea where I lived!!! God had given us the EXACT same visions and dreams! Wow! And the craziest part: They had not been outside Sweden for over TEN YEARS!

So, we immediately became best friends, and travelled to Israel, Denmark, Sweden etc that same year. I was well at the time, but that was about to change dramatically...! The state must have learnt of Jesus appearance in the hut and decided to put an end to my life through electronic harassment, gangstalking, and voodoo attacks by hundreds of witches: Trying to prevent God's Kingdom from being fulfilled in Norway!

I came home to Norway and fell ill after travelling the world with these two holy members.

The battle was on, and I was Satan's enemy nr 1. All of society turned on me, and I experienced every Hell they could possibly muster. But in the middle of 6 years of chaos, Gabriel still PUSHED these visions, and never gave up on me.

I would still see the same royal arch above Scandinavia. Sometimes with text. Two types of text appeared underneath, or above Scandinavia with the Israeli Messianic flag of the fish, star, and 7 lamps to the east, and west of Scandinavia. "The Nordic Israel. " And "The Nordic Israel – Burn Babylon" appeared as text.

I am a very talented person, and for the six years of chaos, I was introduced to many who would use me, and abuse me. But after every trial: Jesus always drew me close to my Israeli calling.

I still have contact with these two Jews of St. Peter, but we have fought a hard battle all alone against the world. We are in no way part of a network and have found it impossible to gather support.

All three of us had all worldwide society turn on us, and all three of us fell seriously ill. I even had to support them with a place to live. We reckoned ourselves, and still recon ourselves as spiritual Israelites of the tribe of Naphtali ever since 2012. I promise I saw more deer in the one week they stayed with me in Kristiansand than I have ever seen in a whole MONTH! We saw 6 deer crossing roads in one week, and only one the time we were in the woods!

I IMMEDIATELY started researching hebrewnations.com The naphtalites travelled to Norway according to Jewish author Yair Davidyi whose claims I dare you to refuse. I own most of his books, and it is beyond ANY historical doubt that a portion of the exiled tribes of Ephraim (10 lost tribes) travelled northwards and kept traces of their Israelite identity all the way up to Denmark!!! (Tribe of Dan.)

God united us three together to tell us, and prophecy Scandinavia`s mighty future, and our return to our Israeli roots!

Everything that can be shaken will be shaken!

My vision is a ministry representing God`s perfect authority. An alien invasion, and an everlasting Kingdom! God`s perfect order.

You call THIS a civilization?!? Are you satisfied? Take back the people! Make the Church who represents the people! They need YOU!

First comes religion, and the outpouring. This draws people and creates a continuous Church-service like the 1st century Church! A small society.

But what comes next? What comes next will be so FANTASTIC it will SHAKE and DESTROY the kingdom of this world! I`ll tell you what comes next. God, and the leadership starts RAISING up youth, teachers, scientists, doctors, conspiracy-theorists, lawyers, kings, queens, and children of life, love, light, joy and dance! Shaking ALL the ways of the world! THAT is the next step. SHAKING them! This is the Last Reformation! 1st century Church-life meeting 21st century science! God has poured into my heart the vision of Torben Søndergaard.

All will be shaken. The established order, truth, science, physics, universities, schools, kindergartens, hospitals, police and government! For these are ALSO a part of God's Kingdom but have been overtaken by the prince of this world!

God has this in store for Kristiansand! God has this in store for ALL the nations in the world! God has prepared everything and will lead you the right people! I see a FLOOD of youth dissatisfied with chemtrails, toxic chemicals, and food poisoning!

Bring them in! Bring them in says the Lord and let them transform the Church! It will be built by people transformed by the gospel and happen like a shout of joy! A rebellion of joy!

A ministry representing God's kingdom is only a Sunday church-service, or a prayer house, unless it represents alternative schooling, alternative education, alternative sciences, alternative media, or ask yourselves this: Does God's Kingdom not include these abovementioned?

And are you truly Christians during the week when you leave Church on Sunday? Do you act as a powerful BODY inflicting change? Like an organized ARMY? Like a KINGDOM the enemy has no power to stop?

Do you keep in contact with your royal FAMILY? Do you LOVE each other? Do you ORGANIZE yourselves? Do you ADVANCE in the abovementioned fields?

Or will you sit in your 1000-year-old square churches while Satan monopolize education, medicine, the sciences, and creates HIS kingdom? The New World Order can ONLY be stopped by the Church. YOU must know this.

Or are these fields not a part of the Kingdom? Is not Yahweh the God of the heathens, the institutions, the government, the sciences, and does he not deserve the glory? Do you lack the scholarly mind, do you lack apologetic proof, or do you lack manpower??? Because I, singlehandedly while persecuted was able to do quite a lot! Do you lack courage?

I see a FLOOD of Christian youth BURNING with PASSION for change! They are so FED-UP with THIS world! So fed-up with SATAN's world! So FED-UP with LIES, government, and career politicians serving secret societies...

The world is marching to Hell because you did not conquer the world to lead the PEOPLE.

You should be in the forefront of secret knowledge, technology, and protect the people! But what do we see??? NEW-AGE takes the fight against the (Satanic) Illuminati ALL ALONE!

They fight for the people while the Church doesn't care. Because the church doesn't see. Because it's only RELIGION to them. But not to me. To me it's an INVASION of a Heavenly civilization! A Kingdom! And we are its soldiers! Amen!

THAT is my vision. God promised that when we reach stage 3, and create a community village, it will be a 100-year kingdom. And a 100-year kingdom will lead to 1000 years! Amen!

Critique of the Christian zeitgeist.

What happened to all those hundreds I've seen miraculously healed? Did they vanish? Did they dedicate their life to the afterlife? Did they do as scripture tell, and show themselves to the priests? Did they pose a threat to Satan's kingdom of doctors, scientists and lawyers? If I was healed: I would tell the world! Do they? The Christianity has degraded into a happening, entertainment, and showbiz Christendom with the front altar replaced by a scene for artists selling EMOTIONS. Is this the future for western Christianity? The elderly is dying.

Are grey-haired, and empty chairs in Church-service once every Sunday what God has for Norway? The younger generation is way fewer, and less patriotic. How will the decline in our numbers change if we only sell emotions? Is God not also truth? What happens when the world doesn't need Christian emotions anymore? Are we not called to change our surroundings, and the world we live in? Or are we just practicing religion, and selling emotions? Are we warriors or not? Are we men? The ENTIRE western world is rolling over our faith, rights, and nations like a TANK! Are we not called to evangelize? Are we not at war, and are we not to prepare for His coming where we will reign as a royal priesthood for 1000 years? That is THE gospel He raised me up to tell you!

We cannot remain a Sunday coffee-shop but must organize ourselves as a government – just like any other nation HAS TO DO TO SURVIVE when at war! Does not God have a strategy? Are you and your Church aware of the times, and practicing 1st century Christianity? Are you in the FRONT-LINE, and do you see through the LIES – FIGHTING for the people? Are your eyes open to alternative media, and the BATTLE that is raging= Are you ready to lead? Are you ready to change all education, sciences, and what SATAN invented as reality? Through illegal science: GOD becomes a reality! It's a world of illusions.

And ask yourself this. Are you REALLY a believer, a follower, and a disciple? Do you REALLY believe? Do you REALLY believe in preaching the gospel to the ends of the Earth? DO YOU believe in a worldwide Church united??? Do you REALLY believe in a worldwide Royal Priesthood government of Kings and priests??? DO YOU? For if not: You are not a Christian. And don't tell me "there is only one body of Christ!" EXCUSES! Does not Christ PRAY for you to be one like He, and the Father is one? Is this not his most IMPORTANT prayer for us? Then what can be more IMPORTANT than reforming, and uniting the Church? Think of the power!

Am I stepping outside your comfort zone? Good. You never imagined meeting with other denominations to unite because "Christ says so." That IS the Bible. That is REALITY! Come on! We will build Christ's Church here on Earth as in Heaven! If we are all one body in Heaven, why should we not be one body here on Earth? It doesn't make sense?

And may I ask you: HOW will this come about with grey-haired Sunday-church-service, emotion-Christian youth striving, and afraid politicians bowing to the cultural elite? That is the reality now that the state-Churches, and the Catholic Church has failed us, and preach carelessness, love, a one-world religion, and cultural-Marxism.

And THEY ARE STAGNATE. Islam, atheism, Satanism, paganism, and New-Age is rolling over western Christianity as an ORGANIZED ARMY of tanks as if we were some dead zombies!!! But we are ALIVE!? Or are you like a slowly boiling frog.

Ask yourself this. When someone is trying to kill you, and you are still alive, you FIGHT! Or ARE you a zombie, or a sheep??? They are ORGANIZED! But YOU can't imagine organizing, and uniting the body of Christ...

How will RELIGION survive in a Satanic, atheistic future when science, and "do what thou wilt" is law, and religion criminalized? But it IS not a religion! Christianity IS science and truth! If you studied the illegal science of Wilhelm Reich, and Nicola Tesla – the ether – you would know.

Ask yourself this. If God, and Christianity is truth. And if science is truth. How come everyone think science, and Christianity is diametrically opposed? They aren't! Wake up, watch David Wilcock's Wisdom Teachings on Gaia, and LEAD THE PARADE! Christianity, and science/education was always historically interconnected.

But the teachers preach baby milk of personal development strategies, the prophets preach false hope, the worshippers sell emotions instead of leading armies to bring down Nineveh, and the TRUE apostles like Heidi Baker TRY telling us to be bold, sell all we have, and follow him. But we don't.

The mouth of the prophets is never heard on the streets, or in church.

Christian youth come for the girls, and the girls come for the entertaining music, the emotions, Jesus, and the guitar-boys. The western men have become women, and all respect for oneself as a Christian knight of chivalry, honour, valor, strength, and pride has vanished. All sleep through the speech which never takes on serious topics regarding true living Christianity, brimstone sermons, the bible, sin, politics, society, other religions, or the church failing their world mission.

The original structure of a meeting devised in scripture has completely vanished from all greater western churches but will be reconstructed in prayer houses like that of Kristiansand.

Is it so hard for Christians to grasp the gravity of the situation? Because they are programmed from birth! Because they "don't want to upset anyone." Nobody has ever even considered proving Hell is real. Elijah will testify against these cold-hearted sodomite religions. If Elijah proved Jehovah was God, what more could we do with our technology today???

As no Christians do anything because of political correctness, and predictive programming, none in the atheistic, scientific, and educated community will take you seriously! Do you understand what I am saying? Christianity dies because it separated religion from the developing society! Because you slept!

Future atheists will seek to CRIMINALIZE religion. Hell? Well that's so mind-blowing! It can't be serious talk, look at the stupid Christians in their meetings once a week. They don't even take it seriously themselves! They say: Come on. Hell can't be real.

Repent! You Christians say the battle is over because Christ has already won the final battle on the cross! The great falling-away from faith is a sign of the end-times, and Christ's impending return! How CAN you be so dull!? EXCUSES! And what about the 1st, and 2nd World War? Was it not doomsday for them as well? Fight if you can! Fight for what matters! Will you not fight a tank trying to roll over you?

We believe that all Christians have responsibility as God's agents on Earth: The chosen people!

YOU too are the people! We will discover that Europe, and most of the planet are descendants of the lost tribes of Israel!

Use the weapon of the enemy! They are killing us! For we are love! We are light! We are carriers of truth, and the mantle of wisdom guiding the world by God! We are the anointing, and the blessings to the nations! Your state is evil, was evil, has done nothing but evil to us, and cannot harm us. There is not a single Christian country in the world! We crave this as an absolute minimum.

Even Rabbi Yitzak Kaduri agreed Jesus was the messiah! A Mizrahi/Sephardim (true Israelite descendant) rabbi with MILLIONS of followers in Israel, and around the world! A sacred man who exclusively dreamt of Jesus during his last two years yet told no-one! Oh Holy! This makes my heart bounce! Jesus is revealing himself increasingly more through dreams these days. God will have his planet, and there shall be peace, amen?

My background story.

I grew up in a Christian family and was blessed by God. I went to all Pentecostal movements and grew in wisdom. Many accused me for not bearing fruit. I was very irritated with apathetic Christianity, politics, still reluctant, felt targeted, ashamed, and became totally frozen, very shy, anxious, and had no willpower or outside view of myself! Still God raised me up! I felt like prince without a princess. A prince without a friend in whom he mirrors his heart. A prince losing his fighting cause, easily loses his heart, and becomes a sheep.

I felt bound by Jesus example of putting myself low and followed the Norwegian custom of suffering in silence which is a strong demonic stronghold in Norway. Satan used my angelic purity, courage, and endurance to put a divide between me, and the rest of the church. Whereas I was the super-spiritual, worshipping

Jesus-freak, I was always on the back row observing, and picking out what's wrong in the church. Satan used my inherent, Israelite zealotry to make me swear an inner vow of resentment. I lost track of myself, and the deep resentment got the best of me. Still I kept most of my heart, and purity even to this day. Be bold! Forgive, overcome and love one another!

I must forgive myself and do so every day.

I felt all alone. I went running in the night. I wanted to flee from home from I was 12. I went running every night! The grave circumstances of a failing, depraved world where something was very, very not right, knowing I had to take societal, and political action was all too much for me. I split my soul in half to where I would later choose none of the options! The option I chose was identifying with the nothingness and keeping my oath of bitterness and suffering: To deny myself all. It was the devil's LIES he put inside me from the beginning. He led me from one sad place to the other. Lying inside my head to prevent me from my destiny. He would do EVERYTHING to kill me.

Because I have always been very zealous, bold, hearty, and close to God. Whenever I saw a movie, I would cry. I didn't know of the (Satanic) Illuminati before I was 18! At this time in my youth, I had heard of Crowley, and thought such things could not possibly exist! How could mankind be so evil? It was not even in my wildest imaginations. I was sent here from Heaven with a mission to destroy evil. I felt the power from God burning in my heart. I wanted to rock, and step up, moving out since I was 12!

I felt all the world rested on my shoulders, and that everyone was after me. The overwhelming complexities towered up like rocks in a wall. I gave up life. I chose the easiest option. "Isolate yourself," I told myself. "You don't have to be brave. All your fears are just an illusion. Just wash it away and try to forget and be as normal as positive. Gather the same coals on their head. Trial THEM instead by putting yourself low, I said. "If they don't want you, and if they bully you, they can't have you."

Ignorance is a sin btw, but the elder generation burdened me with what I liken to "an impenetrable high wall of such complex rocks that overcoming it prevented me from starting: Preventing me from reaching my destiny! ". It seems everyone saw my great potential aside from my parents, who always told me "you should not try to change the world, just be a carpenter!" For better or worse...

But I felt all my life was wrong. I felt so bad inside, I shut myself out from all I loved, and all my friends, and tried to deny my calling, but it didn't go away... I felt like Jonah. Everything that happened just happened. I don't know why. I had lost myself so long ago. It might have been my lack of faith in myself, lack of a Church, lack of a mentor, lack of a political party, lack of Christian friends, bullying and slander in Church, apostasy in the Church, and my rage against the Church and it's whoredom. I then left the Church, as I lost my girlfriend, and the only Christian friends I ever fell into the temptations of this world. I was furious at Norway, and gave her up. My only Christian friend left introduced me to Cannabis, and I started smoking because I lost my girl. I wish I could go back in time and tell myself how lost I was, and that you must find your brace inner child. I was always so brave. So very brace...

Nobody was encouraging me. I was 18 when I started smoking, and growing mushrooms and Cannabis, just to be happy and have a normal life with normal friends like everybody else. But inside, I felt like that lost hero of my childhood, who always climbed mountains and played his flute in the woods every day, dreaming of creating the perfect world, and I knew it with all my being since I was a young kid.

I wish I could meet myself back then, and tell myself to find yourself, but nobody helped me. In fact: I have been avoided and alone as an outcast all my life. The devil whispered: "It's not your job, it's the parenting generation's fault." "Put yourself low, and you will be put high." "Test their conscience and gather coals on their heads, don't lead them. They're all corrupt." "See if there is any gold in their hearts." "If they don't see you, then they don't want you, and they don't deserve you."

I thought all were talking behind my back. I purposefully denied myself all I was, wanted and loved. I deserted my destiny. And look at the fruits of their crimes!

Chapter 2: Conservative theology.

I myself am a conservative Christian. This is aimed to be a biblical book. All my other works are for interest only, but this is the official theology of the Church of Light.

I believe all churches shall be integrated into 1st century ministries because of the prayer of Jesus in (John 17:21)

I still believe in the usual, catholic-protestant mass-statement of belief:

(aside from that he will come again)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of Heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into Heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father,

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Here comes the truest rendition of the Lord's prayer as it should have been and was prayed by Jesus who spoke Aramaic.

Our Lord`s prayer translated into Nazarene 1st century Aramaic:

Oh Thou, from whom the breath of life comes, who fills all realms of sound, light and vibration.

May Your light be experienced in my utmost holiest.

Your Heavenly Domain approaches.

Let Your will come true - in the universe (all that vibrates) just as on earth (that is material and dense).

Give us wisdom (understanding, assistance) for our daily need, detach the fetters of faults that bind us, (unforgiveness) like we let go the guilt of others.

Let us not be lost in superficial things (materialism, common temptations), but let us be freed from that what keeps us from our true purpose.

From You comes the all-working will, the lively strength to act, the song that beautifies all and renews itself from age to age.

Sealed in trust, faith and truth.

(I confirm with my entire being)

Laws and the sanctification process.

Religious laws, often in political and judicial systems. Many think laws are the foundation for all of Abrahamism? But is this so? Are the neo-charismatic and Pentecostal liberals living in the prophesied age of lawlessness??? Jews and Muslims have a set of laws they categorized ages ago. But can the same be said about Christianity? This will be the first historical attempt to categorize Christian laws, something I did in my dark night of the soul to secure myself from demonic attacks. Laws are definitely Biblical, even in the New Covenant, as Jesus himself says the Mosaic law shall never disappear. But then Peter (the most law-ish of all the apostles) gives only 4 laws for non-Jewish Christians?

Although we are free in the Holy-Ghost mercy covenant, not all people are naturally inclined to civilized behaviour. That is why codes, and laws like the ten commandments are necessary. Salvation comes through a personal relationship to Jesus, God, and the saints through ascending conscience via the Holy-Ghost mercy covenant of the sanctification process, where we sin, but immediately repent, and grow ever closer to God through intimacy and loving personal fellowship with Christ. We learn to love what Jesus loved: Laws.

When we sin, God doesn't want us to feel useless, depressed or ashamed, although this is initially healthy, repent from it immediately, for we do not operate with shame before a distant God of condemnation, but through a God of loving intimate fellowship. We transform gradually through an intimate marriage, and deep personal relationship to Jesus until we finish the sanctification process and sin no more, ready for ascension. This implies stopping all masturbation and porn in your life.

Becoming sanctified and growing closer to a sinless nature is nothing you can possibly accomplish yourself through strife or self-loathing. You yourself do not possess the energy and dedication, and if you tried, your law-ish nature would be proud, and bitter against those who live according to the flesh, until you find that JESUS provides the energy needed for sanctification through LOVE. Unless your holy nature is based upon direct loving manifestation of Heaven in your life, it will be a journey of strife, self-condemnation, self-loathing, shame, pain, and if you ever become sinless (without a loving relationship to Christ) , you will become proud, and bitter against sinners, because what you accomplished was your own work and not what God manifested in your life.

What is freedom? Is freedom sinning? Or is freedom the victorious liberty over carnal man: Ascending into higher conscience. The book of Romans discuss this. Truly I tell you: The freedom from sin I have received through deep meditation, dedication, and work, all facilitated through RECEIVING love from Christ, is a spiritual sensation, a freedom not of this world, a peace not of this world, and a constant condition of bliss from ultimate re-unification with Creator God. Remember: Jesus is the way, the truth and the life TO the father. Nobody comes to the FATHER except through him. The father is the goal.

Warning against sin.

Many say "you can sin as much as you want, and still go into Heaven!" Yes this is true. Yet only if you never sin against the Holy Spirit, your reborn will. Your higher self. What I am saying is that you must never stop the sanctification process or abandon Jesus in your heart when you first have gone down that road of being a devote religious observer. St. Paul is clear about that.

That would be spiritual dishonesty towards yourself! In essence: NEVER CONVERT RELIGION OR DENY CHRIST WHENCE YOU BECOME A CHRISTIAN!

Then: As long as you live true to your will, and heart in faith: You should be safe as long as you are pure in spirit while sinning. That means: IF your spirit flies from something sinful that bothers your heart: LEAVE IT IMMEDIATELY!

This is especially important if you are being adulterous and feel something magical going on that warns your spirit during the sex act. Remember! Sex is becoming one! In general: Stay away from unclean spirits, and you should be safe. I want you to reach Heaven, yet still be happy in your life! I will therefore go deep into all laws of the Biblical Christian. So, you can be safe, and decide the right thing to do! Hell is below, and the law is a good choice to keep us absolutely safe: even though we non-Jews are not under the law, but a new species in Christ. Remember! It is always better keeping more laws than keeping less. Does not Jesus say: Love God will all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength? Love for God is also loving the law.

WARNING! I myself was a great sinner, and almost abandoned my faith. I thus testify of the great danger of leaving faith just like Moses knew what was sin from being raised in a dark, magical household, something I relate to. I know what sin, as I am a over-sensitive person given the gift of discernments of spirits, and spiritual warfare. I am here to help you! I was the greatest sinner!

Still I tell you: EVEN if one poor soul comes to our church, confesses he fell completely from grace, and wants to return: Keep the doors open. Even if he is possessed: keep the doors open. Lately I will tell you this: If there is ONE thing to learn from my life, it is God's mercy.

Yet Jesus specifically says: Those who blaspheme against the holy spirit shall not be forgiven. I never did that. Know: One could also interpret His words as those who sin against your inner Holy Ghost, or sanctification process shall not be saved. I meditated on this, and felt God reveal to me: Never sin against your heart, true will, or inner self! I almost did it, and I was BROKEN for 7 years! I'd rather not explain.

The eight commandments of the New Testament.

Did you know there are seven commandments in the New Testament?

There still must be laws for peace, and order in any society. Of course, there must be laws! So what Christian laws are there for the world today? I have written extensively on the subject, and there is much controversy among theologians, but I have prayed over this, and present to you the 15 combined laws for all believers. I think most theologians would agree on this one.

Although salvation comes through a personal relationship to Jesus, God, and the saints through ascending conscience through the Holy-Ghost mercy covenant, there still must be laws for peace, and order to function. Of course, there must be laws! So what laws are there for the world today? I have written extensively on the subject, and there is much controversy among theologians, but I have prayed over this, and present to you the 16 combined laws for all believers. I think most theologians would agree on this one.

Law 1 – Love the Greatest Command

Luke 10:27

"He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind', and, 'Love your neighbour as yourself. "

John 13:34-35

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another. "

Law 2 – The Greatest Sin

Matthew 12:31

"And so I tell you, every kind of sin and slander can be forgiven, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. "

Law 3 – The Outreaching Civilizer

Matthew 10. Matthew 28:19

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost"

Law 4 – Unity in the body.

John:17:21 , the only prayer Jesus prays for us is that "all of them may be as one". Let that sink in.

"That all of them may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I am in You. May they also be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me."

Acts 4:32

"The congregation of believers was one in heart and soul. No one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they shared everything they owned."

Laws 5, 6, 7, and 8. The absolute apostolic commandments to the initiates and heathens.

Acts 15:20 "But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. "

Idols mean all idolatry as for instance the television (tv SET), pornography, pop-stars, posters, images, and other deities other than God himself. One is allowed to venerate saints, but not as Gods. More like a friend whose emotion/anointing you treasure. We seek to have such oracles of God (saints) whom live holy before the Lord constantly so as to bring Heaven to Earth, or "raise Christ conscience" as some would say as to keep the anointing, and the body together. I got this personally from the Lord.

Noahide laws:

As a Christian who experienced problems with evil, I personally advocate to fill your hearts with love, love, and LOVE for God's commandments as it gives us such INCREDIBLE blessing and sustenance. If He calls you to be one of the 144,000 messianic Jews, I would choose to obey the Mosaic laws I will mention later.

The Jews have their own laws to the gentiles. According to Jewish tradition, the first six of these seven laws were given to Adam in the Garden of Eden (the sixth law, to not eat live animals, was extraneous, since Adam did not eat any animals). When God established His covenant with Noah, He added the seventh (and the sixth became applicable). Each of the seven Noahide laws is seen as a summary of more detailed laws, about 211 totals.

Adam was not allowed to eat the flesh of a living animal in scripture. The only other place in Scripture where a Noahide law might be mentioned is Acts 15:29. The context of this passage is the Jerusalem Council, which met to address the issue of the Gentiles' place in the early church. Specifically, the question before the council was, "Must Gentiles be circumcised according to Mosaic Law in order to be saved?"

(see Acts 15:1). The apostles in Jerusalem answered with a resounding "no." We are not saved by keeping the Law (see Galatians 2:16). However, to promote peace within the early church, the council advised Gentile believers to avoid four things, including the eating of "blood" (verse 29). None of the other three instructions correspond to any of the Noahide laws.

As an ancient moral code, the Noahide laws have been a major influence in many cultures. In fact, in 1991, both houses of Congress passed a bill, signed into law by President George H. W. Bush, that declared the Noahide laws to be "the bedrock of society from the dawn of civilization" and the "ethical values and principles upon which our great Nation was founded"

The Jews believe that when all Jews live according to law, and all heathens believe in the seven Noahide given to all sons of Noah, the messiah will appear on the Earth! They believe that until this happens: all potential messiahs will fail! You see? The road is paved for our success! Why? Because the seven Noahide laws are easily summarized in our pre-existing beliefs as Christians if you combine them with the seven laws of the New Testament! This is all the Bible tells us heathens to follow. We will discover the true religious path for both Jew, and non-Jew. If only we Christians, and Jews could learn from each other, and unite the world in the values of Judeo-Christian humanism: all will basically follow the Noahide moral concept, and the kingdom of the Christian Israel, no the Christian world could be restored!

The seven Noahide laws, as traditionally enumerated are:

1. Do Not Deny God
2. Do Not Blaspheme God
3. Do Not Murder
4. Do Not Engage in Incestuous, Adulterous or Homosexual Relationships.
5. Do Not Steal
6. Do Not Eat of a Live Animal
7. Establish Courts/Legal System to Ensure Law Obedience

A heathen who follows the Noahide is called a righteous heathen, a Hasidic heathen, or simply Noahide. Jews believe such heathens await a reward in their afterlife. God put the Noahide laws on my heart and told me they are valid. The first time I heard of them was one night in Jerusalem where a friendly Jewish couple invited me in for some tea at the sabbath to complete some tasks they could not.

The ten commandments

I bet you are pretty familiar with the ten commandments. I recommend you follow the ten commandments, but it's not obligatory.

Exodus 20:1-17

And God spoke all these words:

"I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Law 1: You shall have no other gods before me.

Law 2: You shall not make for yourself an image in the form of anything in Heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. ⁵You shall not bow down to them or worship them, for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, ⁶but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Law 3: You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

Law 4: Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. ⁹Six days you shall labour and do all your work, ¹⁰but the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your male or female servant, nor your animals, nor any foreigner residing in your towns. ¹¹For in six days the LORD made the Heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore, the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

Law 5: Honour your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Law 6: You shall not murder.

Law 7: You shall not commit adultery.

Law 8: You shall not steal.

Law 9: You shall not give false testimony against your neighbour.

Law 10: You shall not covet your neighbour's house. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour."

Every Christian should love God with all his heart, and through empowerment of a loving relationship to God inherit love for his guidelines. Keep thus the ten commandments although they are strictly speaking only for the Jews. I find it strange that the third commandment is not mentioned among the New-Testament laws of the apostles. I would personally like to add it as an eight.

The 16 combined laws.

With a loving relationship with Jesus free from sin, comes the love for God, and his laws. Loving Jesus means loving what Jesus loved: God and his heavenly ways. This is natural. But are we under the laws? No! We are under a new mercy covenant as St. Paul realized in the book of Romans. It is up to every church, and every person to decide for themselves what is the will of the Holy Spirit, and how not to sin against your salvation. Most Pentecostal churches preach of something I previously mentioned called the "sanctification process." This is very biblical and goes as follows: As we live our Christians lives in the Holy Ghost, we come closer to Heaven, and we know there is no sin in Heaven. We should therefore prepare and be worthy of Heavenly citizenship. That is the greatest argument as why not to sin. Ask: How is it in Heaven??? How can I live a life I will be proud of for all eternity??? Muslims have laws! Jews have laws! What laws do I need to follow, or should I just personalize the Bible???

Luckily, I have found a great combination of laws. The Noahide laws are old-testament laws given to all heathens outside the Abrahamic, and Mosaic covenant. These still count a blessing for us today, and many are the same as the 10 commandments. And then you have the laws of the New Testament which also, miraculously are seven in number. The Bible is always perfect.

Not committing adultery, and some of the ten commandments are for many people much harder than simple dietary laws because of sexual hormones.

If you put the laws of the New Testament, the ten commandments, and the Noahide together, you get 15 laws for us non-Jewish Christians which I came here. This is up to everyone to pray about themselves.

New Testament laws:

Law 1 – Love, also called the Greatest Command by theologians.

"He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind', and, 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' " Luke 10:27.

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another. " John 13:34-35.

Law 2 – The Greatest Sin

"And so I tell you, every kind of sin and slander can be forgiven, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. " Matthew 12:31

It is very hard for us that this law exists. It certainly qualifies as a law. But what does it mean? There are many near-death experiences of people like us. And just like we do sometimes think too loud about a stupid fellow Christian, or say "that was embarrassing", these NDE people come to Heaven. Direct Satanic hate, and attack against God's holy spirit which is history's greatest gift, and a priceless free-ticket to Heaven cannot be forgiven? Apparently not.

Law 3 – The Outreaching Civilizer

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" Matthew 28:19.

Law 4 – Unity in the body.

John:17:21 , the only prayer Jesus prays for us is that "all of them may be as one". Let that sink in.

"That all of them may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I am in You. May they also be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me."

Acts 4:32

"The congregation of believers was one in heart and soul. No one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they shared everything they owned."

Law 5 – Forgiveness

"For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your Heavenly Father will also forgive you. " Is this a Matthew 6:14. Also read the parable in Matthew 18:21-35.

Laws 4, 5, 6 & 7. Acts 15:20 "But that we write unto them, that they abstain from (eating what's sacrificed on pagan altars, and having pagan altars or Gods) pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things (food) strangled, and from (drinking) blood. "

Laws 9-11 from the 10 commandments:

Law 9 - Honour your father and your mother.

Law 10 - You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour. (slander, accuse, and lie about. With neighbour means everyone else.)

Law 11 - You shall not covet.

Laws 11-16 from the Noahide laws:

Law 12. Do Not Deny God

Law 13. Do Not Blaspheme God

Law 14. Do Not Murder

Law 15. Do Not Steal

Law 16. Establish Courts/Legal System to Ensure Law Obedience

The greatest commandment:

As we touched upon at the beginning of this book and chapter, love is the greatest teaching we learnt from Jesus words and life. Love, and the unwritten laws that come with it must be the foundation of the western-humanistic core values for a future, global, and peaceful civilized world.

The apostle St. John said only two words in his last speech: "Love each-other". St. John was incredibly enlightened, wise, and educated – beyond any doubt. If humanity would drop all they have, and only focus on learning to love, they will have come a long step further in their evolution, keeping this world without war for as long as possible with a common outcry for peace as the cabal is exposed while we scream, we are humans, we are love!

If we only focus on keeping the world peaceful for as long as possible, building a warm global society of universal morals, co-existing in Love, and light/enlightenment, we can even end war forever, as humanity reverts back into harmony. You can keep a balloon under water by force, but the moment you let go, it reverts back to it's normal dimension: Heaven/Air.

Love, and light is a new-age catchphrase which in essence means teaching through love! Love sweeps away ignorance, and light shines forth truth to undo the illusions. Although we are loving, we show no restraint in anger towards hypocritic, and idiotic ideologies whose followers go to their graves as with for instance Islam which is unreformed, and medieval compared to our great human accomplishments through the Graeco-roman-Judeo-Christian reforms leading to a basis for co-existing, the humanistic values, love.

Remember what Solomon said. Fear, and love for God is the way to wisdom. This wisdom makes us recognize our fallen brothers, and it's love gives us the courage to confront them in the image of how our Heavenly father lovingly confronts us with our sin. We must love the sinner/heathen yet hate the false ideologies that bind them! We must unite them to God for God so loved the world that he sent his only son to die for us.

The three laws of the Aquarian Age – what if Moses returned.

We all agree that Moses could not have foreseen the technological advancements of our time. His laws fall short of our time since they don't address the dangers of technology. And it will only get worse.

The scalar, and electromagnetic spectrum let's man control the human brain, weather, earthquakes and volcanoes.

Physics made weapons that could erase all life on the planet 100 times over. The nuclear bomb.

Genetics made it possible to be creators we, clone even human individuals, or make new lifeforms. The reason Jesus died on the cross was to atone for the sin of homo sapiens sapiens. The devil will do everything to corrupt mankind's DNA which was delivered on the cross. Jesus delivered us from the fall, when perhaps the Serpent meddled with human DNA, and made giants like the Nephilim. Thus, there are a lot of chemicals, and sciences that are treyf/non-kosher to put it mildly.

Mankind grew to potentially deforest rainforests, destroy the environment, and endanger species. Mankind poison its own food, air, and have sinned greatly against the Creator. They created mega-corporations like Monsanto who monopolize God's creations like seeds and kill the bees. They even gene-modify crops and have done it for a long time. They monopolize even water, which is poisoned.

What would Moses have said if he returned today... You must WAKE UP! You are the prophets of tomorrow! The Biblical narrative never ended and will never! There is no other than you! YOU must be responsible as the descendant of Adam, God's gardener, and take care of His creation. Our first task by God was to nurture the garden. Not to alter it, and enslave man, beast and seed!

As a descendant of David, I prayed, and felt led to take it upon myself to start something in spirit: Creating laws that others must complete.

Aquarian law 1: Homo Sapiens Sapiens is Holy.

You shall keep yourselves holy, as the body is the temple of the Lord, and thus not directly meddle with God's intended biology of homo sapiens sapiens, nor introduce alien, or artificially intelligent species.

No meddling with a human either through spreading of internet lies (slander), surveillance, scalar-waves, electromagnetic waves like microwaves, electronic implants, brain-altering chemicals in medicine, food, nor air-pollutions. Nor shall you in any way alter the DNA of mankind!

Aquarian law 2: God's ordained Creation is balanced, unfathomable and holy.

God is the Creator and is perfect. He forbade Babylon. You shall therefore not change, endanger, or monopolize any of God's creation in a covetous fashion for the gain of money, or power, in a recreation of Babylon.

The way cultures, nations, corporations, and individuals monopolize gold, print paper money, and gives mankind ID numbers is not on par with any religious sense, or biblical form of governance (theocracy, messianic monarchy or Eden) This includes not changing the weather with bad intent. I also FEEL like abortion, and selective abortion must be prohibited if the country-laws, or person is a Christian. Creating a Babel's tower mass of mongrels, and secretly destroying ethnicities, and ethnic cultures is against planetary logic of harmonic plurality, and the Bible.

So, we see that nation-states, and all it incorporates is very questionable, and should be avoided for the creation of a better future alternative way of sustainable nation-state living. We basically need just ONE foothold on Earth as of now.

Aquarian law 3: War is forbidden.

Warbroking tyranny, financial tyranny, war, and armaments are forbidden.

Killing is strictly forbidden. Did I not Moses tell you in the 10 commandments? You shall not murder or covet! Mankind historically warred for many reasons like ethnic-religious pride, resources, and to defend themselves. The latter is the only reasonable form of violence, but not in an information-age of mass communication where mass awakening, and homogenous ethics is simple from diplomacy. War is forbidden and is today: Only a construction to savour corporations.

And that is it.

Ask yourself. Are you still human? God's creation? His beloved son of Adam, the faithful gardener, and divinely entrusted safekeeper of Earth?

We do not know at which point a celestial intervention might occur, and we have no prophets, or reliable contact with the Heavenlies other than vibrational resonance primarily through synchronizing with the heart aspect through the ascended Jesus.

We have no idea.

Darkness fell on Atlantis in a single day. Myth has its Michael descended. Myth has its Gabriel destroyed Babel.

Heaven is real guys. Take precautions, be responsible, and ally with the final victor.

All we know is that after the Piscean reign of the Vatican 1000 years, the nations will war at Armageddon - the Magog war - when Satan is released from its prison.

Which might be right around the corner surrounding 2012, and Christ's potential return. The next chapter tells us doomsday follows this event, although the authenticity of St. John's Revelations can be questioned, a book which I personally condemn for its use in the devil's work of heresy and spreading of fear and confusion. Especially surrounding the so-called antichrist figure, which is now a myth no longer has rooted in the original meaning of that chapter.

The Seven Essentials Deeds

I personally believe in seven essential deeds as parts of Christian life after a Christian Norse saying which all Norwegian Christians know about. Protestants disagree with Catholics, as the latter believe deeds are essential, as do I. Scripture is clear. Every Christian in Norway has heard about the three b's, "bønn, bible og broderfelleskapet". In English they are: Prayer, reading the Bible, and having fellowship in the church. But I upgraded them to seven. It is truly a miracle the 7 essential deeds of the Bible can be numbered starting with a b in Norwegian. No other letter can number these seven in Norwegian, or probably any other language. What a miracle! Again, we see that God always uses his chosen prophets, and work in terms of sevens. These are the seven essentials deeds to a Christian life.

1. Bekjennelse/Confessing. Confessing the Christian faith and confessing sins. Morning shema.
2. Bønn/Prayer. Prayer for yourself, countries, loved ones etc facing Jerusalem 3 times a day. Your intimate life with God. Worship either through soaking, singing, praising God in nature, or art each day.
3. Bibel/Bible. Read the Bible, and study the works, and also seek knowledge of God's hand in creation.
4. Bud/The commandments. Meditate on them and keep them throughout the day. It helps us having God as our first priority, first love, and focus.
5. Brorsfelleskap/Fellowship. Attending church. Being with Christian friends. Bible study. Cell groups.
6. Brødsbrytelse/The sacred communion. The eucharism.
7. Befalingen/The Great Commision. Preach the gospel to the ends of the Earth.

A true miracle isn't it? Praise God!

But what God wants NOW is a revival, and WAKE-UP call to the sleeping Christians, and a parade of humanistic morals and Christian RIGHTS for his west to survive. Amen. A revival of Love and Light!

Far into the Aquarian age: 100 years after unifying world beliefs through universal humanism, based on the universal law of light and love, ending war, starvation, and disease: Heaven will come to Earth, and there will be no more sin, for the devil will have no room without a thorn in any man's heart. In this Millennial Kingdom, all will live in their higher selves: the holy ghost, and all deeds will be sacred, for all will be Christians, that is; enlightened. And love is the key that will start all this.

Regarding law and reward:

It is written that we are rewarded by our deeds. Jeremiah 17:9-10 "The heart is more deceitful than all else and is desperately sick, who can understand it? "I, the Lord, search the heart, I test the mind, even to give to each man according to his ways, According to the results of his deeds. "

Having saintly figures observant of law is important for the over-all morale of any church. The Bible tell that those who are messianic Jews of the old covenant get rewards after their deeds. This teaching permeates the Old Testament. Yet we still see Jesus lecturing the Apostles regarding pride in the afterlife.

Lucas 9:46-48

"Then an argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest. But Jesus, knowing the thoughts of their hearts, had a little child stand beside Him. And He said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in My name welcomes Me, and whoever welcomes Me welcomes the One who sent Me. For whoever is the least among all of you, he is the greatest."

Matthew 20:1-16 seems to confirm this.

It seems love is the law of the New Testament.

Still: I have had revelations from father Abraham about the hierarchical structure in Heaven, and it is VERY real, more so than any army. The day we realize we're part of a Kingdom with an state-political and imperialistic cause to create private-schools, sciences, and nations for ourselves, this world will be Heaven's sacred control in no time. My view is that putting yourself under sacred law is putting yourself low, and not high.

Religious scholars, and law-keepers should be honoured also in this life. This is very important as to keep humanity clean as Christians need someone to look up to just like the Catholics looked up to saints. Yet all praise goes to Jesus, the ultimate idol, and only master for all Christians. I believe great fruit awaits in Heaven for all work we did with God.

Me, and the Bible on sex before marriage, masturbation etc.

It's the big kahuna. What does the Bible tell us?

Our Church condemns sex outside marriage, before and after. But we stress the importance of loving our brothers, sisters, and being social, empathic, and marrying early.

All seek to justify their carnal lusts as children of this sex-fixated era. Adultery after marriage is of course forbidden unless you are the king of Israel and have concubines. (joke) We arrive at the hardest truth that afflicts our personal lives the most, and I will be stricter than Jews. The conclusions hereof must be observed by church-members.

Modern day reformed Judaism, as well as Torah law does not condemn premarital sex, but condemns adultery in marriage severely. Still some Jews condemn pre-marital sex based on this for instance verse.

Deuteronomy 22:28-29

"If a man finds a girl who is a virgin, who is not engaged, and seizes her, and lies with, and they are discovered, then the man who lay with her shall give to the girl's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall become his wife because he has violated her, he cannot divorce her all his days...."

Exodus 22:16

"If a man seduces a virgin who is not pledged to be married and sleeps with her, he must pay the bride-price, and she shall be his wife. "

Jesus says "you have heard that you shall not commit adultery" which implies that premarital sex was condemned by 1st century Jews. He goes on to say "if your right hand causes you to sin (masturbate), then it's better for you to cut it off! " Wow! I'm glad Jesus fulfilled the law so I can have mercy! Even still: We must not forget how dire sin really is and lift this example up so as to promote the holiest of manners possible.

Sunni Islam does not condemn premarital sex as long as in a form they call temporary marriage. Remember that the Muslim leaders are allowed to have concubines. Sharia also tells every man can have four wives. I'm glad I'm a Christian. The leftist feminists should be a bit more investigative before condoning Islam under their political banner of "equality. "

So, in short: Marry young, and stay healthy! Sex is good for you, and you need it! Our church should help forge suitable couples as the great Norwegian saint Hans Nielsen Hauge did, creating dozens of sustainable marriages.

WARNING! Do not EVER sleep with whores or adulterers, for such go straight to Hell, as I can assure you having been caught by such sin myself, having to abruptly stop in the sex act immediately after "becoming one", or putting it in, as I felt a loss in holy power after-which I ran out home – all the way to church, and prayed the day out, staying pure and never going back again. I warn you! Whatever you do: Be aware of witches! Be aware of unclean witches or vampires that are whores! Be aware of death-auras! They can infiltrate Churches and use sex to steal your soul, did you know that? You don't know who is a witch.

Stay away from unclean sex! This is because the spirits merge within the sexual act. Mark 10:8

More: The Old Covenant teaches us that marriage is concluded by the sexual act. Genesis 24:67: "Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah, and he married Rebekah. So she became his wife, and he loved her, and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death. " Deut. 21:13 29:21 and 1 Kings 11:2 confirms this as well. Sex is a spiritual bond that can greatly merge the spirits of the those having sex, which is especially dangerous if done with possessed people!!!

For instance 1 Kings 11:1-5 "Now King Solomon loved many foreign women along with the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women, from the nations concerning which the Lord had said to the sons of Israel, "You shall not associate with them, nor shall they associate with you, for they will surely turn your heart away after their gods." Solomon held fast to these in love. He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned his heart away. For when Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart away after other gods, and his heart was not wholly devoted to the Lord his God, as the heart of David his father had been. " /

Although you can question what an insane harem this was, it also confirms that intercourse with pagans (I.e non-Jews/non-Christians) is considered a sin!

Also: Bear in mind that the ancient Canaanites, and possibly Israelites worshipped Asherah as the wife of Yahweh which archaeological findings postulate. It was also Canaanite/Israelite tradition that the King represented the God (Yahweh), so that sex with the sacred King was considered sacred.

If Solomon was wrong in having such a harem, I do not know, but it seems illogical that Christians, Christ, and common sense should revere such practice.

Because sex outside marriage is of course non-biblical, both in the old and new testament, strictly forbidden, and can become a growing cancer in the church, and develop into a secretive cult-status, or "secret church inside the main church." If a man, and a woman, or a girl, and a boy in our church have sex, it happens. But we don't want church to be a dating bureau, or a springboard for sex.

Put JESUS first. If you find the right one, then that is fine. It should not be so that when a Holy Man such as myself enters Church, I feel unclean spirits of lusts. I would feel like my brothers, and sisters were not brothers, and sisters anymore, but LUSTED after each other! We should LOVE each other with HOLINESS, and not lust after each other.

The Holy Spirit is as we all know, very sexual. It is the spirit of Light and Love. Light=Holiness and Spirit=Love. That the Great Spirit of God that upholds, and constitutes this multiverse, and creates all life has a main script of sexual reproduction is beyond any doubt for those into the Source-Field, etheric physics, and Wilhelm Reich etc. We can thus say that the Holy Spirit is God/Holy mixed with Spirit/Love/The Source/The Force. I am VERY spiritually sensitive and am VERY CERTAIN that the Holy Spirit constitutes the Love/Shekinah/Divine Feminine + God's Holiness/Divine Masculine. We must have pure spirits, and our ministry stays by BIBLICAL doctrine alone. Keeping your virginity until marriage. Which is fantastic, beautiful, romantic, and VERY pleasing to the Lord.

Galatians 5:21 forbids orgies. "And envy, drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God."

Read the Bible as a whole. Do not MISUSE PAUL as they often misuse these verses:

Corinthians 10:23-24 "Everything is permissible, but not everything is edifying. No one should seek his own good, but the good of others." Or as Jesus says "do to others what you want others to do to you." (This can be taken way out of context.) For Paul also says:

1 Corinthians 7:8-10 "Now to the unmarried and widows I say this: It is good for them to remain unmarried, as I am. But if they cannot control themselves, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion."

There's no need to comment on that. The Bible speaks for itself.

Corinthians 13 talks of love, yet this is not sexual love. This is binding love in the image of the Father/God. The love between God, and man is called "agape" in Greek. The human love, including sexual relations is called "filios" in Greek. Agape means "unconditional love". Pure, forgiving, and divine love.

Solomon says:

Ecclesiasties 11:9 Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth. Walk in the ways of your heart and the sight of your eyes. But know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

Matthew 5:27-28: "You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. "

Matthew 5:30 (regarding masturbation) "And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to depart into Hell. " Jesus addressed this right after having a speech about sexual sin if you read the whole chapter. But Jesus came to fulfill the law and was special. So, can we, or can we not have sex while in the Holy Spirit protection, and be free from sin?

What's the meltdown?

Gnostics would deduce that from the hidden, mystic, biblical understanding, as well as the sin of masturbation and porn, it is better for two sacred adherents of the same faith to share a bed rather than fruit feelings of shame, anger, inferiority, loneliness, and all that follows.

Others would argue this is absolute rubbish. We need LOVE not sex!!! One cannot have opposing views in one church body! At least: I won't. (Ephesians 2:14-15.) I have seen what a culture of adolescent sex leads to in a Church. It will lead to feelings of pride, envy, hate, deprivation, contest, secrecy, and perversion between members in the Church, not the opposite, crushing the gnostic viewpoint.

We conclude that the only biblical truth for ANY Church to follow is that premarital sex is forbidden, and so it shall be to the end of time.

Matthew 5:30 tells how we commit fornication only by looking at a heathen woman, but Gnostics say "sharing a bed in Heaven is better" than letting your lust grow until it opens doorways to even greater evil, and immoral lifestyles after emotional loss, and/or low self-esteem often through the lack of physical contact.

I say: Where is the love? The disciples hugged and kissed each other with SACRED kisses as is written. Love is not forbidden. Physical contact is VERY Christian! Sex is however forbidden, because it's 1 Holy, 2 we merge spirits, 3 it causes broken relationships and emotional trauma, 4 it causes division, and a habit culture in the Church, 5 it causes contest and sex-pressure inside the Church and 6 is a sin leading you away from Christ and God who are our GREATEST lovers. They give us a love the world never can, but God can use each-other to GIVE this Holy Love to those who need it. With and without sex.

I as Isus himself lived by the strictest of rules and birthed a completely ruined life with a terrible inferiority complex and write this chapter with absolute knowledge in what is sin, having been the devil himself. I sincerely wish the sin of sex (between holy people) was crucified, and perhaps Jesus did it, but I cannot allow it, neither did Jesus nor St.Peter. Lack of sex may sometimes lead to more lust, and in others do the opposite.

God personally showed me how he intended me to take a wife early, as I birthed low self-esteem complex, and completely ruined my life through my strict rules of lowliness. People targeted me, I was lonely, and never given a Christian mentor, fatherly figure. I lost my force, power and ego through lack of human contact, and replaced my strong identity with a weak identity of false piety, false lowliness, all due to shame and bitterness, when I in fact only wanted to rise to every occasion, something I took an oath never to do, as early as 9 years old.

I replaced my identity of courage with the identity of shame, depression, isolation, lowliness, failure, bitterness, because I was targeted and afraid of what I was and what was going on. That's a topic for another book.

I will end with a quote from a wise man I once met in Hawaii. "The pitfalls of the adolescent life is sex and lust. When adult, it's power. When old, it's greed and money. Beware of these. "

Regarding homosexuality, and same-sex marriage:

We are strict as no Church, or priest should conduct gay, or interfaith marriages for any of our members, as we seek to be the top of true, biblical Christianity, for structure, tradition and order. Still: We do not condemn these above-mentioned on the humanitarian basis, only on religious basis and rather seek to love them then tell them they are sinning. Only Jesus can change hearts. We seek mutual understanding to be a positive community for all bisexual or homosexuals. We have all sinned and are sinners! But we do not conduct gay marriages.

The Mosaic law, as well as the New Testament (Jude 1:5-8 and 1 Corinthians 6:9-11) forbids homosexuality!

The idiotic acceptance of homosexuality is comparable to no other scandal in the Church. Of course you can be homosexual and Christian, but you are not allowed to live out your homosexual life. Homosexuality, like sex in general, is just an urge of the flesh, or a thorn in the flesh. You cannot put God first, and then go have anal-sex. It's self-contradictive. Homosexuality is not some pink, feminine, or rainbow-colored flower affair. Anal sex forces out poo. Gay sex is dirty, stinking and satanic. It was one of the sins of Sodom, and is biblically forbidden. A homosexual should become a priest who vows celibacy. Being a homosexual Christian is nothing less, and every homo needs that support. Let's say I was homosexual or bisexual. I feel an urge to do something carnal. I abstain.

This is the same category as any other thorn in the flesh, like lusting after ladies outside marriage or over-eating! But because some people have decided they were "born this way", it is magically accepted, and the Bible nullified? What flawed logic. An adulterer, or any person who feels an urge to have forbidden sex was BORN that way. We were all born sinners.

Homosexuality is no different than any other sin...

Chapter 3: Regarding Christian tradition and practice.

In general, I think all Christians should be neo-charismatic adult-baptists.

Those who follow me are a 1st century church of the future. 1st century mystery theology with 21st century science and methodology.

Regarding idols, work and dress codes.

We touched upon this in the first chapter of your book, which absolute Christian doctrines I recommend you read before we summarize what conclusions we reached.

Leviticus 26:1

Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall you set up [any] image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I [am] the LORD your God.

The Gods and idols of today are television, porn, idols, super-heroes, tv-stars, musicians, and anime-characters. An idol is something you worship or liken yourself to, making the abovementioned no different than ancient Semite demons. You ARE/BECOME what you CONSUME! This is an absolute Biblical commandment.

Fasten your identity in: 1 Christ/God and Church, 2 family, 3 nationality/tribe, 4 field of interests/passions/dedications/paths of life/purpose, 5 work, and base your IDENTITY in what YOU are and DO, not who or what IDOL you are LIKE!!!

Did you know the Bible never tells us to relax, slack off, or have free-time anywhere, not in a single scripture? Therefore the Jews are so successful. Therefore Christian Europe and America dominate the world, because of the founding Christian doctrine that "mankind shall work", at least until all the world is saved, Amen? You can slack off in Heaven.

God only told us to rest on the sabbath, the only time Jews rest, and to keep that day holy, focusing their identity in GOD, and NOT in Marvel movies!

We thoroughly addressed the negative outcomes of child sexualization and how girls (and males) MUST dress and behave with modesty, dignity and self-respect, not act like soap-opera TV-stars! The Jews wear hats, as we did in the 50ies. I have many Muslim friends who always refer to how Christian dress-codes must return. I personally often wear a hat and respectable, traditional manly clothes when going through a crowded area or visiting a pub, as dressing properly (for both male and female) gives you more anonymity, respect from all culture, and is safe protection against harassment (inc sexual) for both sexes.

1st Timothy 2:9

Likewise also that women should adorn themselves in respectable apparel, with modesty and self-control, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly attire,

1st Peter 3: 3-4

Do not let your adorning be external—the braiding of hair and the putting on of gold jewelry, or the clothing you wear— but let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious.

Proverbs 11:22

Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman without discretion.

This verse basically sums up the hip-hop divas that this generation looks up to.

Regarding holy saints and idols:

We believe in Holy Virgin Mother Mary to be venerated as blessed firstly for what she means to all of us. Luke 1:48. We secondly believe her to represent mother Israel as the woman in St.John`s Revelations 12:1 It is clear from this divine description of her that the disciples deified her as the divine feminine, and as protector especially over Israel`s 12 tribes signified with the 12 stars.

We do not condemn frescoes, or depictions of saints, Jesus, God, biblical characters, prophets, or saints in any form as.

Our veneration of saints is because of their symbolic power, their healing power, their prayers, their impartation of spirit, and because of the blessing, and inspiration such special living, or historical people certainly give! Carrying an image of such a person is venerating holiness and uniting with this power as the one body of Christ, and the true church. It is in any way better than having the cultural idols, and superstars of the 21st century. In remembering that our relatives, and saints who went before us intercede for us in prayer, and watch our daily life, we strive towards perfection.

It also makes us know we are never alone, are protected and loved. Knowing they watch us, love us, and pray for us, it makes it easier not to fall into sin. We thus are the first neo-charismatic church whom reclaim the Catholic tradition of holy saints and confessions. Lists of saints must be made when we first become established, but everyone's favourites are Roland, and Heidi Baker. :) "HOLY!! HOLY PEOPLE!" I would prefer carrying images of living saints. This is like connecting to the power, and body of Christ. You might disagree, but I stand firm in this belief. There is no scripture to contradict this.

Regarding holidays:

I was adopted by Jews in 2012. I agree with Sid Roth of God TV. The Pentecostal, and charismatic movement should move towards celebrating the Jewish holidays and return to our roots. The charismatic movement is the forefront of an expanding world church, the body of Christ moved by God.

Jeremiah 10:1-4

Hear what the LORD says to you, people of Israel. ² This is what the LORD says:

"Do not learn the ways of the nations or be terrified by signs in the Heavens, though the nations are terrified by them.

³ For the practices of the peoples are worthless;
they cut a tree out of the forest, and a craftsman shapes it with his chisel.

⁴ They adorn it with silver and gold;
they fasten it with hammer and nails so it will not totter.

This pagan worship where the tree symbolizes the phallus, particularly of Nimrod, or in veneration to Tammuz is forbidden in Judaism. If we are to take our faith seriously, and set ourselves in respect for our Jewish brothers, we must abolish some of our dear traditions, but God is greater than those, amen?

The New-Testament never discuss pagan traditions. But these traditions were common even back at Jesus time, and both the new, and Old Testament forbids idolatry, or pagan worship. A quick google search makes out the huge number of verses where pagan tradition is forbidden. As this historically led the Israelites astray, keeping pure, Jewish traditions is a battlefield for modern, and historical prophets of the Old Testament.

A Christian should observe the Jewish holidays of a messianic Passover instead of Easter, the autumnal celebrations of Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and perhaps Rosh Hashanah, festival of Lights and others. A Christian MUST observe the sabbath, not the Sunday-church-service which is Roman sun-worship. Jesus was born 19.08.01 BC, which you can read about in my book on Jesus, and should start the autumnal celebrations. We celebrate our own birthdays. I observe the Shabbat from 6pm Friday evening to 6pm Saturday evening as is common.

Regarding offerings:

All Christians should give 0-10% of income, (or preferably all) to the Church or needy. (Malachi 3:10-18)

Acts 2:49 "They sold their property and possessions and shared the money with those (members) in need. "

This is simply law all Christians agree upon, but has nothing to do with more "more or less saved." Yet it still doesn't count among my 7 NT laws.

Regarding confession:

James 5:16 "Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. "

Churches should always be open 24/7. We carry on the tradition of confessions in church, in the way that a master/priest must always be at hand for any member, or non-member. You don't have to confess to the church, but you should confess to some Christian. The prayer after confession is directed towards God and should contain e.g: Father. Jesus is your son. We put your blood-covered cross between your child's earthly sin, and his Heavenly estate. We have confessed the sins of our church before you in Heaven. We humbly know you forgive our sincere hearts as we turn away from our path to sin no more. We abide in your fatherly love. Thank you for forgiveness Jesus. Amen.
(John 8:11 Colossians 3:13 Matthew 14-15 Luke 17:3-4 1 John 1:9)

Regarding baptism:

We baptize all Christians, entire families, and babies by wish. This is my pro adult baptism opinions from 2006 regarding the long-debated question:

Pro baptizing infants:

We will consecrate the children to Jesus before anything can take them from us. Then we are sure they come to Heaven. The children then reaffirm their choice in the confirmation as in regular conservative view.

(This has no validity in the Bible, but it can be interpreted from some texts.)

Nature in us is from the devil and God. Therefore, we are evil. Therefore, we must be baptized right away.

The Bible states that people were baptized with themselves and their house.

Acts 16:32

"Even at that hour of the night, the jailer cared for them and washed their wounds. Then he and everyone in his household were immediately baptized. "

Against baptizing infants:

There is some good and evil in us, but we are not evil from the birth of. We have the opportunity to choose, and Jesus says "let the small children come to me and do not prevent them. For the Kingdom of God is theirs." The first Christians, who knew Jesus baptized people when they came to believe. It was a ritual that the old man is dead and that the new has arisen. Infants have no dead person to lay down. It takes conscience, self-esteem, and self-realization in order to make such a choice. Jesus was baptized, although he had no life to lay behind, and he was pure and grown. It was more of a dedication to what God had before Him. If Jesus is Lord, we shall take after him as disciples. Therefore, you should baptize yourself when you touch your teens, yet that is what we have "confirmation" for.

Furthermore: The Bible states that people were baptized with themselves and their house. But this is an inauguration of the Lord. Also, no children are mentioned. Of course, you have to make your own choices as someone else cannot decide on your soul. Moreover, there is no indication that there were children in the picture.

Our view is that one should raise the children right in Christian faith. Thus, the child can gain faith early and make an early choice of forgiveness and to lay his life in the hands of God. This leads to baptism when the child / youth is aware of what he enters and what he enters. For that to happen: One must awaken the conscience to a certain extent.

Although. It is clear that children do evil things of this world eventually, even as NDE tell that most children go to Heaven. Yet they still do evil even if they do not think it's evil, and some NDE reports of children in Hell!

See how early Jesus was in devotion to Our Father. Like 12 years old in the temple. But Christian children are in no way lost in that stage between when evil begins to appear and the time you are baptized. Or are they? What really has something to say is what Jesus did on the cross. All live and die safely. Children or old, baptized or procured.

But it is clear that as an inaugural ritual, children can be baptized with their family as a sign that they will raise the child in the Christian faith. They do a good deed and no sin. For it is in God's will to consecrate the child according to God's will. But I might not call that baptism. For the ritual, which is the actual baptism, putting the old behind it, and walking the way of Jesus for one's life, must not be replaced. This will not be a pity, e.g child-baptism.

Then do this: Consecrate your child through an initiation ceremony into church membership. This ritual is presenting the child, and letting the entire church bless it.

Live for the Spirit in a brotherhood from the first moment of life. And be together with those who build you up in Christian faith in what is right and good as the will of God. You may want to consecrate the child to God, but do not change the guiding lines regarding baptism and the holy doctrine of the Bible. Initiation may just be being raised in Christian faith and blessed to God's protective hands. When the child / youth / the adult feels baptism calls and wants to lay down his old life to go into God's plan, this must be done according to your own will, and a sincere heart and conviction. Not from people who only sow in the flesh. But that of spirit, and what God shows you. God can of course speak through humans, the messengers of the Spirit.

We thus practice adult baptism, baptize anyone at wish, and consecrate the children born into our church similar to how the orthodox church practices child baptism, yet without baptism.

The rite of pilgrimage:

One should make a pilgrimage to Jerusalem – David's City of Kings, the Holocaust Museum (where I lost myself in sorrow after which the entire bus waited for me 15 minutes searching) , as well as go bathing in Ein Gedi, Israel's Oasis by the dead sea where I received the Holy Ghost, and God revealed to me I was of Davidic blood. It was a holy miraculous experience, and I think it is one of the holiest places on Earth! I purified my Jewish soul, and white Naphtalite curls. They should also bathe in the dead sea where I miraculously was healed after having fallen down on the path back from Masada – faceplanting and bruising myself. This happened the same day as we saw the sunrise from Masada. I could have fallen off!

They must go to Jerusalem – city of Kings- to consummate their faith in the belief of the future Universal Christian World Israel, and the return of the promised Messiah Ben David, the historical Jesus 2nd coming. We will love and Christianize the Jews with the knowledge of Ben Joseph, and my books! We will take Jerusalem! Deus Vult! Having been to Israel is a must and can be taken as part of missionary work. The New-Testament. clearly tells we become spiritual Jews, and are seeded onto the olive-tree of Israel. Our faith is rooted in Israel, and so should our ambitions be...

I love Israel so much... I felt more at home in Jerusalem than any other place I have ever been. I remember the first time I visited in 2006. I was breathless the entire trip, and stared out the window fantasizing of biblical stories as if the very hills swallowed me up, while all the other youth were flirting at the back of the bus.

Regarding drugs and herbs:

Drugs are often forbidden by the Christians who term it as sorcery. I personally use essential oils to great effect. These are not drugs, but what's the difference? Some herbs, and drugs have spirits associated with them when they induce unnatural states of mind which can open doors of perception, into the demonic that might never close. Beware! Stay away from drugs! All that alters your mind to do deeds you wouldn't consider while in a normal state is considered going too far. We know Jesus was called a drunkard, yet we know Jesus never sinned.

This is the Christian stance towards drugs: We believe in the legal use of natural herbs, not chemical drugs, in mystical approach of God only, and primarily as a medicine. We know Cannabis was used as medicine over most of the globe since ancient times up until today, and it is a very effective medicine for some conditions. (But not for cancer, that is another topic.) We know the prophets danced naked and were crazy.

1 Samuel 19:24. Who's going to limit God's creation? Cannabis is gaining legal value over all the earth and is also the greatest medicine in history. We believe in the use of cannabis as a sacrament (Exodus 30:23-24 Genesis 1:29) and medicine, and that this was the Holy anointing oil described by Moses. The Hebrew word for cannabis is kaneh, kannabus, or kaneh bosm. We allow consumption of alcohol, as is debated in bible verse Ephesians 5:8 which is the strictest verse regarding alcohol consumption, and is contradictory to the Old Testament as we see in for instance Ecclesiasties 9:7, although the majority of verses forbid drunken-ness, it seems there is a silver line between enjoying alcohol and getting carried away by it. 1 Peter 4:3 We know how Jesus was called a drunkard (Matthew 11:19), that the disciples drank wine, and that we are to remember Jesus when doing communion... Matthew 26:26

Don't break the countries laws. Every Christian should abstain from smoking since it's ludicrously harmful to the body, and the body is the temple of the Lord. If anyone choses to inhale a medicine, or tobacco for that matter, it should ALWAYS be done with a VAMPORIZER, which come in portable editions, and are not so expensive these days. None will use cannabis anointing oil until such is legal, and never on a regular basis.

Cannabis has historically been revered as sacred to the Goddess (Eve, Freya, Aphrodite, Mother Mary) Isis in particular and her ancient cult. It is still associated with wisdom and magick, the forbidden fruit, and the Goddess today, as in one of it's nick names, "(Mother) Mary Jane" or "Sweet mother Mary-huana." But come on! A plant is a plant, not mother Mary, a medicine from God that can be both used AND abused, as it is in recreational use, at least, this is my personal opinion, although the Bible never condemns Cannabis.

Knowing that Cannabis was widely used during all the Biblical timeline, there certainly would have been a prohibition mentioned in the Old Testament, but there is none. There is however a prohibition of sorcery, with which Cannabis was often used. Greek: Pharmakeia: the use of medicine, drugs or spells, found in: Revelation 18:23 and Galatians 5:20

"The acts of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity, and debauchery; idolatry and sorcery; hatred, discord, jealousy, and rage; rivalries, divisions, factions, and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God...."

I will leave you with a word of wisdom.

Ephesians 5:18 "Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit."

This is, however, the sacred, biblical anointing oil used to anoint (and massively drug) the Kings of Judah/Israel:

Pure myrrh (mar deror(a perfuming resin from a bush)) 500 shekels (about 6 kg)
Sweet cinnamon (kinnemon besem) 250 shekels (about 3 kg) Kaneh bosesem (cannabis) (kaneh bosm) 250 shekels (about 3 kg) Cassia (kiddah) 500 shekels (about 6 kg) Olive oil (1 hin) about 7 liters.

Cannabis Churches have sprouted as in f.i Hawaii, using this anointing oil recipe, and people definitely get intoxicated by it, as 1/6 of the spices/perfumes used is intoxicating cannabis.

Cannabis was regarded as medicine throughout all Earth history up until America president Ronald Reagan declared the war on drugs in the 70ies.

I do not use or recommend the use of illicit drugs, only medically verified herb. Cannabis slows the mind with prolonged use, unless you use it for ADHD, as I happen to know a daily smoking patient who is also our city's smartest, but for most of us: Prolonged use can dull your intelligence for up to several YEARS, and it is CERTAINLY damaging for undeveloped brains of adolescents.

I personally am strongly against legalizing Cannabis, as I fear it will be another escape from reality used to mind-control the masses, but I am pro de-criminalizing it and using it as medicine, as is Biblical. Cannabis is statistically a relatively harmless drug when compared to alcohol. Yet based on the Bible-verses above, you might disagree and say it's sorcery. But then again, the ancient Israelites must commonly have used it, just like the Zoroastrian Persians, Babylonians and Egyptians. There is nothing to point otherwise.

The only recommended non-medicinal, recreational use for Cannabis would be in minimum dosages to increase appetite, induce sleep, calm severe stress and nerves, brain-storming in project planning (it widens your imagination), and deprogramming from ritual abuse, and healing post-traumatic stress, as Cannabis lets you face your emotions and inner demons. Cannabis also makes relaxation more fun, more you sensual, and opens you up to spiritual presences, particularly to God, if that is whom you seek, as did David. But I have found that prolonged use keeps the spiritual doors open so long that they weaken, your spirit weakens, and it's initial effect of euphoria and connection to God weakens, as prolonged use IS a sin (abuse of God's creation) and leaves you wide open for spiritual attacks to eat away at your personality, entering your soul.

Many occultists, Goddess worshippers, whores, and particularly Satanists use Cannabis prior to their rituals. It is a weed with lots of beneficial usages that should be restored for God.

Regarding the sacred canon:

With 5000 historical documents contrary to Muhammad's single account, one must assume: 1. Jesus was either incredibly evil: Conspiring with all of the Levant to fake miracles and create a plot. Or 2: Jesus, and his miracles are actually true.

The Bible is the greatest world heritage, yet so many Christians are living in unbiblical Christianity! We will build the world upon the foundation of the Judeo-Christian humanism, as this is most universal moral code, and also the scientifically proven true religion (Christianity).

"1 Corinthians 15:3-7 is widely recognized by New Testament scholars as a statement of belief (creed) that was systematized long before Paul quoted it. If so, it represents the earliest historical account of Jesus' resurrection, and goes back to the eyewitnesses themselves.

An increasing number of exceptionally influential scholars have very recently concluded that at least the teaching of the resurrection, and perhaps even the specific formulation of the pre-Pauline creedal tradition in 1 Corinthians 15:3-7, dates to AD 30! In other words, there never was a time when the message of Jesus' resurrection was not an integral part of the earliest apostolic proclamation. No less a scholar than James D. G. Dunn even states regarding this crucial text: "This tradition, we can be entirely confident, was formulated as tradition within months of Jesus' death."

Thus, the Bible is true. It is also a mathematical masterpiece as Ivan Panin discovered. If a persecuted few disciples managed to create an entire new world religion so rapidly:

1. Jesus MUST have been crucified.
2. He MUST have risen and been witnessed by the 500.

And the Christians were persecuted! A lot! Why would you risk your life becoming Christian if it weren't true?

What shall be counted as sacred scripture? The regular Bible, the Tanakh. The other cults like the Mormons, and JW are mostly stupid in not believing in Hell etc, as is the case with the latter.

Christians keep the roman Bible, but we cannot forget the important apocrypha books that are cited in the New Testament, such as the book of Enoch, which thankfully showed up again in our time.

Our holy canon of scriptures should include the books relative to the 1st century church including the book of Enoch. The Old Testament was allegedly completed around 396 B.C The first complete Bible we have is 1600 years old. Years before Islam was in anyone`s mind. (except the corrupt Catholics and Jews for those who know Miguel Serano) The Old Testament was written in Hebrew, while the New Testament was written in Greek. Both have a divinely inspired pattern of sevens through numerology discovered by Ivan Panin.

We encourage all to attain knowledge from whatever books you believe in as long as it has a Christian narrative and is not attested to the devil.

Examples of beneficial texts for the common worldwide knowledge basis of Christians are the books of Enoch, the testament of Thomas, the Kebra Nagast, the entire Nag-Hammadi library, or simply all protocanonical and deuterocanonical books.

Future goals of Biblical literature:

Where God, and the opposer once arguably stood as equal losers battling over souls of men in Middle-Earth, we now have solved this problem through Jesus in both spiritual, and philosophical terms. There can be no doubt: Our collections of miracle-working churches, NDE, and testimonies of salvation by faith would be proof enough on itself even for the most serious lawyer, (Satan is a lawyer) yet there are even more proofs in physics! (Read my God Reality) It has no end! For Jesus is the messiah!

Christianity should be an endless path of wholly dedicated amazement just as radical as Muslims and Jews are! Yet Christianity isn`t even "a thing" anymore!!!

Why are Christians so much duller than Jews and Muslims? They have twice the religious books, mystic, magical, and historical heritage! It's because they are so happy and caught up in personal salvation they have become gullible to the world around them.

It is one of our vital goals to write a scientific documentation of Christianity's validity. I can't do this. I am too sick. One of you MUST do this. I entrust it to you.

It is also of VITAL importance to the faith that all true miracle-working Christian factions of the Pentecostal and Neo-Charismatic movements unite, and write the second version of the book of Acts, similar to how the Jews wrote the Talmud.

How come you are not acting as record-keepers of history, and God's kingdom? Surely there are neo-charismatic saints today that walk-in miracles worthy of recording if sacred scripture just like the book of Acts! And the ending of Revelations doesn't mean you shalt not write, it simply means not to add to what's already been written. But all literature we hear of is Christian success-literature! Where are the heavy-weight books? Where are books on apologetics against Islam, Darwinism and atheism??? There are too few of them.

The apostles are alive today, but they write nothing, and do nothing to unite the Church, thus being useless in fighting the kingdom of darkness if we are to win and prepare Jesus coming. We are a Kingdom, remember? A STATE-AUTHORITY of fascist imperialism, just like the Jews and Muslims. Jesus prays for our unity, remember??? But today there's hardly a Christian nation left in the world!

While Jews wrote the Talmud, and took over the world, you did nothing for 2000 years. Many say "preach the simple gospel, we don't need scientific proofs." Oh really? If science is truth, then how comes it doesn't reveal the existence of the Christian God? Well, it does, but that's because of a conspiracy to prevent true physics and science from reaching the public. Again, this happened due to gullible Christian apathy. Proving God through science is QUINTESSENTIAL against the masonic lies of quackademia, or will you not fight Satan??? Read my God Reality.

God demands you keep records of his chosen legacy. And Christians are the chosen people of all the Earth! Not to do so would be suicide...!!!

Chapter 4: 1st century Church life.

Our Church built on scripture

Christians believe in the Church`s unified spirit. We are one! And all must be settled between all members. All questions must be answered. All sick must receive prayer, and all financial needs must be heard. We are one. That`s right.

Christians believe God is renewing the covenant with Peter for uniting all Churches in these perilous times. We believe we are the worldwide Zion of the coming everlasting kingdom. God called me to lead his sheep. Matthew 16:18 "And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. "

We need a world-Christian headquarter of proven neo-charismatic revivalist healers, and saints like for instance Heidi Baker.

We are the church of Salem: The spiritual Jerusalem! Call it the kingdom of God.
Hebrews 7:1

We know Salem is the spiritual city of Jerusalem. Jerusalem was not founded before another thousand years had passed since Salem was mentioned in scripture. That`s right! Jerusalem is supposed to be the mirror image of the spiritual city paved with gold!

Hebrew 5:8-10 "Although He was a Son, He learned obedience from the things which He suffered. And having been made perfect, He became to all those who obey Him the source of eternal salvation, being designated by God as a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek." We believe that Jesus was not without sin his whole life, but that he grew, and became perfect as clearly described in this scripture. We share the same stance as Smith`s Venner on this controversy. Anyways.

Hebrews 7:14-17 For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, a tribe with reference to which Moses spoke nothing concerning priests. And this is clearer still, if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek, who has become such not on the basis of a law of physical requirement, but according to the power of an indestructible life.

For it is attested of Him, "YOU ARE A PRIEST FOREVER ACCORDING TO THE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK."

Christ being of the spiritual city of Salem justifies the truth of His priesthood as he was from the tribe of Judah, and not the priestly tribe of the Levites, and there was thus controversy as how Jesus could be a priest. So, we called to be priests according to the order of Melchizedek, because we are disciples of the master.

This Bible-verse creates controversy around the sin-less nature of Christ as it says he "learned obedience". Christians do not believe Jesus was free from all sin since birth, but lived under the same path of sanctification, and mercy that we do, although it was under a different covenant.

Member responsibility in our Church

Our church condemns Satanism because one part of sour-dough acidifies the entire dough. Galatians 5:9 Non-believers are ABSOLUTELY not tolerated among us. This insane heresy has erupted across Churches in Kristiansand, where blood-sworn Satanists swarm Churches. We also believe general Satanism has no right to exist anymore. Because of our philosophical view of our meaning of life, fulfilled in Jesus Christ. There is no "problem of evil" aside from evil: The problem now without a root philosophy, as we can all enter Heaven. We believe the father of evil has lost his trump cards. The right of condemnation. Jesus got the keys of Hades. We thus believe we as St. Peter's true church stand on an everlasting solid foundation with the keys to the bottomless pit, and the keys of St. Peter, becoming what the Vatican should have been!

Christians will permeate the earth in the not so distant future. We believe this to be inevitable as Jesus is the most powerful God. Churches are good. We are all about the people, truth, light, love, morale and welfare. True evil perpetrated by for instance the Vatican church has never represented a great part of the low-cast, public Church.

We learn from history of conspiracy that evil is something that corrupts in an ever-downward spiral without end. That is why our church never welcomes, or accepts evildoers, and is DEDICATED to end poverty, disease and starvation. We love the poor. We exalt them!

Evil is exalted like the tower of Babel above the clouds today, thus more shall we exalt that worthy of TRUE praise and break them down to the pit of non-reasonable philosophy they have become.

We point out the falseness of other churches, yet always do so in love, as love is our trademark as certain as we are disciples. Revelations 3:16.

Those in our church are directly responsible for the welfare of Earth. We are all Heavenly agents of pure goodness in each of our adventures on Earth. We believe that Jesus is alive today and have a huge agenda. We believe WE carry this agenda and are responsible for Heaven.

We believe we are soldiers in a kingdom that cannot deny his authority, and his will over our lives as our friend. Jesus calls us friends! For we serve him gladly.

We believe that the priesthood of the Temple is abolished, (1 Peter 25) but that the roles are necessary, as representatives of the God and the Christian congregation, pastors, prophets, Apostles, evangelists, scholars, artists, intercessors, prayer-warriors, worshippers, dancers, and to whatever Biblical calling God made you for.

We believe in the original message of scripture as discovered in my books, and the 1st century apostolic church before the church was institutionalized, and adopted by the roman emperor Constantine, yet take great pride in the diversity of thought between our esteemed members as a unity of all Christians.

How we practice Church-life:

Should we wash off our worries, and sins of our right hand, feet and head when entering church as Muslims do, or as romans did. Amen? I do it, and it an ancient practice that really makes you feel great and more filled!

We see that all church members are to take part in church-service, and that there should be a more socialist theme, unity in mission, and open-ness in suffering as was with the 1st century Nazarene ministry. Are we not one body, and shall we not pray for each other? This is my sole wish: That the evil, accusative, icy hearts of the Norwegian Christians shall be melted to together by the warmth of Christ's love for a continuous community in a world without Christian government anymore. Let's start one in our prayer-centre!

My vision is the same as the Christian philosopher Bertram Dybwad Brochman, where Church, or preferably monastic village farming societies live according to Biblical sociology and state-science, where the Church represents health-care, judicial institution, school, religious school, and social-support-centre e.g for the elderly, poor and disabled. Call me a futuristic Amish kind of person, but are we ok with being indoctrinated by the news-media, comings and goings of this world of Babylon, or are we set-apart as part of GOD`s kingdom?

The first Christians shared all! Jesus teachings was that if anyone has anything against his fellow man, they should meet before their caring, loving congregation. You can buy an advocate and escape judgement, but a religious community cannot be bought. Is this not a more functional model of society?

The first Christians let the Church take care of the weak and elderly, as was Jesus teachings. Is this not a much more centralized, humanistic, loving, and socially better model to build a caring society, taking care of our elderly ourselves, than our current misplacing of the weak and elderly?

The Christian should gather with his fellow disciples in his group at least once a week, and preferably each day as the first Christians did. One must attend church service at least once a week or make his own temple. One should preferably have his own prayer-room in every house as is biblical. Matthew 6:6

Let`s see what the Bible tells about church life.

Acts 2:42-47 "They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. A sense of awe came over everyone, and the apostles performed many wonders and signs. All the believers were together and had everything in common. Selling their possessions and goods, they shared with anyone who was in need. With one accord they continued to meet daily in the temple courts and to break bread from house to house, sharing their meals with gladness and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. "

James 5:13-16 "Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise. Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well, the Lord will raise them up. If they have sinned, they will be forgiven. Therefore, confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. "

This bothered my mind, as I never found a single church who live by this structure. We will of course be the first and be as disciplined as Muslims.

The Christian believe in aggressive sermons, the spirit of truth, and life-filled interaction between preacher, worshipper, and the church-bench. We believe in "YES", "Hallelujah", and "AMEN!" from the church bench. We also believe in "Halleluyeh" as this means praise to Ehyeh. One should arguably have microphones by every second seat as is common in Jehovah's Witnesses "Rikets Hall". We believe strongly in spontaneous worship, and openly promote the giftings of the Holy Ghost as necessary for a true church's flourishing. We believe that talking in groups, or man to man on the church bench during sermon is a correct way of worshiping the creator, through glorifying him through expression of praise, understanding, and also questioning the sermon.

Every Christian must be part of a team, and/or cell-groups (homegroup-bible-study) led by a master.

Example of Church sermon.

We start our meetings with the Priest present addressing all members, and blessing them, asking what is on their hearts. We have one goal, as had the first Christians. World domination. Saving the world!

We then stand, and recite the confession, the lord's prayer, prayers, and read the Bible regarding what happened last meeting. We end with thanking God by mentioning all he did last time. We split into groups and worship. We then ask for those who have received a word, a song, or a sermon to come up. We then pray for all who need prayer, addressing all matters in the groups. If any are healed, or has to address something to the whole church, they do.

They then address all political, and societal matters with the church as a whole. We then move onwards to the main sermon, and discuss it between the leader, and members of the respective groups during sermon. We have mics for every group. We then worship before ending with some of our recited prayers, and regular blessing. We follow Jesus. Every group should be approx. 12 disciples, and one priest.

The Christian believe in powerful Christian leaders taking on all important threats to our existence, belief, culture, ethnic diversity, and history while in church. We are prophets for the equal treatment between our established northern-European-western-humanistic rights, and the fascist, racist Islam.

We believe in the power of the community taking on difficult topics where nothing is taboo. We believe open-ness is the core to a healthy community.

We believe any adherents that abstain from the teaching, seek to grasp power, corrupt, or attack the church from the inside (be it even in a spiritual manner) must be confronted by the entire church at sermon, and directly thrown into the soaking hands of a prayer-warrior seer. He/they should preferably be cast out if it is confirmed by several witnesses, he/they are unrelenting heretic, occultist, Satanic, do witchcraft, are warlocks, demonologists, or any other agent trying to split the Church, bewitch, or seduce. Be wary of seducers...!!!

All will be known and confessed before God. Matthew 10:27 We believe we are operating in the God-given mission of the radical, unrighteous persecuted Thomas Eidsaa whose heart, and sacrifice shall live on until his wishes are fulfilled. He fought against all hypocrisy in religions, denominations, and was persecuted to death in the Great Babylon during a personal "great tribulation" or "personal holocaust".

For a Christian to abstain from church doctrine, the 15 Christian laws, the seven deeds (pillars of Christianity), creeds, and the radical spirit of 1st century persecution upon whose Christian corpses we were founded is certain spiritual death as is biblically correct for it is said that it is better to be spiritually cold than lukewarm. Nobody had been persecuted as much as me such since Nero, the first "antichrist."

Regarding equality. The entire community does believe all men are created equal and that Jesus is the only master and high-priest. Still: We believe man is the head of the woman.

There also are differences about one's Heavenly inheritance, as Jesus says. 1 Corinthians 15:39 secretly tells there are Heavenly, and earthly flesh. Just saying! There is also difference between Jew, and gentile, chosen, and not chosen. Matthew 22:14 and Romans 11:1-2.

The Christians see the hypocrisy of the evil anti-Christian Jewish mafia, and believe in replacement theology, and that the Christians are the chosen people, the new Jews, and that God has made a new covenant with us.

We are not part of the replacement theology, yet accept it, but know that the Jews with their Talmud, have completely gone astray and are no more God's chosen people than rocks. Jesus says he can raise up Children of Abraham from rocks, which I think is his only ironic joke in the entire Bible. The racial-supremacist ideology of the TALMUD, which contradicts the Old Testament is just ludicrous. I know of no white supremacists, but all Jews are supremacists. The Bible tells one is a Jew inwardly not outwardly. The Bible tells it is us Christians who are Jews. But the blessings through God's promises in keeping the Mosaic law are specifically for Jews as Romans talk about. Most Christians are unaware that modern Jews follow the Talmud, which presides over the Old Testament, contrary to Messianic Jews who believe only in the Tanakh (Old Testament) and New Testament. The Talmud contains many illogical controversial teachings and does not cohere to the Old Testament, and certainly not the New Testament.

We do not believe that mankind is inherently good, as this is not scriptural, yet we believe we are all God's children, and thus Gods, as Jesus says. Since we are sons of God, we are like God. We thus believe our potential is eternal, holy, and close to almighty, just like our father God. That makes us in many ways more humanistic than humanists. And all are eternally more valuable than gold. It is an endless tragedy if a single soul should go to Hell. Something that makes me cry...

Uniting the Church

We must take care of our children. I never became anything, as I thought I obeyed God rather than man. I tried to shed myself of all pride and ego. It hurt too much to face an expecting world with a sense of shame, and failure, so I just forgot about myself entirely, thought I was holy, and ended up doing drugs. My potential was over. I became a broken tree. But not anymore! Hallelujah!

Christians must therefore beautify all that is beautiful and strengthen all that that is weak. We must encourage people. Raise up those who put themselves low!!! Do not castrate them!

We must unite, and condemn the unbiblical mass, and tradition of all churches through proving them wrong by doing it right as a 1st century Church, once and for all. I always said to myself: There is no true church! We should reform the Catholic, and Lutheran churches as responsible heirs! The worst would be if all true believers condemned and abandoned them, leaving only snakes behind!!! What irresponsibility in the body! We should not condemn, but correct and help those who have the same saviour and grow out of the same olive-tree as ourselves! We must never be angry or fight among ourselves! We must all be one, as previously mentioned.

I give this commandment from a vision of Gabriel: "Unite the glowing ambers! Seek first my lost children in the church! " If we hate among ourselves, we prove the devil has won a great victory. Where is the love!? Did not Jesus pray for us to be one, and say that we shall be known for our love for each other? This is what Jesus says in Revelations 3:16.

We believe all are saved by faith, and simply know they haven't seen anything better so that they have nothing else to judge from, and think their church is right! But God has so much more in store for them. I personally believe there are very few churches out there that can be described as truly heretical, and "going to Hell" if any. Are we not saved through faith?

Church activism.

We will not see ONE unity movement of God be dispersed and die because we were too busy being happy about salvation living personal lives. Every person NEEDS the Church, but more and more keep Christianity only a personal thing, and never attend Church, which means the Church has failed them in reflecting the Biblical faith!

Our church is great, and all should take part. We will stand up and say what is wrong and evil. I am a true prophetic head of the church! We reject the unbalanced political correctness and make them see us!

We will have an Acts17Apologetics YouTube channel in every Church and build an apologetics empire! We will bring Christian persecution back into media attention! We will create an uproar at the internet, and primarily Facebook. We are less active than Islam, and this will change. There are three Islamic forums with over 100.000 posts in Norway alone, but not a single Christian internet forum...

A Christian actively evangelize on the internet and through all new forms. A Christian must know all about other religions, Islam, apologetics, spirit-science, miracle-proofs, and be like an enlightened lighthouse to the world. God always gives me the word "lighthouse", and I pray my teaching will build many. But Jesus is the light. Amen.

We believe in Christian outsmarting, and conquering of the Jewish knowledge, and the pagan world. Christians need knowledge and apologetics... But knowledge comes after love. I can't do anything without being in Christ's love. Solomon says knowledge, and fear of God walk hand in hand as the path to wisdom. For knowledge awes us of his grandure...

The verdict has fallen. Heaven, and Hell exist, and Jesus is proven to have won.

A Christian will prove ALL he believes, for he knows it is crucial in a atheistic world such as this— validating his religion because he will win while Islam, Judaism, and other religions will fail. Just like the healed presented themselves before the priest during Jesus, will the Christian present all my book material to the elite of today! Through science! By proof, documentation of miracles, the scientific method, and elimination of impossibilities.

The Christian is responsible, and takes over this world as an enlightened conqueror, vanquishing Hell! For there is only one core conspiracy: The Hell conspiracy at the root of all other.

The Christian is always updated in politics and seeks to advance in all sectors of society. He is an apologetic, and always ready to debate, but spread only love and enlightenment, promoting a keen interest in science against quackademia to question beliefs until all Earth are coherent Christians.

We see ourselves as one great mob of radical, revolutionary loving brothers and sisters that have no country, or leading 1st century world church as our Bible DEMANDS! We DEMAND our religious belief be heard for the kingdom of Norway unto the ends of the Earth!

Our Biblical craving for a nation or reserve could be fulfilled after the pallet of the Theocracy of the patriarch judges of Israel, the theocracy of David, or the communism of the early Christians, and we stand up to be tolerated among the blood of million Middle-East martyrs!

A village of ultra-liberal-anarchistic theocracy where the Church functions as school, religious centre, judicial institution, social welfare-centre, etc is the best a Christian can aim for at the current time, and the dream of every Christian.

The Christian has no kindness against evil. Christ sacked the temple! Show no compromise! I'd rather die a criminal!

The Christian is a protester, since he is a Protestant! The Christian is a radical since Christ was crucified as a criminal! The Christian believe open worship, and parades for the glory of God with dance will save many. We believe in peace. We believe in love.

We believe activism against radical Satanism, and conspiracies against the human world potential is important. We believe in exposing secret societies, conspiracies, and hold no affection, compromise, or toleration for the so-called (Satanic) Illuminati whom stole our title. Light is not on Earth boys, nor is it fallen. It is given back to God through our souls in Jesus. The so called "light" of Lucifer is a dimmed, outdated, and a descending flame whereas Jesus is God's hand, and lighthouse in Heaven. Isn't he? Scientifically speaking: We are the "Illuminati" from Latin "lux". Yet it is a cursed name. But it is no shame: We are "Illuminated". Like "the enlightened ones." And we are certainly not Jehovah's Witnesses! Who have an Illuminati of their own, whom I deem to be one of the few really heretical Churches out there.

I believe the day Christians resound in unison worldwide, and continuously lift their voices in adoration, the party will never stop, and Heaven come to Earth. "Jesus will return in all the earth." This is the meditation effect. The power of manifestation, will, and law of attraction. Conscience is a field, and Christ lives in all of us. He will physically manifest when he is in all of us like a clean bride. Amen. When Heaven is on Earth, and all are Christians, or share it's moralistic values, even anarchy can work, with the common morale of love and light. By then: Jesus himself, and angels would have no problem coming down to walk amongst us.

Chapter 5: Worship, prayer and evangelization.

Meditation?

Is there meditation in scripture, and ancient Judeo-Christian practice? Yes, even in the liberal Pentecostal movements of today! Just google meditation in the Bible or do a search on "soaking. "

For scripture encourage us to fast, meditate, and "pray without ceasing. "

In general: The Bible tells the Jews meditated upon God's word. History tells both ancient Jews, AND Christian mystics (early church-fathers) meditated for prolonged periods of time. Why? To reach mystical union with God through meditating on His word, His love, His beauty of creation, and filling yourself with this until you reach mental, and spiritual bliss. Some of these church fathers were even seen emerging with glowing bodies emitting light!

Meditation is all about dedication, deep contemplation and study. It is the path of Christian mysticism. Reaching spiritual and mental unity with Christ, God and the Holy Spirit. Although not defined, Christian mysticism is common in the neo-charismatic and Pentecostal movements. Listening to Christian music, reading the word, and seeking god in contemplation through prayer, or even a monastic life. We see neo-charismatic Christian prayer-centres, farms, and retreat centres open up all throughout the west. Mankind is made to live in fellowship with God, nature, and like-minded people. In a busy world, it is unquestionable that many seek re-unification with their natural selves.

What is true worship:

Since I was young, God has told me he will pour out a revival of prophetic worship, holiness, knowledge, art, what is popularly seen as "hippie-culture", parades of worship, LOVE, new ideas of evangelism and radicalism. Worship is our greatest tool to manifest his presence, protection, contact with Heaven, declaration of truths, and is what most often leads to miracles.

The Biblical Christian fills his heart, and mouth with worship constantly! Not through law, but through intimacy with the divine. For the fruit of the spirit is joy, and joy produce worship. And it has many forms. We will get to that.

Worship is proof of our validity, and the key to success. It is what we will do in eternity. Worship of the creator is the natural condition of all living things, including you and me, as all exists to glorify the creator, and is in turn glorified through it themselves. Worship is above worldly time and unites us with all past generations ascended to Heaven! Just think of how David's psalms resound as in Heaven, and on Earth. Worship is above structure. Above tongues and languages. Above race. And foremost above worldly condition.

The famous scientist Nicola Tesla once said that if you want to understand the nature of the universe, you must think in terms of vibrations. Even creation is a song.

We sing the song of the Heavenly Scroll. God SPOKE the universe into being. Prophetic worship is very sacred, as it is taking part in the continual creation of what God is doing through the Source Field, which we discovered in my book "The Wisdom of all Golden Ages."

Worship should be peace, joy and love at once. It's tuning back to our inner sanctum, our re-born nature, and the creator's song of creativity over our life. All that lives, our true nature, and our lives are songs and worshipping in spirit is a mighty gift that lets you tune into your higher will, and essence of being: What God is doing through you right now: Both through physical deeds, and spiritual proclamations. Remember: Every thought manifest. All creation is a vibration. Worship is a powerful tool and proof of our validity. Neither Islam, Judaism or any other religion has the joy of worship, and the intimate connection to God such as we do in the neo-charismatic and Pentecostal movement.

Worship is our eternal state. What awaits us in Heaven, before God, where we take part in the One, to sing the One Song of continual creation of the universe. Worship is one's breath resounding and returning to the creator's glory.

Worship is necessary for my spirit. It's a gift I give, but receive tenfold back. Sometimes it's a choice, but God always delivers. It's my spirit crying "Abba father!"

All can worship in some form or another. All have talents. Worship is the joy of the spirit, but sometimes something we have to choose. Try waking up in the morning and think of a good memory. Laugh a bit, go before His abundant joy, like a garden of flowers to a child, and shout hallelujah! Carry the sound of Heaven throughout the day and smile to the world. Joy brings good fruit.

The Bible tells us to worship against even our flesh. For it is the proof of a constant eternal state that must not be broken, even considering the circumstance of our lives, jobs, peace, health etc.

Remember: Peace, and joy of the world is because of a worldly state. But peace, and joy of the Lord is in spite of a worldly state. It is because we are divine Heavenly citizens. His ways are not of this world. All will worship God.

Let's open some Bible verses.

1 Corinthians 14:26 "What then shall we say, brothers and sisters? When you come together, each of you has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. Everything must be done so that the church may be built up. "

Philippians 4:4 "Rejoice in the Lord always, again I will say, rejoice! "

Our worship is different from other churches. We worship with our own voice, and own lyrics, through dance, art, parades, in battle against darkness etc. Prophetic worship. We worship the beauty of God in nature. We also have worship songs where we give thanks to God for all he has done. We encourage members to step up on stage and sing their own songs of thanks.

Forms of worship:

For me, worship of God is to better name him, God being infinite.

The Israelites had seven forms of adoration! I add an eight, soaking. I also encourage to worship through art, through whatever hobby, or life you have! This has become more popular, to which I rejoice.

It is important that our prophets, and teachers use their minds, and pray for wisdom like that of David and Solomon. After all: We should rejoice over having the richest religious-cultural-historical heritage of any surviving religion, even more so than the Jews and Hindus, the day we open our eyes to the light of His new sun in this age. The age of ignorance is over.

We should make church a serious business, and not a monetary culture of success-Christendom, happening, and hobby Christendom.

Our church is rather a synagogue, a temple anywhere in nature, at work, or in your garden: A free playroom open for all these seven expressions of worship.

But our worship is not limited to seven forms! We have more like for instance dancing, painting, and the Pentecostal tradition called soaking which was practiced in the Temple of Solomon. The Bible tells how David rested in the temple, being soaked in the Holy, light-spirited presence of God. The debth-healing emotional father-heart of God. Or the friendly intimacy with the Godhood.

It is boring to stand by your chair when you know your soul dances to delight the Lord as we do in Heaven!

1) Yadah (yaw-daw'):

This means to show reverence or praise with extended hands. The word pictures associated with the root words for this type of praise is shooting an arrow or throwing a rock. It literally means to extend the hands, or to shoot and arrow.

Scriptures to reference: Psalm 42:5, The Dedication of The Temple in 2 Chronicles 7 uses this expression of praise (visualize Levites blowing the trumpets and calling everyone to worship and the "praise" that everyone is expressing is through standing and lifted hands).

So, when we share this with our people we get them to visualize a small child who wants to be picked up. They extend their hands high above their heads in a sign of surrender and desire to be held. You could also use the image of throwing or shooting your praise outwardly to God instead of holding it in. Have your people lift or extend their hands.

2) Towdah (to-daw'):

This word is very similar to yadah but has a slightly different flavour. It means to show agreement with by extending the right hand. In today's society the closest thing we have is a handshake to seal a deal or pact. The idea is that it is usually associated with sacrifice (specifically things given up showing thankfulness to God).

Scriptures to reference: Psalm 50:23 (the thank offering NIV, KJV uses the phrase praised)

When we share this, we get them to visualize offering our thanks to God (and our agreement with His promises) by visualizing the extended hand. You could use a handshake, if so, have people imagine they are shaking hands with God. Or you could have people lift their hands (similar to the yadah, but instead of surrendering the underlying notion is thankfulness and agreement).

Comment: I always lift my hand in glory – giving thanks that his ways are with me, as I sacrifice my life for him - when exiting any place.

3) Barak (baw-rak'):

This flavour of praise is one that we commonly see around altars. It means to kneel down. It means to bow low as a sign of adoration and reverence. It carries with it the idea of humbling yourself to a place that is lower than the recipient of your worship (God).

Scriptures to reference: Psalm 95:6 (expresses this idea literally) and Psalm 103 (uses the phrase “bless the Lord” to convey this expression)

This one might be the most physically “uncomfortable” expression to have people do, but you can have people stand up and bow or kneel right where they are. I also like to have people think about a royal court of years gone by. Have them answer what would be the first thing you’d do before approaching the throne to have an audience with a king or queen. You would bow low as a sign of reverence and deference to their power.

The same applies here: we bow and kneel to outwardly express our commitment to God’s greatness before all powers on Earth and Heaven. This may also be a sign of surrender, humbleness, and thanks for redemption of sin.

4) Tehillah (tel-hil-law'):

This type of praise is singing, but not just any type of singing. It’s the singing that bubbles up from our hearts. It’s a spontaneous type of singing. These songs are unrehearsed and unprepared. They are straight from God to God through the pipeline of the Holy Ghost.

Scriptures to reference: Psalm 22:3 These are the types of “praises” that God enthrones or inhabits, which is interesting because it’s so specific: God literally lives in the SPONTANEOUS praises of His people!. Psalm 33:1 This type of praise is “fitting” for God’s people, or it literally makes them “look good”. When Isaiah talks about trading garments of ashes and mourning for garments of joy and praise, the word praises their literally means SPONTANEOUS praises!)

This is also a tough one to get people to just do because of the spontaneous nature of it. But you could have everyone on the count of three to stand up and just blurt out a praise to God! That would illustrate it. It would be coordinated, but each person would be “praising” spontaneously.

5) Zamar (zaw-mar’):

This literally means to pluck the strings, to celebrate in song and music. This is the most common form of “praise” we have across the world in our churches. It’s just singing songs put to music. What’s neat about it though, is that it can also refer to JUST PLAYING, as well, although is usually translated as “sing praises.” It can be used with soaking inside the calm peace of his presence, imagining the ancient Israelites playing soothingly.

Scriptures to reference: Psalm 150 (this psalm illustrates a picture of instrumental worship).

A fun way to illustrate this is to have everyone clap together (playing their five fingered instruments!). There’s not much needed to illustrate this form of praise though, because it is so prevalent in our churches.

6) Halal (haw-lal’):

This might be one of the most “fun” forms of praise because it requires one to step outside of “dignity” for a moment. It means to be clamorously foolish. To boast. To shine. This is the kind of praise that David exhibited when he danced for joy at the return of the Ark of The Covenant to Israel. It’s also the form of praise that prompted his wife to ridicule him for his lack of dignity.

This is also where we get the word Hallelujah from. It literally means “Praise the Lord” but even more literally it means to BE CLAMOROUSLY FOOLISH unto the Lord! Haha! I love it! It’s letting go of our pride and being like children! This includes the Pentecostal “drunk in the spirit” worship of dancing, laughing, leaping, and twirling in the presence of the Lord, looking foolish to the world. But it also (and probably more accurately) includes the state of the heart before God. A heart that is turned towards God, not afraid to BOAST in and of God is a “halal” heart. I took this to heart as not being afraid to shout hallelujah in the presence of non-Christians, knowing that God is overjoyed. Halal is not only demonstrative praise but can also be the force behind any of these other forms of praise. You can sing or shout or even play an instrument as a halal.

Scriptures to reference: This word appears over 100 times in the Old Testament. 1 Chronicles 16:4 (there were actual appointed musicians to “halal” before the Lord); Nehemiah 12:24 (an example of call and response halal)

7) Shabach (Shaw-bakh’):

Are you ready to get loud? Shabach means to address in a loud tone. It’s typically associated with freedom or triumph. But it’s more than just a loud shout, it’s the idea of putting everything you have into it. An attitude of wholehearted praise. This is often seen in afro-America churches with authoritative, and aggressive preaching. Declaring victory! Driving out demons!

Scriptures to reference: Psalms 63:3-4 (We typically look at this psalm as soft cry of thirst in a dry place, but the words in these verses literally mean to SHOUT praises!)

Shabach is simple to illustrate. Ask people to stand up and shout a phrase (Hallelujah or Praise the Lord works great) together on the count of three! Encourage them to view it as a wholehearted expression of praise. One of the best comparisons for this is the spontaneous, electric cheers and yells that fans at a sporting event utter when something good happens to their team.

8) Soaking

While the term ‘soaking’ is a new way of referring to contemplative prayer, invented by the Toronto Airport Christian Fellowship, the Bible has much to say about spending intimate time communing with God. In the Twenty-Third Psalm, King David wrote of the shepherding heart of God who leads us into green pastures and restores our soul.

There are many scriptures that refer to these intimate times with God, the Holy Spirit, and foremost our saviour:

Surely, I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me. Psalms 131:2

Meditate within your heart on your bed and be still. Psalms 4:4

Rest in the LORD and wait patiently for Him. Psalms 37:7

Matthew 11:28-30

Come to Me, all you who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.

Isaiah 40:31

But those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles. They shall run and not be weary. They shall walk and not faint.

Soaking is beautiful. It's resting because you are strong or resting to become strong when you are weak.

Soaking in the presence of the Lord opens up the heart to Divine romance and intimacy. It allows the Lord to show His love to you and you to fall in love with Him. Much as a married couple find that their love and intimacy deepen as they spend more and more time together, so our love for the Lord grows through intimate times of fellowship with Him.

Soaking prayer can also be childlike and playful, like going to visit your best friend and just 'hanging out' together.

Soaking prayer is an exercise of resting in God. Jesus called this 'abiding in Him'.

Comments on worship:

Most of these 8 forms of worship are entwined in the revivalist-Pentecostal form of liberal worship as led by the presence of his Holy Spirit.

The Christian believe the reformational waves leading up to Pentecostal worship is biblical due to the seven ancient forms of worship, and that we are moving close to the 1st century-ministry, which this book is all about. We also believe speaking in tongues was practiced by the ancient prophet school attended by king Saul.

We believe the current trend of soaking was practiced in the first temple as seen in King David's psalms. We know that raising your two hands in 90-degree angles above your head is the oldest form of worship known to man, regardless of religion.

In our lives, and worship, we exalt each other's beauty, qualities, frailties, and talents in God. We exalt the beauty of creation, and like to worship the creator in all things wherever we go as all things are created by his vibration, and give vibrations back to give Him praise, amen?

To him be all the glory. We might say that humans are the mouth of creation, resounding worship back to the creator, which I find very beautiful. We are not pagan nature-worshippers. But worship of beauty, goodness in others, and beauty of nature is needed, and a next step of reformative waves, directing all honour to God. We see that Jesus was a nature philosopher, and I bet he praised the glory of God's wisdom in creation. Might worship of mysteries of Christianity, the majesty of his deeds, and the beauty of his creation be the next step in worship evolution?

God has spoken to me about how important it is to glorify and thank God through praising God in worship for the Saints, good deeds, one's true friends, beauty, nations, history, and make a broader spectrum of worship than it is today. The Creator should also be offered worship, and prayers in nature, celebrated outdoors, and if anything, be described through means of beauty e.g through creation expressing art etc to him.

We believe we can all become equal to Jesus, although not the messiah, for Jesus is firstborn of the dead, yet says we will do greater things than him. Therefore, one should honour each other, and encourage, compliment, and adorn with beauty all our brothers and sisters. Cheer each-other up! Love one another!

Praise only God in all you worship with the mindset of "I see the creator in you <3" Remember, we direct all worship to God.

David even danced naked before all in Jerusalem when worshipping God. Such was his love as to shed all clothes, and boundaries between him, and the divine: as worship is standing naked before God. There are no boundaries to the Holy Ghost, but this must of course never happen, as it would lead to temptation, but who knows? Haha, it would be glorious. Like a holy return to the garden. Never mind. I'm weird, I know, but I certainly came far in the sanctification process. Hmm... The prophets danced naked. Never mind. ((excuse me, this must never happened.))

I say you wash your hands, feet, and head in holy water before worship, and prayer when entering church as is customary in the sacred baptismal tradition, roman tradition, as well as in Islam. (Oblation is the only thing I really like about Islam.) What would Jesus say? It's just my opinion...

Mysteries of worship:

Worship is the levitation, and exaltation of the spirit. Worship is a gateway to God, and interaction where we pour out our innermost. Worship can reflect all emotions of joy, sadness, despair and bliss.

There is a mystical aspect to worship as the Bible says we are CREATED to worship. Hallelujah! God made us to be his Jewel in the garden! His very representation, so that we could see to that all creation honours God. God loves beauty, therefore I believe he made us so we can praise him for everything he has made. In praising each other's good deeds, we worship God. Jesus calls us Gods, and his friends. Hallelujah?

All humans idolize, and worship either they are aware or not. God, Jesus, and His brotherly saints deserves worship, and not idols, musicians, movie-stars, politicians, and soap-opera stars. Give power back to the saints, and idolize them instead as a Holy Priesthood! A Christian believe in uniting and reinstituting the church.

To live a happy life, one must breathe happiness, and take in good thoughts. The mouth speaks the heart. Living a good life means being thankful. The happier you chose to be, the happier you get. Worship is the way to go. Worship is being thankful but sing what you feel. Feel freedom to worship, in worship, and off worship.

Worship can be all forms of music. Even metal, rap etc. Not all are the same. Chose to let your heart out before God wherever you go, and however you feel. One does not always feel like worshipping. All are different. But the Bible tells us to worship God under any circumstance. This is what pleases the Lord the most. All receive the same reward, as in the parable of the workers.

Do not agitate against your flesh to cause bitterness, and un-heartly worship, this leads to exhaustion in your spiritual life where sin, and hate can seep in. Worship is being in a spiritual place. To be inside your heart. God's peace is not of this world. Pray for the power of God's peace that is above all circumstance. Then say thanks to God. If one feel burdened by sin before worship, one should go and confess. Worship is holy. Never sing along a worship-song if it doesn't reflect your person/heart. That would be lying.

Worship is a part of our eternity. What we will do in Heaven. Worship is growing closer to the everlasting. A journey of joy ascending towards God.

We believe in intercessory power through liberal worship service like for instance war dancing, colour dance, flag dancing, ecstatic dancing, laughing in spirit, moaning in spirit, and even screaming in spirit as long as it is room for it in the congregation, and it doesn't upset the greater audience, or overall church-mentality!

In example: During church service, worship, and if the holy spirit fills the room, and too many people worship in intercession, glorification, or to heal: Split up in prayer groups! Pray, and worship spontaneously as one is not to keep the holy spirit at bay.

This is if there are too many for one microphone, as the Bible tells us to address all issues from all church members. I personally believe more in spontaneous prophetic worship than we believe in singing the same songs. As I said, if your heart cannot confess the words of the song when worshipping together, then lay your burdens before the Lord, repent, confess, and come before God with a clean heart to continue worship boldly before all-seeing God.

But I strongly believe in the power of singing and renewing old hymns as these carry the power of centuries. Such hymns must not be forgotten, as they are being at least remembered, and perhaps sung in Heaven by our ancestors, and carry power from our ascended forefathers. As in Heaven so on Earth. Why won't the Pentecostals make their own psalm-books of the 21st century? Or is it because the tradition is outdated? What if the internet collapses? I would buy one!

We believe in contagious worship. We believe in the One Army of Salvation. I believe it is important with prayermarches, and to keep our Churches open 24/7 in continuous prayer, watch by clergy, fast and worship as to avoid contaminations by disguised members of Satanism. We believe the sacred menorah should be lit from day to night as a symbol of God's throne, and the seven flames of the Holy Spirit. All worship is directed towards God. All as Biblical.

The importance of prayer:

These are customs that are Biblical and traditional.

David prayed seven times each day. Intimacy towards God. The Christian believe he shall pray turning to Jerusalem three times each day as is customary in Judaism. At morning, afternoon (after dinner), and at nightfall before sleep. You should pray and meditate over the words of the Lord's prayer at least three times a day, just like the Jews pray 3 times a day. The New Testament, and Old Testament urges us to exalt God all times, be happy at all times, and preach wherever you go! Through the joy of the lord!

1 Thessalonians 5:16.18 "Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. "

Joshua 1:8 "Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips, meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. "

Philippians 4:4 "Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! "

Read Psalms chapter 1. It is beautiful.

When we pray to God respectively, we approach him as his beloved sons, and daughters whom he loves in spite of who we are, and what we do. We know he knows what we need. Matthew 6:6-8. We stand boldly before him as we know we are bought by the blood of Jesus, and that there is no deed we can do which makes Him love us any more... We pray to him as our Heavenly Dad, and I always address him as eternal, holy, and most high whenever we mention him in prayer.

We always end our prayers with amen/amein as is custom. I use most often use Yeshua, Yahweh, and Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh when addressing God.

The Christian believe that Heaven is on our side, and that our ancestors, and ascended friends are ever watchful and pray upon us day and night. Remember them, and live with them as Heavenly citizens, and as soldiers with a mantle under orders. For success! Remember that you are on a mission that will never end until the world is conquered, and that it WILL be conquered, therefore you MUST conquer it! Away with apathic, gullible circus Christianity. Don't be Christian if it's only because "it feels good, and safe to be saved." You can do it!!!

Search your heart. Are you really under discipleship by the Master? Let Heavenly prayers come to life! You are their only hope – stationed on battleground Earth. Never forget this!

Understand: Let the prayers, and yearnings they had before death come to life through you. We believe we are fighting as Heavenly citizens, creating a peace revival, and love for the Earth.

We believe Jesus, and our Heavenly brothers, and ancestors has a fixed, unified agenda that must be pushed forth by an equally unified church here on Earth! We live responsible for all that happens on Earth, or is not Jesus the King? We believe we can pray for anything, as long as we seek God's will first and are true to our Heavenly selves.

God wants us to be happy, and drive fancy cars. Many pray for material things, and God so loved us that he gave us pleasures on Earth. For all this honours the creator.

We seek to be available 24/7. We strongly believe all humans have the ability to hear God speak, and get the greater gifts of prophecy, healing, speaking in tongues, and advocate his blessings on Earth. This is something not even the technocrats can shut down.

1 Corinthians 12:27-31

"Now you are the body of Christ, and each of you is a member of it. And in the church God has appointed first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then workers of miracles, and those with gifts of healing, helping, administration, and various tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But eagerly desire the greater gifts. "

Joel 2:28 "And afterward, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. "

The magnificent art of prayer, and it's mysteries:

Prayer is one's intimate life with God. It is the place of protection during the sanctification of the Christians. To me, the sanctification process of coming closer to God is one's prayer life. It can be likened to the Kabbalah: the mystical aspect of our life's growth. Our goal? Union with God as is Christian mysticism. Becoming vessels of His glory wherever we go. Our members are encouraged to worship whenever awake. Yet when the mouth is silent in bed is when we pray our morning prayer. (We can't worship ALL the time.)

Pray loving and constantly throughout the day with all your heart, spirit and soul, so that your subconscious is trained, and in-tuned with Heaven, and his laws. "Meditate upon his law" day and night, as King David said. Meditate upon his greatness, or his mighty names. I did this in protection from the Mark of the Beast, and it works. But it's best to be prepared beforehand. Try to pray at least one-hour total of prayer in tongues each day – tuning into his pallet for your life. Your higher self. It makes you beautiful.

Pray for everyone you feel God leads you to pray for. Remember that the Bible teaches you to be bold!

Meditation is a state of mind, not necessarily staying quiet. I personally like to open my mouth to exalt, declare, and worship when praying. But silent prayers can be just as powerful. It is the intent that matters. Some of the most powerfully anointed persons I've met pray in a very orthodox, silent, slow, and contemplative ways. But God loves difference, and we are all different. Why would he make us this way?

Prayer is magic. Manifesting positive change. God is the conductor of the orchestra. Go to source and get your life-flow! Tune in, and throw a blessing at those you meet! Smile, and be happy throughout the day. The world will recognize us through love. But prayer can also be a shout of despair. To begin with, prayer is often a work of dedication, just like worship can sometimes be.

Prayer-warriors are the backbone of the Christian army. For some: Prayer is a way of life as with the monks. It is a state of peace, and union with God you never want to leave.

At the end of the day, I first dedicate my mind before prayer, relax, and thank God for the day, and for his promises. Embrace a loving father God! Delve into his embrace. Remember your breath, breathe out, breathe in unconditional love, and put the day's worries in a black box. You don't need them. God is ALL! This took a long while for me to realize. There is a saying: "You know God is all you need when God is all you have." God's mercy is new every morning. As I lay myself down to sleep, I chose to focus on what's positive, and thank God for it, looking forward to enjoy more adventures with him, as he creates something new each day. I long for him and secure my soul in the loving presence of God and my Christ. Then I sleep.

I go out in the garden in the morning with dedication of prayer: Wondering, fearing and awe inspired by the science of whom I know and see in nature. This is true worship to me. Then I just relax and let my eyes fleet around, free with God like Adam in the garden. Let God lead you into intimacy as he shows his mighty ways in the beauty of nature, just as he revealed the nature-parables to Jesus...

We are to be a pleasant offering of prayer, and exaltation to God continuously, meditating, and facilitating his greatness to others through wisdom. That is walking with God. When I tune into this source field in nature is when I receive joy, strength, and often revelations. You will learn to love it so much that whenever relaxing, or on vacation: your programmed state of mind of relaxation is relaxation with God: Simply prayer.

In a busy world, I think we need the Jews to teach us that God is first, and business second. Orthodox Jews pray for hours every day in their rituals. Christians bend their knee once every Sunday. Can we bring ourselves to that mindset?

Imagine there is no television! You are simply like Adam in Eden, staring at the stars, and running down the forest, wondering about creation, God and everything. You, creation alone with God. 13 dimensions apart. The lovestory this world was meant for. Adoring God. Reality.

I say TV, internet, and all aside from God's creation is fictional! GOD is reality. Shed yourself of false idolatry and remember: Everything that is not eternal is ROT! God, nature, and his creation is reality, not virtual as some say. What this relates of God speaking to you is reality. I'm not saying that all senses, and all you see is Holy. We live in a fallen world.

Ease out, and let God tend your heart.

Look to beauty, but sadness can also be beautiful. To find yourself, you need to be with God in nature. I also recommend a pilgrimage, a hike in the mountains, or some other physical journey of exercise to get rid of all the illusions, idols, and addictions to the electronical world. You will find your TRUE nature, and your higher self, your aura will start shining as God pours his strength into you both physically and mentally. I recommend you journey with perhaps one, or two other Christian soul-mates for at least a week. It can even be your betrothed or wife! I recommend prayer-retreats for every person. You will find yourself AMAZED after you unplug, and realize you had no CLUE how programmed, and addicted you were, finally SEEING all you missed: God in creation.

You will then descend from the mountain/journey feeling like a prophet with a mission, with strengthened legs, and a strengthened sense of identity, purpose and renewal. Then you will take new stances to your former life, and change habits to move on. Remember: Life is a spiritual journey which I say HAS to be exemplified through moving also in physical exercise, hiking, and unplugging to give you the best life God has for you. Keep God's temple healthy. Keep your body healthy.

Jesus loves you... And wants the best for you.

After being unplugged, you will learn to lead other brothers to stay in God's presence of contentment, and symbiosis with Heaven in nature: As God is your sole provider, not the TV. That is our approach when leading a life of continuous prayer. Sometimes we need a good brainwashing, and hiking is just that. I recommend training yourself to take baths in nature, as this is very purifying, very healthy, and energizes the body. Especially cold water, something I do half the year almost. (And it's cold up here.)

Prayer is fighting together. Prayer is spiritually uniting the body of the church. Prayer is nurturing the roots that gives growth to flowers.

Prayer-warriors, and intercessors are just as important as preachers, for praying is paving the road for preachers, and consciously co-creating reality with God. I say this as is true! The state of the church is in constant fight, and without sowing and preparing to reap through prayer: At least I only strive...!!! For prayer is like sowing seeds, and watering plants. It's mental preparation at its best.

Prayer is giving thanks. In nature. In wonder of Him, the magnificent reality of creation. Giving thanks for our friends and our family. The things that matter. I pray that you unplug and realize what I did. That it's family, childhood friendships, broken bonds, and your childlike dreams that matters. When journeying into the wild, on the higher spiritual altitude, climbing a mountain or a roadblock in your life, you get insight, and see your daily life down there, realizing what you REALLY seek was up here with God, and discovering futile patterns. Discovering your heart. This will come to you if you take a pilgrimage.

Prayer is the loving walk of life letting him carry you through, like surfing down the waters of a wild river, or being lifted above the clouds by eagles.

Prayer is looking into the sun like the eagles, and aiming high, being carried by the winds of destiny and prayers of our brothers in Heaven – onwards towards beautiful horizons. For he loves you, and cares for you. Being one with our ascended masters. Living in another dimension. Surfing the pathways of the angels, and dripping milk, and honey of abundance. Love and light.

I give thanks and position myself on the fantasy journey of adventure through life, in a sanctification process with staff in hand, like an alien having a pilgrimage through life. It is a habit that becomes our normal devotion to God when we get to know Him personally. I can stay before his throne by his grace. Hallelujah! Thank you God!

WE ARE TAKING OVER! The quintessential evangelizing.

Evangelizing is the highest priority above school, work, and any leisure time. It's your main job: Assigned by God.

There are many ways you can evangelize.

I wear a poster on my shirt. Just tack-it on and start prayer-walking. I smile and pray for everyone I meet. I pray silently too of course. I sometimes sing loud. I pray for every street, and corner I go to. If someone smiles back, I ask them if they want to learn more about LIFE, and hand them a card, a flyer etc. For Jesus is the way, the truth, and the LIFE. I hope you have made some flyers! They're really cheap!

Are we not called to always pray, and preach the gospel wherever we go? You can preach on YouTube, Facebook, and have meme-wars.

But the most efficient way of preaching today will be through the language of science. This is the only language the educated understand. We must appeal to the younger generation and be responsible! That ties into the God Project. Another way of evangelizing is singing and playing the guitar at streets. I also often go to a pub.

Psalms 34:1

"Of David. When he pretended to be insane before Abimelek, who drove him away, and he left. I will extol the LORD at all times, his praise will always be on my lips. "

Matthew 28:18-20

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in Heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Romans 1:16 "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. "

Matthew 10:33

But whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in Heaven.

John 15:8

This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

To be a Christian, you have to evangelize every single day in the fashion of 1st century Christians. You are THE warrior. You have THE way. This is THE battle. Eternity is our name. The battle against the conspiracy of Hell. YOU are awakened to reality. YOU are a victor in a BATTLE. Christians are not victims. THEY need YOUR hand! Be strong, bold, and courageous like lions. Be loving, and meek like doves. As a lion to the world, and as a sheep before Jesus.

Evil prevails when good men do nothing. Don't be too caught up in the joy of salvation, or the joys of this world! Redognize the fires of Hell and mourn for your past ignorance like I did!

Away with gullible, lukewarm, apathic ignorance! If you won't find ways to reach to lost, then who will save them? Analyse the Christians you know, and ask yourself if their missionary behaviour (or lack of it) corresponds to their statement of faith? Think of the dying children in Hell crying for mommy! And you say we are all one? Act like it. There are hundreds of ways to evangelize. This isn't a playground! You didn't come for vacation! If you don't save them, who will be their daddy or mommy? How then will God's kingdom come to Earth?

And stop relying on prayer alone! You've prayed for corrupt politicians for 100 years, and they've only used your naivety to ruin Christian Norway! Deeds, and especially evangelizing is THE quintessential part of Christianity. Prayer, Bible-study, worship, and attending Church exists solely to build your courage to evangelize! What is a Church if it doesn't grow or breathe? It is a stagnate moat, or a square hedge, manicured by statesmen of political norms, because YOU don't act as men! Break the dam, and free the fish trapped in the moat!

Whenever attending Church service, it is OBLIGATORIC practice that you divide into your teams/cell-groups and start planning evangelizing activities for the coming week. Every week. Before they take your human rights away. Particularly dangerous is the censorship of right-wing Christianity in media, and on internet: Pushed by dangerous anti-western organizations, and multicorps run by an antichristian mob!

There is nothing more to Christianity than this: Evangelizing. All worship, prayer, and Bible-studies is only a means to help you reach the lost. Saving one soul is saving eternal worth... Think about that, and let that re-define your reality, your work-schedule – everything.

It is not in ANY way tolerable that ANY man goes to Hell because “we`re just a religious opinion, and the Bible tells us to be like sheep, and obey government political norm”. Becoming a Christian because “it feels good”, and “I want to be safe” is only ok in the beginning.

But where have you advanced from there? Are you still building your relationship to Jesus drinking milk, or are you sent on a mission to bring your master back? Not until the whole world is evangelized.

You say “God ordains every government, and granted man free will to choose Hell.” “We must respect their opinions.” “LUDICROUS! Their souls are at stake! Respecting government was 100AD in persecuting ROME. And still, they fought more than you do! Wake up! If you have to respect their opinions, then prove it through a different language, like love, or for instance through science! Every true Christian is dedicated to apologetics, and must start missionary schools, and train his own disciples.

If you truly believe in Christianity, then I WILL JUDGE YOU if you do not save all souls from perdition! Or else: How can you say you believe in EVERLASTING torment in Hell? What is a human life worth to you? What kind of human ARE you!?!?

With the internet, and the information-age: We have the power to present the gospel in ways convincing even to the scientist and the Muslim! Yet you write no books on apologetics! There is scientific, historical, and testimony documentation of Christianity`s validity, miracles, and near-death experiences. No other religion has these proofs! I use it to write books to glory God, and so will every Christian if my prayers are heard.

YOU are given Jesus KNOWLEDGE and POWER! Use it to reach them! Have you forgotten you are LIONS? You are not VICTIMS of an anti-Christian state! You LET yourself be killed! YOUR God reigns! Your God made Heaven and Earth! THAT is YOUR God! HE reigns! You are not servants of the SYSTEM! You don't have to OBEY! You are not the VICTIMS! You are KINGS! In life AND death. The Bible calls you a royal priesthood! You are the true JEWS! The RULERS! God's chosen people! Your God MAKES the laws! Governments might rule airspace, but God rules the Heavens.

You should be LAUGHING in the face of death, persecution and opposition. You are victorious whatever happens! THEY are the losers. Why fear for your life? Be LIONS of love and courage! Show them the evidence! Teach them all knowledge, and apologetic proof! You are GOD's kingdom, not the SYSTEM!

Remember: YOU won't give up until the entire Earth is Christian. Why? Because God won't, and he owns you. You'll have to do what you're told! Or else you can quit being a Christian.

But things are looking BAD. Because of YOU. YOU are not a CHRISTIAN. Only when you become God's ALLMIGHTY HAND CONDUCTING EARTH are you a true SON OF GOD IN THE ROYAL FAMILY OF HEAVEN! God has given EVERYTHING to you! Creation resonates, moans, and overjoys at your presence! There are angels all around you, loving you, understanding you, and CHEERING you on! But you have to take the first step.

LEARN how to fight, be a preacher, study apologetics, burn with passion through your love for Jesus, and then FIGHT!

YOU are given the right to own EVERYTHING on EARTH! You are conquering LIONS in this world, and lambs before Jesus in Heaven.

You won't accept ridicule against Christianity online or in media! You are the world's number one persecuted minority, and it's time we act as ONE with our persecuted brothers in China, and the middle-east. It's time to be as wise as serpents, and meek as doves.

You won't accept Christianity being taken out of school curriculum! You won't accept how the politicians lie, took your country from you, or how they favour Muslims instead of you! You will throw evidence to their face! You are warrior MEN of ISRAEL! You are VICTORS! THEY are the victims! They don't know better! It's YOUR job to enlighten them. They don't KNOW! Be as victimized, and zealous about faith as the Muslims. If the politicians listen to Muslims, they'll listen to us.

If we can't ridicule Muhammad, then none should ridicule Jesus. I know what you want to say. "But we are more adult, civilized, and modern with humour." Well, it's comparison of how idiotic it's become!

If ANYONE teases you, conspires against you, overtake your country's politics, attacks the Church, takes your rights, or puts you in prison, then you FIGHT for your rights to death! And there is PROOF of such conspiracy! Stand up and be counted among the fighters in Heaven! Your life means NOTHING unless you actually live it! You're already going to Heaven! Live your life as if Heaven MEANT something to you!

But to all who read this. Know that our battle is one of love and light. Infowars. Knowledge, enlightenment, apologetics, media, politics, humanism, diplomacy, peace, and pacifism. For our Lord Jesus says "those who take to the sword will die by the sword."

You're KINGS without a crown! LOOK at what you have become! STOP being AFRAID! Learn, and teach what I discovered in my books, and the people will bow in respect. Then you will have dignity, and a crown of honour before God. YOU are the face of Christ today, and he was crucified as a criminal. Yet you accept a police-state.

YOU should be fierce, not the Muslims! Fierce with love, reason, intellect, and apologetic science. You have 10 times the reason that they have, with your heavyweight miracles, apologetics (David Wood) and Near Death Experiences.

And yet, Christianity isn't even "a thing" anymore. It's just "a personal thing". Yeah, "it doesn't matter if they Islamize Europe, and kill our Christian brothers from China to the Middle-East worldwide. " "It doesn't matter that the media never report anything." Did you know? Media never reports on anything. The voice of the lambs will be heard through Christians uniting the neo-charismatic movement, retake the mother-church, fleeing towards the sanctuaries, and staying together like the 1st century Christians while engaging in an apologetic media, and political infowars for our fallen brothers to be heard.

This age is just like the first centuries, for Christians are being persecuted in the Middle-East, and Europe once more. I say we defend, unite, strategize, and gain at least ONE foothold of God's kingdom on Earth, a country or village. If the enemy can divide your troops on the battlefield, or sow lies to lower morale, he can quickly flank you, and outdo you in a DAY. Use your wits. Be strong as lions, wise as serpents, and meek as doves. Christianity is threatened like never before, persecuted like never before, and lied about like never before. Satan thinks he can win, but we will unite for the coming of Lord Jesus!

But you don't even speak of your faith. It's your JOB to find ways of expressing your faith! Remember: If you deny Jesus, then Jesus will deny you in Heaven as is written. Yet you act like some foolish religious victim of political norms! "Can't say this. Can't say that. I'm just Christian because it feels good." Have you forgotten who it is who REIGNS?

YOU have been given a gold-coin of eternal worth to every single person on the planet! What gold? Salvation. You are the RICHEST persons on all Earth! Earthly belongings mean nothing! The gospel of Christ means EVERYTHING! Without God, you're as good as dead... Poor. Astray. Wandering aimlessly as a resource for Hell...

YOU are the only viable FUTURE! YOU are the HOPE! YOU are God's fingertips! Does the Bible not tell you to REJOICE CONSTANTLY! PARTY AS IF YOU WERE JEWS IN HEAVEN! LET THEM SEE YOUR GLADNESS AND JOIN YOU! I don't know if you've seen Jews dance, but perhaps one day I can show you how they do it. ;) March onto the streets with parades of love and light! Love your neighbour! Be fierce as Muslims! Take charge over the realm and create the utopia I describe in my book "The Kingdom of God!"

YOU are his Generals on Earth. You are infinite, eternal, and all-powerful! YOU are God`s PEOPLE! YOU are the JEWS! You should CONDUCT human HISTORY! Not be the VICTIMS! You simply have the wrong ATTITUDE! You are taught to respond or obey in a discreet manner! Drop it! Is that how you will enter Heaven? By being shy about the gospel and obeying political norm? It would be ridiculous! Or will you fight? Come JOIN me! Start roaring! You are the TRUE lions of Judah! And yes, I believe in replacement theology. You are NOT victims.

Did you ever think it was Jesus imagination that you would be his disciples without being Jews? Jesus himself says "God can raise up children of Abraham from these rocks. " I think it`s the only ironic joke Jesus ever told. But Christians never got it.

We have a battle to win. A battle of love and light. A battle of enlightening the masses. Infowars against quackedemic physics and Darwinism. An ideological battle to defend all western values including Christianity and humanism. We are the front-fighters! Lights of the world!

Furthermore:

An evangelist embodies evangelium. An evangelist must learn the word, embody it, and teach it. The time has passed when all were of the same nationality and went to the same state-church. People have become seeped by " political correctness", don`t learn Christianity at school, and fear the Muslims!

They are happy about living in a cage guarded by the police-men they think protect them. A necessary evil they say. It only creates a cold society. Unless we reach ethical homogeneity: The future of social Scandinavia will be a cold society.

The west is afraid of Islam, but don`t know the cure is their own Christian legacy. Take them back to school and learn them to stand up for their country! Start private schools! Show them the mountain of truth! Reveal the ice-berg! BREAK the norms and stand out from the crowds. Do it extravagantly like major conspiracy-figures!

Awaken the natural defence-mechanism of any threatened individual. Make them realize: NO, things are NOT ok just because politicians say so. THEY are LIARS. Awaken the natural, national, primal, patriotic defence-mechanism of the indigenous Europeans! It's our RIGHT to defend our land. Even the preamble of the UN human rights says so.

As society has changed, so must our methods. The internet is perhaps the most essential. We have three missions. 1 To preach about Hell to the lost. 2 To unify our church. 3 To build God's kingdom. Race, and hair-colour doesn't matter at ALL! Why? Because you can't tell the difference between a rich, poor, smart, stupid, black, or white person burning in Hell. The only way it matters is as a symbol.

One vital field of harvest is being active at Christian forums, and the internet. Muslims are about 100 times as active on net, judging from the forums in Norway. This is because Christians relax in their salvation in a personal relationship to God, while as Muslims stress with laws, never certain if they attain salvation. Muslims also act in group-mentality since they go to mosques 1-5 times each day while Christians do so only once a week. They are much better than us. We will sharpen up, and start teaching our children bread, and not milk.

The Muslims are uncommon with our culture, and more thus more on the aggressive front as so to speak. We feel obliged to make them feel happy, and integrated. Why? Because they are aggressive by nature. Statistics prove this. Because politicians told us "you should feel bad if you don't follow unwritten rules." Is it ok for you when they take your country as long as it makes them happy??? Or else they will get ANGRY! O_o For the Muslims are SPOILED on welfare money by a state who capitulated to Islam overnight, and support them both in media, politics, and with arms in the middle-east. Islam strongly believe Norway is theirs! Do you strongly believe Norway should be a strict Christian state???

Over my dead body. But if you question Islam, they'll get defensive, and very angry, and then the Christian don't know what to do, so they'll just hand them their country, smile, and be their servants! Even though the Christians know they are right.

It is time Christians start using their apologetics, brains, and resources to protect their nations. Where are apologists? Where are the scholars? The only apologist against Islam out there is David Wood, acts17apologetics, and an ex-Muslim atheist called Apostate Prophet!

Science should determine the true religion. How can religion be the only to escape the scientific method of the 21st century? Anti-human, anti-women, and a political-judicial system based on superficial belief (ISLAM) should OF COURSE be ILLEGAL in a modern world! Same with Christianity, if we can't prove we're right through divine intervention. A scientific, apologetic showdown is needed between Islam and Christianity. The scientific method that applies to everything but religious opium for the masses: But either it is true, or it is false, as science glorifies the Christian God!

People shall feel ashamed of being a Muslim, not the other way around! The political norm will be: HOW DARE YOU be a Muslim? You ruined our ENTIRE west, you KILLED MILLIONS OF MY CHRISTIAN BROTHERS IN THE MIDDLE EAST and led all Earth straight into WW3 with terror across the globe! You rape statistics are 10 times greater than native Norwegians! How DARE YOU be a Muslim, and believe in that medieval, unscientific MURDERER called Muhammad! I feel WORSE than the Jews after Holocaust, and I don't have a single Christian country in the world to flee to!

THAT would be common sense outside the political norm.

We shall therefore change and be twice as pride filled as Muslims are. "This is my Christian country, and I will defend my core-western values! The politicians have betrayed their nation, their people, the humanistic values, and WAR against us! They have de-Christianized the entire nation! We scream and cry day and night until our dead brothers are heard!"

We will Christianize and take back this nation twice as strong as before! Is that not your goal? It SHOULD be! The Bible calls us to be bold and build God's Kingdom! Say: "I will defeat the medieval Islam that rapes our Christian daughters. I will defeat the cultural-marxist state and carve my own nation!" Amen. DEUS VULT! God wills it!

We shall flood the streets with national clothing and display the colours of our flags. Our slogan of LOVE AND LIGHT, JESUS LOVES YOU, RAGNAROK IS REAL, and DEUS VULT will overpower Allah Akbar! Music, drums, guitars, banners, flyers, dramas, dance, and choirs will be seen and heard on the streets.

Peaceful parades of Christian conscience, reason, affection, tears, yet joy, love, enlightenment, and renaissance is not only OUR hope. It's THEIR hope...

We shall have fun being proud and united! Islam will only make us stronger, which we saw through apologist David Wood. We will march in a revival-parade of dance and celebration. We will retake the old church, and cathedrals with joy, love and light! We will create huge Facebook groups, uniting all Christians for parades to retake Christian Europe! Our revival will spread across the globe!

Being a Christian will become a national status symbol, but today it's the opposite. Pagans, Muslims, and especially Jews hold great respect from each-other, including us Christians, ironically.

No Muslim shall rape your sisters! Throw them out of the country! THEY are the racists. I personally have never met a white supremacist. But I know Muslims who want to dominate all, believing they are God's chosen, and that we Norwegians are dogs and pigs. Less worth than animals. It says so in the Quran. "They are the worst of creatures."

And you accept how they take over our Christian country? Awaken the lion! We shall create Christian brands and wear a clothes code. People shall feel ashamed of being a Muslim, and not being part of the resistance of martyrs! The weak and persecuted often become strong.

Don't give up! Be proud and display your Heavenly Father's pride in you! HE is your sure foundation, not political correctness! We have the proof! We have the mysteries! We have tradition, history, and the science! The greatest mystical cultural-religious-historical tradition based on facts! All of it! (Contrary to Islam.) Start with apologetics, and you will see Christianity becoming a status symbol once again.

We will market Christianity on tv, and on streets! We will rejoice with worship, and never stop evangelizing! We will create companies, think-tanks, and save many souls! We will save Scandinavia and Europe from quackademia and media-lies! A huge revival will break out, and we will LIBERATE the Muslims from their unscientific, racist, medieval, anti-human superficial beliefs.

We will be as respected, and rich as in the catholic glory days! No more listening to political bias! AWAY with the SPELLS of politicians! We will inherit all the riches in the world, for our God reigns!

And, we will prove it through marketing our mystical, scientifically, religious, and miraculous science over all the web and world! That the Christian God is true will be unwritten law in Europe once again.

Does not our God deserve it? FIGHT FOR IT! GOD GIVES IT TO YOU! HERE! TAKE IT! TAKE IT!

We will display our superior intelligence proudly on the streets! All will recognize each other, and wherever two, or three are gathered: There shall be love, life, laughter, smile and warmth. We shall show these poor immigrants the love, and light of our country, giving them a warm welcome in the display of our land. They will integrate when we do our part. We will save them from themselves.

Objectives.

Our fields of missionary work consist of two, and 5 things:

Light/knowledge.

1. Uniting the Christians.
2. Writing, marketing, and evangelizing about our apologetic discoveries.
3. Cultivating Christian, and national culture through exploring new forms of Christian expression through art, music, parades, parties, camps, fun-events, and doing as much as possible to evolve.

Love/morale/compassion.

1. Helping the poor. Finding orphanages, and Christians in poor countries with perhaps a poor currency like for instance India where I support and know of several orphanages.
2. Preaching the gospel to the unreached. Examples: Make your own websites, and get flyers with Christian apologetics. I did that. Just stand at the town square and ask people: Do you want to know more about life, holding out flyers. Muster prophets on the streets in white: Shouting "repent! " Musicians on stage. Disciples doing their duty of going door to door. Media-men setting up websites and putting up posters of such. God-book as a Christian Facebook. Uniting the alternative Christian newsmedia under our existence. Funding, and helping those who have a dream, and want to reach the masses. Etc.
3. Promoting the morale of western-humanistic values, and human rights.

Every Christian MUST preach the gospel, and the valid truth on the streets every day, every week, or all the time, giving out flyers, and exalting God wheresoever he goes. As long as it is permitted in regard to workplaces, foreign countries etc. UN human rights demand we can preach! The reason there is no revival is because we have decided so! If a leader decides to create a revival, it's simply:

1 Getting enough people.

2 Having the right new message/revelation. (For instance, love and enlightenment, destroying polarities.)

3 Having the right culture.

4 Having the right media outlet.

5 Having the right funding.

6 And most importantly: Staying together in worship long enough, like an everyday Church – for the power of the spirit to start manifest and heal. It's not up to God. He's available all the time. It's up to us.

Every Christian must always document all miracles in a notebook, or preferably on videocamera with documentation. Show God respect, and that you mean business! The testimony might heal someone through faith! Give glory to God so he notices you received your gift! Then God will be faithful and pour out more. I guarantee!

Show yourselves to the priests as is biblical! It might convert someone! Show the people how many are raised from the dead each year! Convince them to convert! We will convert everyone who is not a Satanist, and then go to war. After we have Christianized the entire world, only the elite will remain. By then: All will know they are Satanists. Then we will hang them for betrayal against humanity. We will Christianize Europe NOW! Or else I fear we will lie in obscurity until our lands are utterly lost and all hope has faded... DON'T EVEN THINK IT!!!

Keep record of your Christian life, the miracles you witnessed, your evangelizing, and who you have saved for both themselves, and future generations. You must give the record of the miracles to your Church. Every church MUST keep a log of every miracle if they want the Church to survive. When you have done so: You must make a movie about it and go preaching the good news of Heaven!

The knowledge of Christ's superiority must be spread to every corner of the internet, as the time of spirit-science has come. We are way behind. The devil has bunkers with UFO's, and cloning facilities. And we haven't even discovered the source-field/torsion-field/scalar-field of evolution! We don't even have an (David Wood associated) apologetics service! We need one in every country and are so far behind!

The devil rules government, media, economy, military, entertainment, culture, idols, puts chemtrails in the air, and creates his own lies into education. In this century, it shall be proven who is the miracle-working God forever through the scientific method, or else we be stupid sheep run over for another Vatican dark age. This time under Islam. We must rise for God has given us all Earth, all wealth, and all power over all disease.

Chapter 6: The Israeli heritage.

Individuals like myself love to glorify God and carry his laws to heart. I wish I had the strength to practice my religion peacefully, but since this is a warzone, and bitter times, I leave my wishes with you.

Thank Heaven for Moses! Ah sacred Moses! If it were not for him, we would all be savage heathens! That is something you often forget... My point is: Once you get closer to Jesus, and the Father as a friend, you will learn to love Moses, and God's law just as Jesus did. You are a disciple. You walk the path under master Jesus. Being a disciple means becoming like your master. It is the very meaning of this word's original context.

Remember. Jesus says "I am the way, the truth, and the life. " But many forget the next verse. "Nobody comes to the Father without me. " The Father is the goal! He is what completes your journey! Learning to love the father means learning to love Moses. Ah. Now that we are saved through Jesus, there is even MORE joy, and love for upholding the sacred law as our hearts rejoice in salvation! In this: Masters become fathers themselves. God.

One can ask oneself what Moses would have done if he returned, and saw how we eat artificial, and gene-modified food with all the toxins like preservatives, artificial sweeteners, pesticides, etc.

Worst is the pollution of the God's creation and the human genome through gene-modified-food (GMO), pesticide, and additive chemicals that give us cancer, hormones, disabilities, etc which many are unaware of!

Remember that creation is sacred to its creator and that HE makes the rules! Remember that in all you do, from agriculture to animal stocking, you must ask the creator for permission.

Ask yourself: Is stacking humans and animals morally right before the throne of God? Would the personality of strict, loving Moses agree to animal cruelty??? Never. This is a problem we probably won't be able to solve until Earth population decreases, the Kingdom of Heaven comes, and people start seeing their connection and responsibility as God's gardeners of Eden, living in symbiosis with nature and each other once again.

It is evident that God's intention, and the most beautiful, resourcefully lasting, and harmonic way of human life would be to live in monastic villages like previously described, not artificial systems like these conglomerate schools and nations where our childhood relationships are raped by societal demand and work!

Remember: The Bible tells us our main purpose and God's first, most important command: To live in harmony with nature in Eden as God's representative gardeners.

Regarding food, what if Moses returned?

The Bible also teaches us the body is the temple. The temple of God. YOU are a part of God: The holy shekinah. I don't think Moses would have been a hypocrite Jew, and said it's ok, "mass animal production is ok. " He would have been very strict with you. Let me explain "as if Moses had returned."

Every species, subspecies and individual down to bacteria level is more conscious than you could ever fathom as Dr Cleve Backster's polygraph experiments on plants and bacteria proved in the 50ies...

All individuals and animals have their great personality and inner symphony given to them by God/Source. We should treat animals like the American Indians saw them: As spirits, for they are spirits, parts of the whole.

If Moses or any of the prophets returned, they would have knelt down and cried bitterly... They never would have even imagined they would have to address animal cruelty on an irresponsible un-Biblical scale as we see today.

Source-field alternative physics and tests done on animal (mice, spiders, etc) dreamscape tells us that all life is connected to one field.

In fact, it seems humans are the only one not connected to this field as scalar physicist Ed Wagner, David Wilcock, and many others suggest. Late Mk-Ultra and military scientist Dr Cleve Backster, inventor of the polygraph (lie detector) claimed this field directs bird emmigration, tell animals instinctively what plant is toxic, if the bread you made for it (the bird) is toxic, etc.

Basically: The source-field is what you call "the instinct" of the bird.

Scientists have determined all animals get the knowledge for survival through downloading from this dreamscape. These are scientific facts.

STAND UP FOR ANIMAL AND HUMAN RIGHTS! Stacking animals (or humans) together where they lose connection to nature and spirit, disrupts the source-field, disrupts the dreamscape of the species, and it's connection to higher realms like a Satanic ritual.

A Satanic ritual, sacrifice is often done at sacred places to disrupt that strong presence of the source-field's natural harmonic flow and infuse it with fear, anger, perversion and demons. Mass animal food-stocking has the same effect. Free the animals! BACK INTO HARMONY WITH NATURE!

Would you stack cats together and eat them??? Take pigs for instance. Very clever animals, like cats. They make great pets. Would you stack cats or dogs together, force-feed them, brutally murder them and eat them if cats were bigger and had a lot of meat? Look at creation: Nature is a symphony of symbiotic relationships between the species. But we humans have SEPARATED ourselves and RAPE our cattle when instead, the Bible tells us we are supposed to act LIKE GOD HIMSELF, ADAM, GARDENERS: Supervising creation. Ask yourself: What would God Himself have done if he saw Adam do what we do to God's creation??? Ask yourself: What is our prime responsibility and what are we doing to our planet?

How long will this civilization last if 8 billion consume the precious resources, the oil, the metals, the woods, pollute the oceans, kill the fish, kill the reefs, pollute the air, and make our world into nuclear waste? How would Adam, and the Second Adam, God's perfect son act, if he saw our civilization??? By now, it should be clear to you that the Kingdom of God is nature, or at least: In symbiosis with nature.

Ask yourself as a Christian son of Adam in front of God's throne: Are we responsible? Ask yourself: How long do you believe God wants his Kingdom with mankind to last? Ask yourself: How long do you think our petroleum based civilization will last??? Perhaps 100 years?

And then, ask yourself this: If our civilization became nature symbiotic, had ecologically intelligent farming, housing and living and thus existed a 1000 years, is there any reason why it should not last 5 million years? If we achieve perpetual balance with nature for 100-1000 years, with innovative Tesla technology and interdimensional/etheric physics, why should our village not last a million years??? Are you beginning to see God`s intention for Adam here?

Please pray over, and completely abstain from eating "food" that`s morally/Biblically wrong and bad for you. Customs to consider include staying away from:

- Gene-modified corn, and other unholy GMO that are unhealthy, unnatural, and all that damages the human genes.
- Pig. (the food they feed pigs is polluted these days. They also vaccinate them.)
- Neuro-toxins, cancer causes, dangerous vaccines, and bad medicine.
- Dangerous food additives like aspartame, and unhealthy artificial sweeteners.
- Dangerous pesticides as on for instance apples.
- Also try to avoid eating and mingling with goyim too much.

Ok. I am glad I have that covered. We have a little chicken farm where I live, and I love my chickens. Each has astounding personality and their own classical symphony: BUT WHERE IS THE SYMPHONY OF 10.000 CHICKENS STACKED TOGETHER??? The only song I could come up with to fit such a scenario would have been "Mad World" by Gary Jules. To see just how bad, and Satanic this really is, you have to connect to free animals, ground yourself in nature, and wake up to REALITY.

Connect to the Heavenly song of the universe, to the magical nature of God all around you, and you will start having vivid colourful dreams like in your childhood. It was Nicola Tesla who said that "if you wish to understand the nature of this universe, you must think in terms of waves, frequency and vibrations."

What we are doing is seriously injuring the source field. As resource material for this "source-field phonetic universe", where all is string vibrations of a Heavenly song, I recommend "Wisdom Teachings by David Wilcock", phonetics with Michael Tellinger and anything of Thomas Joseph Brown.

Messianic Jews

Jesus never says the Mosaic law is undone, he says the opposite and instead confirms that it will NEVER be undone. Although I follow replacement theology, and believe the Christians are the real Jews, the Israelites of today, there are still blessings through the Mosaic covenant, and the Abrahamic covenant. God's covenants are everlasting, and with every covenant comes a blessing, but it's all weighed after the heart. E.g we live after the blood covenant of Jesus Christ I describe in my book "the ritual of the cross explained."

Some would argue that the 4 laws by Peter is according to their time alone, and that there is much we Christians have to learn from messianic Jews. While the dietary laws and laws of customs do not apply to us anymore, validated by Peter, many would argue that the other laws still count, particularly ones through which we inherit particular blessings, such as keeping the sabbath and putting up Mezuzah's.

Put up Mezuzah on the doorposts. Especially if in a battlefield. This commandment still counts.

And keep the sabbath, and Jewish holidays, NOT the Babylonian holidays like Easter (Ishtar), or the Roman Saturnalia (Christmas). The sabbath is Friday evening from 18.00 – 18.00 Saturday but was originally based on the phases of the moon.

I tell you, but you should already know this: Stay away from unclean thoughts, sex, and bathe a lot. Did you know the Jews, particularly the priesthood, have a 4000 year history of purity through washing of sins by water? Or perhaps you have never read the Torah, never read Jewish history, and never understood what background John the Baptist came from: Take a shower, rejoice in the lord, put on a prayer-shawl, read some of the Bible, pray your daily prayers, dress with tzitzit, and learn your lesson of PURITY. I did just that, as God led me through a specific period, and I felt A LOT more protected, A LOT better and more connected to Jesus, the and the Bible. I'm not saying you HAVE to do this, and don't be law-ish. Remember: Peter names strictly 4 laws for the pagan nations.

But I think both Jew, and Christian should stand for common sense; healthy organic, un-sprayed food. I personally think it is better to eat greens, fish, and that "factory meat" is unhealthy and immoral for you... Eat only what nature provides, free animals, like Adam, not processed factory cows.

Solomon addressed the hedonistic, post-modern pitfall of this age three thousand years before our time. We believe the world needs a spiritual law, and that keeping the tradition alive is necessary. What is better than laws? If we didn't have them: All would wonder what they were.

What is the difference between messianic Jews, and Christians in practice?

Messianic Jews observe traditional Jewish holidays such as Purim and Chanukah, the ninth of Av and the Ten Days of Awe.

Messianic Jews observe the biblical feasts such as the Feasts of Trumpets, Tabernacles and Passover.

Messianic Jews worship on the biblical sabbath, i.e., Friday evening till Saturday.

Messianic Jews chant the Sh'ma, the kiddush and motzi, the Aaronic benediction, Etz Chaim, and many other parts of traditional Jewish liturgy.

Messianic Jews say kaddish for those who have passed on.

Messianic Jews chant the Torah portion in Hebrew at worship services.

Messianic Jews bar mitzvah their sons and bat mitzvah their daughters.

Messianic preaching is mainly from the Hebrew Bible (Tanakh), although references to the B'rit Chadasha (New Covenant) are not unusual.

Messianic Judaism emphasizes the special relationship between God and the Jewish people.

Messianic Jews understand that God never changed the way to obtain salvation: "And Abraham believed God and it was credited to him [Abraham] as righteousness."

Messianic Jews understand the purpose of following the Torah (often mistranslated "Law", but literally, "teaching") always has been to live holy, not to obtain salvation.

Messianic Jews only baptize those who have accepted Messiah (no infant baptism) and baptize by immersion only (no sprinkling or pouring).

Basically: Messianic Jews believe the Mosaic law is a sacred practice, but not a way to obtain salvation. They love God so much they chose to please him through observance, thus inheriting the covenant blessings of Abraham and Moses. This is the true doctrine of Jesus, and those called. Many messianic Jews keep the kosher laws even though they are not necessary to obtain salvations as Acts 10 reveals.

Matthew 5:18

For truly I tell you, until Heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.

I truly believe that the 613 Mitzvot (Mosaic laws) , aside from dietary laws, still count in the New Covenant for messianic Jews, or at least I would list them, but do not have the space. I do not follow these myself, but I guess I would have had I not been persecuted and were free to cultivate my roots and soul.

I have always sought to live a monastic life cultivating what I call "soil and soul", focusing on the afterlife. Seeking God in nature is what I love. A farm.

The vision of a northern Israel:

During the year of 2012, I had several angelic encounters with my archangel Gabriel, and Jesus who showed me strange visions always relating to the same theme. The first vision I had was of three swords, and ambers uniting. The ice of the Scandinavian people melted, and a great freedom was heard. A new social waveform of love erupted as fire. The second vision was of the courtyard directly in front of Solomon`s temple. The Lord showed me how I was an important rock in his Temple. This was in Sweden on a mighty spiritual journey with dear Christian friends. The third was when at home in my cabin. I heard God speak to me saying: Lead my sheep my son.

The fourth time was in my apartment in Kristiansand. I saw the world, and the Bible opened hovering over Norway. A fire burnt from it, and the ice melted. Below it was written: Burn Babylon. The fifth vision was of Virgin Mary crying under the moon. Her tears became 12 stars of Israel. She cried for me, and I saw the tears gather as yellow stars under the banner of the EU. I saw how the flag of Israel merged with the world.

Mother Mary cries for us- her lost children!

Yair Davidiy whom supports Israel has shown unrelenting will to research the mythological origins of western tribes from Israel as if he was sent by God.

I own his books, and they are packed with unquestionable evidence the ten northern tribes of Israel wandered throughout the world to Scandinavia. These Cadussi Nephtalites (also known as the little-goths, and white hunns) moved into Schythia, and southern Russia from west of the black sea to east of the caspian sea. The rest of the emigration to Scandinavia is taught in Norwegian primary school.

Norway as Naphtali

Yair's book the "Ten Tribes" resurface history, and the location of all the ten tribes based on history, science, linguistics, archeology, scripture and prophecy, yet quotes this about the Norwegian naphtalites in particular:

"The tribes of Ruben, Gad, and Manasseh (from whom emerged most of the gothic nations) in the east banks of Jordan had been borderen by Dan, and Naphtali who were to the west of them. NAPHTALI were to re-emerge under the same name Naphtali (sometimes incorrectly rendered as "EPHTALI") in Schythia". The Naphtali were also known as Cadussi or "Kadassaye" in honour of Kadesh-Naphtali Judges 4:6

She sent for Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you: 'Go, take with you ten thousand men of Naphtali and Zebulun and lead them up to Mount Tabor.

Which had been there former centre in the land of Israel. The Cadussi had first been recorded close to Mannae southwest of the Caspian Sea. The area was one of the major regions to which Northern Israelites had been transported by the Assyrians. The apocryphal book of Tobias mentions Israelite exiles from the tribe of Naphtali in Ecbatana (Tobit 2:7) and Rages of Media (Tobit 5:6) both of which adjoined the Cadussii area! Pliny reported that the Cadussi termed themselves "Gaeli". The Cadussi-Gaeli were related to the Sacae Scythians according to Xenophon. (We identify the Sacae Schythians as ancestors of the Angles, and Saxons who invaded Britain). The Cadussi (or Kadussi) later moved northwards into Scythia east of the Ural Mountains where they were also referred to as Naphtalites or nephtalite Huns thought some sources still referred to them as Kadassaye I.e Cadussie. After a series of wars and migrations the Cadussi Nephtalites (also known as "White Huns" and sundry other names) split up into several groups. The majority went westward and entered Scandinavia to form what later became the Danes and Norwegians. Another portion remained in Schythia to eventually merge with the Khazars who converted to Judaism. " /

The Bible says the 10 lost tribes (Ephraim) shall be gathered

I have walked a solitary mystic path with God since I was young getting visions of my future, and His calling all my life. I was open to God. I would battle demons in my dreams and waking fantasies wherever I walked. I wonder if they were fantasies at all.

Thus, I come to you humbled like the reluctant prophet Jonah with an urge towards repentance. God WILL create a new loving mantle over those in this generation reserved for Him. There IS inherited blessing for God's purpose with this nation waiting for those he will set aside as a remnant of Israel.

He will create a "new man" of love, courage, chivalry and strength. He will trample on the serpents, and lead the Norwegian people out of ice, and into joy. I could see a free people covered with white clothes walking among the rest. These are those reserved for our ministry of Israel. The Holy Lord will pour out his prophetic spirit of interceding worship, and reserved holiness upon this nation.

It is written in the Bible that all tribes shall be gathered again. We see the importance of our ministry when humanistic Graeco-roman-Judeo-Christian culture of the west is at threat: Europe is at threat! Israel is at threat! By whom? The heretic Islam! Anyways.

How amazing to discover we are living in the prophetic fulfilment of biblical scripture! For whenever the enemy raises his sword, God will answer, and protect us more mightily.

Our history, and heritage is so true, so eternal, so large, and so eternal that if Islam so floods us, we will stand firm. This is the biblical purpose with Norway of our time! The world returning to a global 1000 year Israel (not Babylon)!

Isaiah 11:11-12

And it shall come to pass on that day, that the Lord will set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people, that shall remain from Assyria, and from Egypt and from Pathros and from Kush and from Eklam and from Shinar and from Hamath and from the islands of the sea.

And he shall set up an ensign for the nations and will assemble the dispersed of Israel and gather together the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the Earth.

Jeremiah 30:3 "The days are coming, 'declares the LORD,' when I will bring my people Israel and Judah back from captivity and restore them to the land, I gave their ancestors to possess," says the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:24 "For I will take you out of the nations, i will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land."

Jeremiah 29:11-14

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you.

You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

I will be found by you," declares the LORD, "And will bring you back from captivity. I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have banished you," declares the LORD, "And will bring you back to the place from which I carried you into exile."

Hosea 3:4-5

For the Israelites will live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred stones, without ephod or household gods.

Afterward the Israelites will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the LORD and to his blessings in the last days.

Jeremiah 31:7

Moreover, the Lord says, "Sing for joy for the descendants of Jacob. Utter glad shouts for that foremost of the nations. Make your praises heard. Then say,

'Lord, rescue your people. Deliver those of Israel who remain alive. 'Then I will reply, 'I will bring them back from the land of the north. I will gather them in from the distant parts of the earth. Blind and lame people will come with them, so will pregnant women and women about to give birth. A vast throng of people will come back here. 32:37 'I will certainly regather my people from all the countries where I will have exiled them in my anger, fury, and great wrath. I will bring them back to this place and allow them to live here in safety.

Revelations 7:1-17 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so no wind could blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, who had the seal of the living God. He shouted out with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given permission to damage the earth and the sea: "Do not damage the earth or the sea or the trees until we have put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." Now I heard the number of those who were marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed from all the tribes of the people of Israel: From the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed. After these things I looked, and here was an enormous crowd that no one could count, made up of persons from every nation, tribe, people, and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb dressed in long white robes, and with palm branches in their hands. They were shouting out in a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God, to the one seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood there in a circle around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they threw themselves down with their faces to the ground before the throne and worshiped God, saying, "Amen! Praise and glory, and wisdom and thanksgiving, and honour and power and strength be to our God for ever and ever. Amen!" Then one of the elders asked me, "These dressed in long white robes – who are they and where have they come from?" So, I said to him, "My lord, you know the answer." Then he said to me, "These are the ones who have come out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb! For this reason, they are before the throne of God, and they serve him day and night in his temple, and the one seated on the throne will shelter them. They will never go hungry or be thirsty again, and the sun will not beat down on them, nor any burning heat, because the Lamb in the middle of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Revelations 14:1-5

Then I looked, and behold, a Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His Father's name written on their foreheads. And I heard a voice from Heaven, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of loud thunder. And I heard the sound of harpists playing their harps. They sang as it were a new song before the throne, before the four living creatures, and the elders, and no one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth. These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men, being firstfruits to God and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no deceit, for they are without fault before the throne of God.

That was a lot of prophesies!!! It is a MIRACLE seeing God's word fulfilled as the state of Israel right before our eyes! ISRAEL NEEDS HER MESSIAH! We believe the timeframe of this gathering is now.

Does not Peter say: Preach first to the Jews, and then to the gentiles? Imagine the blessing when the two branches of the olive-tree meet, Christians bringing Jews salvation, and Jews bringing Christians knowledge and riches.

It is a great, and important part of ministry to know we live in the of fulfilment that the prophets spoke of when the exiled ten northern tribes of the northern kingdom of Israel shall return. It is our most important mission to be a worldwide tabernacle of Heaven on Earth!

I believe we are growing back together unto the olive-tree of Israel as we all take part in the blessings through Abraham, and heritage from Jews to stand united as a new world. What other worldwide culture should we chose from? Humanism? Atheism? Satanism? Only Judeo-Christendom is true, and has the oldest, and greatest historical, and cultural value. It is truly as in Israel's national anthem. "Hatikvah/The Hope" (The hope for the world.) Only the enlightened will realize this.

Still: God forbids the creation of a new Babylon. We are to be separate tribes and keep our ethnographic individuality, our borders : But all will unite through what must be taught as universal morale, and history at every school in the world: Israel, it's Noahide laws, and it's history. Not the false history of Islam which a single man proclaimed; defaming 2400 years of accepted Jewish history singlehandedly. We must also end war, and help immigrants in their own nation, because humanity is the apple of God's eye, and thus "human biodiversity/ethnic distinction" MUST be protected as true as we are all his children through the Noahic covenant...!!!

Remember: Nationalism, tribal identity, and human biodiversity, not Babel, is a founding belief of the Bible and the Israeli heritage.

Great powers are working to wash away the truth of Biblical Judeo-Christian history with corrupt modern science. But the evidence is there. Solomon existed, and the Jews crossed the Red Sea. Giants existed, and the Israelites defeated them. Jesus existed, and he died on a cross. All these truths are under severe attack.

All must protect Israel and become spiritual Jews! The blood of Abraham has spread all over Earth. Israel will unite black, white, yellow and red. Amen.

The reality that we have the ability to test ancestry through DNA samples is another prophetic fulfilment coming closer to the peaceful universal Israel when messiah Ben David returns, after-which there shall be peace on earth forever.
Isaiah 9.

Askenazis aren't Jewish?!?

The scripture is clear about the return of the Jews to Israel, as well as the rediscovery of the long-lost tribes. We know from DNA tests that most of the khazarian Jews share common ancestry with Sephardic Mizrahi Jews where 99% of those tested shared a common ancestor believed to be Levi the priest. We recon the askenazi tribe as being the spiritual tribe of Judah although only a fragment of them are Judah by heritage. Yet most of them have intermarried.

We know from linguistics, culture, names of landmarks, countries, DNA, and archaeological discoveries that the lost tribes wandered up to the area surrounding Turkey, and the Black Sea. Among these where the Danes. These emigrated northwards. They gave names to places like the river Donau, Denmark etc. (Danmark is the Danish word, and Donau was called Danau.)

The druidic religion of Europa shares stunning linguistic, ritualistic, astrological, and sacred-day similarities with the tradition of the pagan Danite Israel who wandered up north. The Danes are the reason we have the red, and white colours of Denmark and America. These colours belonged to the tribe of Dan. Dan is situated to the north, as fulfilled by their settlement in Scandinavia.

Numbers 2:25 "On the north will be the divisions of the camp of Dan under their standard. The leader of the people of Dan is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai. "

The English population have strong Semite traits to our day, especially with their long noses, and egg-like skulls.

We know that the emperors of Japan have artefacts e.g a mirror with Hebrew letters on it as they unofficially trace their royal lineage to Israel.

The location of the arc of the covenant.

We also know from DNA findings that the Ethiopian Jews, as well as the Lemba tribe stem from the common Jewish ancestor we believe to be Levi the Priest. Both tribes tell tales of being led out of Israel, and holy tools of the 1st Temple are still being kept by the Ethiopians! These are descendant of Levi and Judah.

Many conspiracy theorists claim that about 90%, or one million Jews migrated southward into Africa after the destruction of the second temple in 71 AD. They further claim these settled in the lands where slave trade shipped them over to America: Thus, making the Africans part of the tribe of Judah specifically. There is much evidence to support this.

The arc of the covenant as revealed in "the sign and the seal by Graham Hancock" proves that it almost certainly resides in Ethiopia. The "Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo Church" claims their "Our Lady Mary of Zion" church contains the arc of the covenant, which is under heavy guardianship by soldiers who often die shortly after assignment due to cancer or cataract. This proves the ancient thesis of this Egyptian high-tech arc to be a relic weapon from a lost age, as it has powerful, dangerous radiation which kills all who guard it. There were many "arcs" made by Egypt's high tech. Just check it out on google.

Is it not strange that in the Indiana Jones movie "Raiders of the Lost Arc", we have Nazis after the arc of the covenant! These were the Teutonic knights templar which we trace ourselves from.

Is the holy Arc of the Covenant with the relics of Moses, and Aaron inside this church?!

The worldwide Israeli heritage.

Israel's destiny now lies in our hands. It is the elephant in the room. For good or worse. It is the question mark, and sign of our time. Especially in the media. The Magog prophecies tell it will be destroyed. It also tells it will return some generations after. It is the biblical progression of our time which must be answered by repentance to God, and a return to the worldwide Judeo-Christian humanistic values and traditions NOW, or else there will be a third world war.

All must inherit Israel's knowledge, history, and blessings as a one world united. As a common cultural-historical heritage. Noahide laws. Love and light. Jews, and Christians must come together. A new crusade must begin: Bringing the gospel back to where it started: Israel. I recommend you read my book: God Jesus, Lucifer and the ritual of the cross explained. God speaks this to prophets from all over the world, and Chinese Christians are especially supportive of this last crusade.

Will YOU do your duty, and run your marathon? It would be better to stand up before war breaks out and embrace the revival-renaissance. The world will inevitably be one, and the Jews stand firm in belief that Israel will be the global centre. If we were to choose a global culture, what could be richer, and more humanistic than the Judeo-Christian values of the Noahide?

Embrace the everlasting culture and save your own at the same time. This road can't go wrong. You can be a nationalist, and an Israelite at the same time. Israel is a nationalist country themselves! Start wearing hats. That alone should solve the "immigration problems".

We must be a stronghold, and outpost on the moralistic end of the gap between us, and the heathen outpost. I deem both conservatives, and liberals as necessary for balanced equilibrium as we need both for the survival of Graeco-roman UN humanistic values, and a world safe from medieval Islam. God bless the faithful Jews. I tend to support those living in Israel, not those who live in America.

We must all build villages for preservation of national colours, cultivation of national culture, and preservation of our religion's history, traditions, ethics, morale, chivalry, and primarily enlightening knowledge. Our goal is to obtain all knowledge, and then distribute it freely to the masses. The mission of those called to this is living the monastic, godly life of goodness, caring, loving and evangelizing.

Their mission is social-anthropology, entrepreneurship, getting rich, building the kingdom as described in our objectives, starting churches, civilizing, and enlightening.

God is clear in his word. The lost tribes will come back, and I here have them all identified after years of research:

Respective tribes by nation and birthdate.

As believed by Yair Davidyi ad HebrewNations.com

Ephraim – Britain.

Manasseh – USA.

Reuben – France.

Simeon – Scattered – Yet we know of Wales and Eire

Levi – Scattered with the Sephardim, Mizrahi, and Ethiopians Jews who guard their supposed arc of the covenant. Some say African Lemba tribe Jews, and Nigerian Ibo Jews.

Jehudah – Sephardim, and Mizrahi Jews, perhaps some of the previously mentioned African Jews, the royals of the Priory of Europe, and Teutonic Knights, as well as the royalty of Japan as seen through their relic mirror Hebrew letters. European noble families with crests of lions are generally believed to be related to King David.

Issachar – Swiss and Fins.

Zebulon – Netherlands.

Gad – Sweden.

Asher – Ireland.

Benjamin – With the Jews.

Dan – Danes, Celts and America. (Red, and white are Dan`s colours.)

Naphtali – Norwegians.

That`s right! We Norwegians are Naphtali. The week I was adopted into the family by two Swedish Jews who revealed I was called into Judaism as Naphtali, God spoke clearly to me in visions showing me how the Viking-ships of Jewish tribes sailed North. He showed me how these Danes knew of their Israeli tribal heritage, and that God blessed them as they dedicated their land to their tribe. I also saw more deer that week than in any other in my life, and my alternative parents can confirm this. The deer is the sacred animal to Naphtali. I am from the tribe of Naphtali and Judah.

It is written that in the last days all tribes shall be gathered again.

The only plausible meaning is that there will be a ONE CHRISTIAN WORLD!
The new Jerusalem.

Chapter 7. Correcting controversy surrounding God`s sacred names.

This will be a blockbuster chapter that might irritate or cause misunderstanding if not read all the way through. I delve into the wildly debated subject of God`s real name, which to me was a doctoral study. I myself have found peace in calling God for "Yahovah", which IS his real name in rabbinic literature, while others might disagree. When delving so deep into this subject, I decided it necessary to expand and touch upon many other revelations of importance that I found along the way. While most of this book is regular Christian literature, this specific chapter might be considered blockbusting.

The majesty, name, and nature of God.

God is one: He is the God of the Gods (of the ancient Canaanites). The God of Elohim, Elohim meaning God in plural or "Gods." The Yahweh Elohim of Israel: The God of all the Gods (angels.) The God of All the planets/co-creators/archons. Isis is Venus and moon, Ra is Sun and Jupiter, and El is Saturn. Israel. God is Yahweh Elohim of Israel!

Jehovah is akin to the Greek Jove, equivalent to the roman Zeus, and is an unsuitable name for God, as we will discover...

Yahweh Elohim=Jupiter Saturn= matter and time, life and death etc. The Y also represent the male God with horns. Y also translates to God in Hebrew.

While hawah or hovah can mean Eve (the spouse of Adam) the divine feminine. So, Jehovah implies that God is both the divine masculine, and the divine feminine.

If you ask a Jew what Jehovah means he will tell you that it translates to "he who is." Yeshua translates to Jehovah saves.

And Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh translates to "I am that I am." If you take the Hebrew letters for God (YHWH the tetragrammaton), and stack them downwards, you get the symbol of a man. So, God is a humanoid, that`s for sure, and we are made in His image.

The tetragrammaton is the symbol for YHWH/Jehovah and is the pentagram. The pentagram represented all that is to the ancients. So, God is an everlasting, androgynous humanoid, and the superconscience of all (planetary) Gods, and the entire universe. That is why the Jews have the seven-lampstand Hanukkah. It resembles the seven planets. This was well known to ancient Jews as we see through Mazzaroth findings in ancient synagogues. God is the mono. The one. The all, and still above all things. Why is Judaism set-apart from pagan religions? Because they worship the God above the zodiac and planets. God is the all, and all is ONE. But he is not Hell, which is the DAATH in the Abrahamic Kabbalah tree of life (dimensions of his presence throughout the (coin) the term "universe" or multiverse).

God's presence is all life, and it's ultimate expression is reproduction, which is the purpose of life. When man, and female become one, they become God/creating a new baby.

We are all part of this ONE spirit that New-Agers call the Source-Field. You might say that love is the all, but it is when we combine it with intellect/light/holiness that we reach ascension. The two divine aspects of man that distinguish us from chimpanzees. Our brains/light and heart/love/compassion. Combine them, and you get: Morale!

Short regarding Hell.

So, if God is all, then what is Hell, or the under-verse/death/sheol? Speaking strictly scientific: It is energy that failed to transmute itself towards ascension through light/holiness: The will of the creator.

It is negative/dead energy, So, Hell is energy that the Source-Field (God/All/Superconscience) deleted because it wasn't holy. Evil exists only for God to judge it. That is the philosophical "problem of evil" solved. If not: God would not be holy, good and righteous. Thus, this is the most perfect of all possible worlds. Because God is perfect, God also has to judge. We are however a problem... And WE created Hell. Hell might be the inner dimension of souls who were unholy. These souls burn, or see their life replayed as they experience their deleted files (sins) over, and over again as many Near Death Experience (NDE) account. Hell can also be entire timelines, or timeline-dimensions. There is MUCH more to it, but we will save that for now.

The development of the Israeli religion.

Historical sources, and even the Bible speak of how the Israelites gradually moved from being polytheistic worshippers of Egyptian Gods, to Phoenician-Canaanite monolatry of El worship (that there is one supreme God El, but other Gods as well) before their supreme Gods El, Baal, and Asherah were all incorporated into the Yahweh figure which was the tribal God of the Jews.

This was greatly due to the Prophets, and God`s hand, and was God`s plan from the beginning ever since Abraham and Moses.

But Jehovah monotheism really never took hold. The Israelites went back, and forth between monolatry/henonism and monotheism right up til the time of Jesus.

The prophets, Levites, and priests were advocates for monotheism while the Israelites including Judah, and the rest of Canaan always fell back into polytheism, and other horrendous practices like child-sacrifice which even King Manasseh of Judah performed right before the Babylonian exile only 600 years before Christ!!! God punished the people of Israel for their barbarism. Infanticide was common among all ancient cultures, killing disabled and/or female babies, if your family was dependant upon birthing a male child, and could not sustain more females. Many of the families who birthed such children were seen as cursed, and some excuse Hebrew sacrifice to Baal for the abovementioned reasons.

So, the monotheistic religion we have today wasn`t fully developed until after the Babylonian exile, after which Jesus came along, and revealed that the current Judaism wasn`t so right after all and COMPLETED religion...!

God`s name?

I will present to you all I found on all angles both for, and against all names of God Jehovah.

There is a conspiracy among afro-centrist groups in America to re-invent the Jewish language, claiming something as staggering as:

“Ancient Hebrew didn`t have vowel points so they had no spoken vowels.”

But how come all early Biblical literature like the Greek Septuagint Bible/Tanakh, translated in the 2nd century by 60 Jews have the E sound of Elohim, Eloah, AmEn etc?

These dumb afrocentrists strictly believe that there exists a conspiracy in Judaism to cover up God`s real name. They proclaim God`s name is "Yahuah" and that Jesus name is Yahusha as according to the books by Rav Sha`ul from Sabbath Covenant, and others. This has divided the body of Christ immensely, and is absolute heresy. Why would a group of 60 Jewish scribes along with the rest of the Jewish community conspire to cover up the name of their own God? If so, assuming that such a claim is anti-Semite, the reason would be that all the Jews were corrupt Satanists, which doesn`t make sense.

Why follow strict Torah law to go to Heaven, but then change God`s name? Would not that be the greatest of heresies? If so; why would they be Jewish in the first place? It doesn`t make any sense from any angle.

The idea of "God`s name" is a stupid idea in itself. I bet even Jesus, and the devil has no clue what he calls himself! The "name" of the infinite creator beyond this Earth`s inception, lightyears beyond our lowly language? What stupidity, or heresy to argue over God`s name!

If you were the omnipotent all-father of everything, would you care to brand yourself by a lowly name, or what stupid people on a lowly plane would call you??? You would simply say, "I am that I am", or "I am all, look around you, worship me, and learn from the signs I created in nature, the laws of your world. For I am a God of law. " And thus Moses made the law. He was a great prophet. He went many a mile away from Egyptian polytheism and united the Hebrews under truth in monotheism. That`s the very IDEA behind Judaism. Monotheism. Prior to Judaism, Zoroastrianism was the only monotheistic religion.

The very idea of a name is to describe a thing. Can you describe God with one name? Truly I tell you! The very idea of worship is to describe him! To better name him: The infinite one! God does not have a name. God is infinite worship of all good that is, naming him through endless praise!

Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh – I am that I am.

There is much controversy on the internet regarding the name of God, and nothing has divided the body of Christ more in recent times.

Did you know the sacred name of G-d is Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh – wrongly pronounced "Ehyeh", and "AhhYah" without vowels, and "Eh-heyeh Asher Eh-heyeh" with vowels. Hauah Hu Hauah is used by some Hebrew websites. You see. There is just ENDLESS confusion about this on the internet. This is the first, and only time God reveals himself by name. It is Jewish custom that the first mention of something is always the true.

Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh is the true name of God in the Bible, given to Moses at the burning bush. Exodus 3. It's translated into "I am that I am", or more often "I am".

It is also the highest name of God in the kabbalah. Google up Kether. It says Ehyeh. The Jews have several names for God, all in its own right, and order, as you see in the sephiroth. God is too big to be under one name, as he is omnipotent, and omnipresent.

Ehyeh = I am. Asher is not Marduk or Ashur, but Ashera, the Caananite queen of Heaven who was the wife of Yahweh throughout all Israels pagan history until she was incorporated into Him. In other words, THAT, is referring to the universe we are inside of. The I Am that I AM is the life within the THAT, which is female (shekinah). What it really says is:

1) GOD, the first I AM

2) That, Material Universe, space, akasha. (Gaia, Sophia, mother Earth)

3) Second, I AM, all Creations, God within Creations (The body is the Temple of the Lord) As with Yahweh. God is a human.

Did you understand??? This name is a great secret to both Jews and gentiles. Keep it holy.

God's name is Yahovah/Jehovah.

Conspiracy-theorist Christians confuse the body through claiming that Jehovah should actually be pronounced Yahuah, Eloah as Alah, Elohim as Alahim, and Ehyeh as Ahayah.

Yet even scholars would tell you that God's name has been lost in history due to "Jews considering it too holy to use", and has thus 22 guess names.

Nehemia Gordon, a famous TV personality, author and Karite Hebrew-speaking Jew with a master in Biblical studies explains in his books and interviews how he bought all Jewish books known to history in digital format. These varied from letters to books from the last 2000 years and counted over 100.000. He did an amazing job in finding the lost secret ritual where the Rabbi would whisper the name YaHoVaH into the ears during a great ceremony. This ritual of transferring the knowledge of God's name was consistent throughout all Jewish settlements and ages, and the name was Yahovah. He concluded: Neither the ritual of telling the name, nor the name itself changed for over 1600 years. This makes sense, the Jews being overly traditional and ritualistic. And then you have the rest of the proof. Yahuah defenders state there was no vowels in ancient Hebrew, but the 2nd century Greek Septuagint Bible, the first "Bible" that we know, have all the vowel sounds including E and I. This Septuagint was written by SIXTY Jewish scholars: How could they all be wrong?

It is time we bury the name-game forever: God's name is Yahovah.

Phenophoric names are names that include the name of the tribal God. These heretics will then say: Look at the phenophoric names of the Biblical characters, names still in use like "NetanYahu", claiming that because God's name is rendered as Yahu, then God's name is Yahuah. Well. Yahuah is one of the 22 guess names of the tetragrammaton, and why jump to the conclusion that names accurately depict the name of God? Letters in names are known to change and jump around in the centuries, but the name Yahovah/Jehovah remains the same, as is evident. And why would there be phenophoric names with Yah?

Yet conspiracy nuts will say: Yah means God and Hovah means destruction! No, Jehovah translates to "he who is." And if so God is a God of destruction, how about the claim that Ea, the Babylonian God who saved mankind from the flood is Yah, because they are pronounced the same? And what about Dog being God read backwards? And Love being "evol/evil" read backwards? As I said earlier, the name of God doesn't have the greatest importance. Hebrew names are descriptions or epithets, character-traits. The same is the case with Jehovah/Yahovah, "he who is" or "self-existent". I could not come with better names for the eternal all-father that something along those lines. Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh or Yahovah.

The Tetragrammaton.

The names Yahweh and Jehovah, are a part of the Tetragrammaton, often used by Jehovah's Witnesses, which was created, or rediscovered in 1270 and 1725 by two Catholic Monks. The tetragrammaton is an upward pentagram: symbol of elements. But was originally a triangle in the 12th century. YHWH is a numerological triangle in magick art! Thus, the all-seeing eye of God, and the Christian holy trinity! And don't forget it forms a human body when read downwards! Is God a man, a trinity, a pentagram, the elements, some magick Talmudical, and Babylonian mystery, or the periodic table for that matter? Does it matter? God IS all.

But some say these are Idols. Idols are forbidden. Idols which were invented in Babylon under a conspiracy to taint God's name? Or to perfect it? Is Judaism violating the Torah, replacing it with their evil oral tradition of mystery Babylon, Talmud, Kabbalah or Kaaba-Allah and the pharisees early Mihnah?

YHWH has 22 guess names in the tetragrammaton. This is the tetragrammaton that Jews, and Jehovah's Witnesses worship!

The tetragrammaton is an upward pentagram, a symbol of the elements – of nature. They didn't know how to pronounce it. The pentagram is frankly the symbol of YHWH. If one worships the elements, one may as well worship the periodic table? Not really.

The upward pentagram is not a Satanic symbol and symbolizes the fifth element: Ether. It also symbolizes spirit conquering matter and ascension from the material while a DOWNWARD pentagram symbolizes the opposite, is a Satanic symbol, and also symbolize the goat-horns or Baphomet. Or does it simply mean that God is the "all"? That's the aim of the Hebrew YHWH as well as Yahweh Elohim, Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh and "God of Israel"! Anyways.

The 22 guess-names for YHWH.

Yahueh (ya-hu-eh)

lahueh (i-a-hu-eh)

Yahuah (ya-hu-ah)

lahuah (ia-hu-ah)

Yahevahe (yah-e-va-he) lahevahe (ia-he-va-he)

Yohwah (yoh-wah)

lohwh (i-oh-wah)

Yohweh (yoh-weh)

lohweh (i-oh-weh)

Yahwah (yah-wah)

lahwah (i-ah-wah)

Yehwah (yeh-wah)

lehwh (i-eh-wah)

Yehweh (yeh-weh)

lehweh (i-eh-weh)

Yahweh (yah-weh)

lahweh (i-ah-weh)

Yahwe (yah-we) lahwe (i-ah-we)

Yahohewah (yah-o-he-wah)

lahohewah (i-a-ho-he-wah)

Yahuwah (ya-hu-wah)

lahuwah (i-a-hu-wah)

Yahveh (yah-veh)

Yehveh (yeh-veh)

Yahohevah (yah-o-he-vah)

Jove (ho-ve) (The GREEK equivalent for Zeus!!!)

Jehovah (je-ho-vah)
 lehovah (i-eh-ho-vah)

These are not actually different names, but various English forms or transliterations of the one same name that is found in the Hebrew as represented by the four Hebrew letters.

Critics would say: The tetragrammaton is the symbol of the elements, earth, and not Heaven! Really? And they say: The letters themselves make the image of a man! Is God a man? Yes. Was the tabernacle in the desert, and Solomon's temple built according to the anatomy of a man? Yes. God is a man, and you are his perfect child.

The name Yahweh and Jehovah.

One other popular variant is of the 22 guess names of the tetragrammaton is Yahweh, which is probably wrong. Yahweh was probably Roman for Jehovah... The name YHWH is utterly exceptional in many ways, including the fact that we don't know how to pronounce it (if it contains of only vowels, it may have sounded like: AAEEIIIOUU!!). The ancient Hebrew text consisted only of consonants, since the Hebrew alphabet had no written vowels. Vowel signs were introduced as dots placed over letters to designate them vowel or consonant invented by the Jewish Masoretic scholars in the sixth century Israel and later, inspired by the Yiddish community of askenazi Jews in Europe.

That the Jews have used vowels in their daily language is undisputable. The Jews themselves, the Hebrew language science, the Greek Septuagint Old Testament (150 BC), and archaeological findings confirm the ancient Hebrews used vowels in their daily language. Of course, they used vowels. Don't tell me 70 Jews translated the Old Testament (5 books of Moses) into Greek to destroy God's name on purpose through changing scripture and creating an E sound in Elohim instead of Alahim.

That's right. The translation of the Tanakh and Torah into the Greek Septuagint (Bible in the 3rd century), along with all original Greek manuscripts had the E sound, COMPLETELY shatting the Ahayah, Yahuah, Alahim and Yahusha theory.

But afro-centrist conspiracy-nuts claim: Why did they so much later invent dots in their alphabet to add vowels to consonants? Why you say? Because there was basically no E, J or I in any language. Conspiracy theorists claim that ancient Hebrews before, and after Christ had no E, J or I, etc, and that Jehovah, Yeshua, and Elohim must have been Yahuah, Yahusha, and Alahim. Unscientific, rubbish. Ask the Jews before making conclusions. And Jew or historian will laugh at you, for ALL historians know that Jews, and the rest had vowels in their spoken language.

Because of this Yahuah heresy: Millions of Christians in mostly African-centrist Churches in America believe you cannot be saved unless you use the correct name which they believe is Yahuah.

The Jews say that that YHWH was derived from the verb that is used to make I AM, namely היה (haya), meaning to be or to become, or rather from an older, and arcaic form, and rare synonym of haya, namely הוה, hawa, hence y-hawa or yahwah.

Yahwah sounds similar to haya and hawa. The y means God. Yet Hawah is the mystical name for Eve. Together y-hawa becomes God AND Goddess. Another proof that the ancient Israelites saw their God as the ALL.

Is God a female? Or is he the moon God Sin of Sin-ai? Or Yah the moon-God of the Egyptians? Or the star-sprangled Shu as in Yeshua of the Egyptians? No god is the ALL. That's the entire point. There were many El's, and many Yah's of many cultures before, and during Israel/Canaan. But the idea is that he is the ETERNAL I AM. Note the I. It stands for ONE.

The alphabet is ingenious. They did not need vowels, as the readers understood each word in context to the greater whole of the text. One Hebrew word can mean a lot of different things. I wish I had the time, and brains to learn to speak it.

A deep study of Elohim and God.

The New Testament teaches us Eli/Elahi is the word Jesus used for God on the cross. There it is, in the original Greek Septuagint, the E-sound. ELI as in Yahweh or Jehovah. Completely shattering the Yasha Ahayah theory. Matthew 27:46:

This is frankly the only time God is mentioned in the New Testament in Aramaic/Hebrew. The Greek authors otherwise use the Greek "Kyrios/Lord" whenever referring to God.

Eloah, and El is an ancient Phoenician, Aramaic, and Hebrew word for a God. It can mean any God, but most often relates to Jehovah when used in the Bible.

Elohim is the FIRST name for God in the bible. Elohim is plural for Eloah in Hebrew, which means strong one. Elohim means God in plural! The Angels! So Yahweh Elohim means Yahweh of the EL's! Yet El was originally a Phoenician, and Canaanite God of death! Saturn. El. EL means God. The "El's / Gods / sons of God / angels" of pre-Judaic times became a group of Gods now rebranded into Christian angels as in Israel's ArchangEL MichaEL, GabriEL etc: Modern renditions of ancient Gods. They originated and remain planetary forces – messengers singing the song of Heaven. (The stars above the Earth and the planets emit sound, and are oscillating, as if they are singing.)

When God created the world in Genesis 1, it's God in plural, Elohim, the archonic forces, angels, or perhaps even the fallen angels who created the universe...!!! WOW! So, I'm telling the Bible, and Israeli religion originated as pagan Phoenician religion? Yes. The Phoenician deities (sons of El/Saturn/Chronos/Anu/Atum Re etc) of pre-bible creation myths, lesser Gods, god the highest's right hand, or hired carpenters of God most High, created the universe. It was Elohim who created the universe according to Moses. But who created the Elohim? Jehovah. The father of the beginnings.

The Sumerian Enki would be the serpent in the garden story, gene-modifying man. (DNA is the serpent entwined in a tree.) The creation story is a brilliant pictograph text of archaic pre-biblical myths coming from the walls of Egypt and Sumeria. The fiery, flying serpent (seraphim) and Cherubim came from Egyptian iconography as a guardian of God's and the Pharaoh's throne. The Cherubim are not real beings, but an allegory for the 4 fixed signs of the Mazzaroth/Zodiac. Lion, Serpent, Bull and Eagle. Their eyes are the stars.

Remember: The patriarch Abraham came from Ur in Sumeria. Enki created man in the image of the Anunnaki to serve as slaves but felt compassion for his creation. It was allegedly Enki (the serpent) who saved mankind from the flood according to pre-Abrahamic religions. It was allegedly Enki who was both God in the garden, and the serpent according to pre-Abrahamic religions...

Are we, and our world the Elohim/Angels/Gods, or perhaps even Satan's creation, and did we not become God's children until Jesus sacrifice? Read my book "Jesus, and the ritual of the cross explained."

I say the Nephilim giants were erased during the flood of Noah, while the remaining few were gradually hunted down and defeated in China, South America, North America, Scandinavia, Europe, and of course: The Middle East.

It is only MANKIND that was saved by Jesus sacrifice. AD introduced the first time MANKIND were kings over Earth. AD represents an INFINITELY small period of time when MAN had the chance to create Jehovah's intended Kingdom of God. BC was a time ruled by giants for at least 400.000 years according to the Babylonian Kings-List of the Enuma Elish.

But why should not the Bible be true, and the Babylonian Enuma Elish be false in favour of those who served these pagan Gods? Moses was an Egyptian high priest, and prince after all! We don't know if the Egyptians had tales about the garden of Eden OLDER than the pre-mentioned Babylonian Enuma Elish, where Enki (Satan) is the hero.

Why would God call us his children in personal intimate relationships as all Christians report? There is something very sacred about the human nature, Homo Sapiens. It must not be altered now that Jesus has saved us. But I warn you. The Babylonian Kings List is not over until we defeat the New World Order Babylon. Or else the Nephilim will return and rule us for another million years.

The Bible tells a myth of a true tale of how God really did create a chosen people through rescuing, and defending them out of Egypt, and into the promised land either by divine intervention, or by some angels acting on God's behalf. Perhaps it was the Elohim? The angels?

The Elohim operate in series of creations like for instance the architect explains in the movie "The Matrix. " They always retell the same stories. But Jesus was prophesied about in the Great Pyramid, and a great happening. The REAL messiah. You are pretty lucky to live in the Davidic Kingdom of A.D!

Long live the household of David! May God keep it pure.

Back to the point.

I say Elohim. Yet "El" is kinda pagan seen from a very old perspective. Some even go as far as to say Elohim is Allah because of the root noun, and Jesus saying "Elahi. " Doesn't bother me.

Elohim is God's forces: Planets: Archons: God in plural. El/Saturn and his sons, the old Gods, or planets which we re-termed into "angels". That's why we have Jupiter/Jove/Jehovah, and Saturn/Elohim: Yahweh Elohim: which is worship of the highest God as a composite God. Life and death. Matter and time.

Now. Yahweh/Jehovah wasn't always the God of the Hebrews. There is much priestly historic, and Tanakh evidence that testify this. The old El, or bull-el of the zodiacal age of Taurus (the sign of the Bull) became replaced by Yahweh, or Jupiter. The Israeli monotheism led by their prophets, and priesthood, may they rest in peace, evolved into a fantastic mystical religion which in turn lead to the messiah, and then: True Christianity which we have today!

There seems to be ample evidence in the biblical record to support the claim that as Yahweh become the supreme national deity of the Israelites, he began to usurp the imagery, epithets, and old cultic centres of the god El. This process of assimilation even morphed the linguistic meaning of the name El, which later came to mean simply "god," so that Yahweh was then directly identified as 'el—thus Joshua 22:22: "the god of gods is Yahweh" ('el 'elohim yhwah).

Some say Elohim is the God El of the Canaanites, Phoenicians and Akkadians, or Allah as many suggests. Islam basically takes Judeo-Christianity back to 6000 years ago. Back to the astrological age of Taurus. El was called Bull-El. A strong man was called a bull-man, or god-man. The Y or the hail hand-sign with the two middle fingers clutched originally represented God, and not the devil.

So, if El (Allah) was a pagan God from a pagan age. (As my magical experience testify.) Why do we have the word Elohim, and El with the Jews today? Why wasn't it abolished? Because El was the word they started using, just as our word God comes from worship of Odin. Still, our hearts direct worship, and prayers to the highest. Do you ask a Christian if he worships Odin?

Today we simply use the word "God", which means "good", and also comes from "Gott" which means God in Germanic – stemming all the way back to Indra worship in India. There is only one God, and one Son, as John 3:16 makes clear. How you express your love to God through naming him matters not as much as your heart, YET there is no salvation except through Jesus Christ.

But God won't listen unless through Jesus who tore the veil through El's lies and chains. El. An evil death-god of this realm of death. Saturn with the sickle. Saturn is always the mightiest God in all pantheons as we for instance see with Islam today. Have you ever felt the power of the moon + Saturn? Or the moon and Venus: The symbol of Baal? It's highly enriching! These are called the gateways to otherdimensional realms. This is why they sacrificed for their sins to God on a LUNAR sabbath, as to "reach Heaven", and sacrifice for their sins before all spiritual powers of this world, and also God. They had to purge themselves from sin. But Jesus the messiah fulfilled that law: All according to pyramid-prophecy plan: So, the promised world without death was fulfilled.

Remember, Saturday is not sabbath-day. It's heresy. The real biblical sabbath of Moses was originally determined by the phases of the moon. It's in the Bible.

The misunderstanding that EL is the God of the Jews has led to a heresy of human sacrifice in Judaism, as well as the birth of Islam as an opposition to the SUN cult Christianity. This are the Illuminati (sun), and the Luminari (moon) religions. The two ancient cults that go back tens-of-thousands of years.

Anyways. The Bible tells "The Gods in plural created the world. " The Elohim. "Let's make man in OUR image. " Were we visited by so called "aliens"?

The second time God reveals himself; he goes by the name "Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh", but it's the first, and only time God the Father in singular form gives His name in person! The third time God reveals his name is YHWH as in Genesis 13:16, and Revelations 13:16.

You can find the emanations of God/"I Am" down through the kabbalah sephiroth where only Ehyeh is the highest.

Yahwah Mar is also a name for God of which I will not go into, but it is used in combination with archangels for driving out demonic spirits as this is God's warrior aspect. Some say it ties into Marduk or Michael. Just another aspect of sun-god-warrior aspect.

Jews since the the time of the 6th century recon God's name too holy to be used and call upon God in the Jewish term Adonai which means Lord, and Ha-shem which means "the name". Adonai also has female characteristics, as does el-shaddai which COULD mean female breasts. Elyon means most high, pronounced "Elyon" with vowels.

We always honour God as eternal, holy, and most high whenever we mention him in prayer. We always end our prayers with amen as it is properly pronounced. Some say this means Amen Ra, the Egyptian God. It simply translates to "let it happen". One could also interpret it as claiming Amen Ra (Lucifer), the former God of this world (before Jesus) as witness to our prayer to The Great Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh.

We believe in (Ehyeh) Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh, Jehovah/Yahweh, Elohim, and then Elahi, Elyon, Adonai, and ha-shem are the most sacred names for God raging from first to last. Express them how you like. It's the heart that matters.

Our church uses first, and foremost Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh when declaring something important in church over nations, or when setting out on a journey etc. Whenever praising, praying, or healing we use the names God leads us to, primarily Jesus as is biblical. We believe the abovementioned names are the sovereign, universal names of God the Christians, Jews, Muslims, and the rest of the world ought to worship. We believe Allah, or El can be regarded the same as Elah/Elahi. And most Christian Muslims still use the name Allah for the Judeo-Christian God.

The Shekinah.

We believe God is the one, holy, omnipotent, and omnipresent creator father of the thirteenth Heaven, and all lesser realms. Science declare the works of his hands, and miracles support the fact he is omnipotent.

We know for a fact that Jesus is the second Adam – son of God, as his blood only had 23 chromosomes as Ron Wyatt, and my Turin Shroud genetic research discovered...

He was miraculously incepted: The son of God. Jesus told me this personally. This was who Jesus TRULY was!!! Adam! A NEW CREATION! Since he was Adam (the Shekinah), he could act as the oversoul, and his sacrifice brought us all free from sin. We believe Jesus was foretold in the Heavenly Scroll. (The Mazzaroth) More on this later.

We believe Jesus was the Great Oversoul, the most powerful aspect of the shekinah. Shekinah is the belief in the divine feminine who fell from Heaven, and created life on Earth as a result of it (trapped inside herself as part of all of us) called mother earth, whom have many names for like for instance the gnostic-Christian Sophia, the Anatolian Cybele (Black Madonna), the Greek Aphrodite, the goddess Ishtar/Astarte, and Babylonian Semiramis which was adopted into Virgin Mary worship in the Catholic Church.

We deny the Jewish belief of shekinah, and I can myself testify that it is the powerful dangerous presence felt by Muslims, Jews, and heathens' religions. God is a man. It is still one of the presences of God felt on the Earth, but ties to easily into witchcraft which we will discover in two chapters.

There is no salvation in shekinah. Google shekinah. We also believe we can be filled with the anointing of Jesus, God, archangels, saints, and of course the Holy Ghost. I have experienced anointing from people, and this is both biblical, and common in Pentecostal churches. This is from personal, certain magical experience as I have the gift of discerning spirits and know what sin is.

Never call upon angels, ascended masters, or archangels if you don't know what you do. We have no such practice in church. Perhaps the next shekinah oversoul will be the messiah Ben David? David had red, curly hair, red cheeks, and was very feminine in appearance and character.

We believe we are baptized by water, the Holy Ghost, AND fire as is Biblical. We don't know what this fire is, but know it represents the purity and strength. We only pray, and address God as father, as he is never mentioned as a she in the Bible.

The Jews sometimes pray to the shekinah which is pagan heresy! It is never mentioned in the Bible although El-shaddai, and Adonai has female characteristics. We believe that one should not praise the shekinah glory in worship or call it down as this is what magi call "the force", as this is God's innate power in every one of us, and not God himself. We are not to utilize the force of Earth, but only the creator.

As an unwillingly gifted sensitive person, I know how easy it is for all the church's souls to merge with fallen aspects of the shekinah like for instance the Goddess Astarte, or Circe/Church during worship. This is what witches would call upon to desecrate worship: both whom are a Babylon The Great. Witches love the shekinah heresy and sing Isus (Isis) instead of Jesus. Be careful as the body of Christians often merge under the worship. Having no shekinah worship is to protect us and prevent this. It is time for strict, orthodox liturgy. Back to the Bible. God is a MAN!

No shekinah! Verily I say! No shekinah! But if the shekinah falls, then it's ok.

The name Jesus.

Jesus comes from Greek Iesu. Christos, or Christ means the anointed one, or the crucified. The New Testament was written in Greek. Greek was the dominant language in Israel. But Jesus, and disciples certainly spoke Aramaic/Hebrew. The pharisees were a cult that followed a pre-babylonian form of the Hebrew alphabet called Paleo-Hebrew. The Aramaic/Hebrew spelling of Jesus would be Yeshua... Yeshua translates to "Yahweh/Yahovah saves" from Hebrew.

The Greek-roman-Jewish para-mythological demiurge/god: Jupiter (Roman) / Jove "Jovee" (Greek) / and Jehovah (Israelite) have similar names. And the ancient Greek alphabet was identical to the ancient paleo-Hebrew alphabet.

Is Zeus another name for God???

Jesus is likened to many deities in his very name. In this regard: the roman Zeus in comparative mythology. Jesus is spelled He-sus which can mean "hail Zeus", or "Healing Zeus". G-zeus (Jesus), and Ea-zeus which translates to "healing Zeus" (Iesus, and Iesus). It doesn't matter as God is God anyways.

I think it is cool.

His name Immanuel means "El/God with us" and is spelled "i-maw-noo-ale" if you use vowels. This is strangely his real name. Many Jews would say "Jesus" is pagan. Immanuel is the first mention of His name, and thus also his truest name according to Judaic custom of sacred scripture. Some say this means "Allah with us".

The dispute regarding Jehovah.

In Exodus 6:3 God says by his true name he was not known to Abraham, yet in all modern translations it's the same name that appears in Genesis. The name Ehyeh was given to Moses in Exodus.

The consensus among scholars is that the historical vocalization of the Tetragrammaton at the time of the completion of the Torah (6th century BCE) is most likely Yahweh.

The historical vocalization was lost because in Second Temple Judaism, during the 3rd to 2nd centuries BCE, the pronunciation of the Tetragrammaton became illegal, being substituted with Adonai ("my Lord"). The Hebrew vowel points of Adonai were supposedly added to the Tetragrammaton by the Masoretes, and the resulting form was transliterated around the 12th century as Yehowah. The derived forms Iehouah and Jehovah first appeared in the 16th century.

Wikipedia also states that the Jews probably used Yahweh as the name for God before the redaction of the Torah. My own research, and my faith in Jewish scholarship did however point to that they used Jehovah... Why would they change the name???

Because Jehovah is disputable.

When dissected in the Hebrew, the true definition of Jehovah (Yah-Hovah) is revealed. "Yah" means "god", stemming from a pagan moon-god-goat. "Hovah" translates to "eagerly coveting, falling, desire, ruin, calamity, iniquity, mischief, naughtiness, noisome, perverse, very wickedness." Noisome means it stinks. Some scholars say hovah means love though, but it doesn't. Others say hovah became a word derived from Jehovah, as to mock God, as with common swear-words. Anyways:

Jeh-Hovah: the suffix “hovah” is No. 1943 in Strong's Hebrew Dictionary and has the meaning of “ruin, mischief.” It is another form of No. 1942, ‘havvah’, which is translated “calamity, iniquity, mischief, mischievous (thing), naughtiness, naughty, noisome, perverse thing/substance, very wickedness.” Put the two (Je + hovah) together and you get “God of ruin, mischief, calamity, perversion, and wickedness”. Although it mostly translates to calamity/destruction. That certainly put the F back in fear of God! No wonder the Israelites were so feared by the neighbouring tribes! Imagine them shouting: “The God of destruction is descending upon us!” We often forget God as a mighty warrior and fearful God, but this was not the case in Israel's bloody history.

Some say Yahweh is the egyptian moon god Yah, and a sky/thunder god, as well as being the goat god Yah of the philistine city of Gad. Others say Yah is Ea/Yah the Babylonian version of the Sumerian God Enki, the serpent in the garden.

The God “Yah” also has a_lot_of similarities with the Babylonian Marduk, and many other deities like Zeus and Jove/Jupiter. Ergo the popular modern Yahweh Mar. God is the composite highest ruler of all things: Yahweh Elohim.

PS! Jehovah, Yahweh, Yahuah, Yahusha, and Ehyeh all drive out demons, so it seems God likes you calling him these things.

The Bible says the heathens reckoned Jehovah as a mountain god too, and according to Jordan Maxwell – Jehovah is the expression of the releasing of dynamic force, i.e a sexual act, like a volcano but you can't trust Jordan.

In masonic lore: Jehovah is anyhow strikingly similar to a composite of Canaanite El, Asherah and Baal, the Greek Zeus, and especially the Babylonian Marduk. That is why the Freemasons call God YahBulOn. On means SUN/LIGHT.

YHWH = Family of El: Yam, Hadad, and Mot – among the most important Canaanite Gods. The other H is probably Horus.

There is overwhelming historic evidence that Yah, and possibly Jehovah was a pagan name.

The oldest Hebrew scripture: the dead-sea scrolls use the name YHWH. It is the earliest account of God's name! Still the Greek 2nd century New Testament do not use the name Adonai, YHWH, Yahweh, or Jehovah only 3 centuries later. Not ONCE. It only appears in Rev.13:16 in relation to Exodus 13:16 in relation to EVIL. They use the name Kyrie. Those who have understanding!

What happened? It seems the first Christians might have believed Judaism was too corrupt. Perhaps the Christians did not worship Jehovah at all? Perhaps they equated Jehovah with the goat-god Yah, the Greek Jove, the Babylonian Ea or Marduk, and belonged to a more ancient religion Jesus taught them??? The eternal religion.

The original, Greek New Testament use the word Kyrie for God. They don't use Jehovah! That is something we all too often forget. There is little evidence the 1st century Christians worshipped YHWH. But they used kyrie. Some say that when Jesus says "I Am", it refers to that he worshiped Ehyeh, and not Jehovah. But they are the same from the root "hawa" which means self-existent. So Jehovah can mean "He who is", but also "God of destruction, wickedness and perversion."

Did YHWH simply become Jehovah as they inserted the vowels of Adonai? Jews probably went: Yeah! The powerful God of ruin and mischief!!!

We can see that those who baptize in the name Jehovah might be baptizing their converts into the names of gods of ruin and perversity. Yah-hovah= God of hovah/pestilence and destruction.

Still we believe it is a sanctified name of God meaning "he who exists", as much evidence suggests, although I must say: "it was a poor choice of words.". I have barely ever heard of anyone healed in Jehovah's name, or of angels saying they come from Yahweh in NDE. I have never heard of anyone healed in any other name but Jesus. And when did Allah heal anyone?

In my research of near-death-experiences, I found it strange that Jesus always says the same: "I am the God Most High of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob." Jesus never says Yahweh or Jehovah in any NDE. I thought I should just mention this.

Still: Rest certain there is a human-looking supreme "I AM" up there, for millions know him, and all major religions basically testify this.

In the sephiroth: YHWH, and ELOHIM is God of lesser Heavenly realms. But I've never studied it.

The Yasha-Ahayah theory.

We have discovered that the Jews, and historians agree with 100% certainty that God's name from Biblical times until today was not Yahuah, but Jehovah or Yahovah to be strict, and that the body of Christ must not be split, and further divided. Jesus, Jehovah, Yahweh, and Elohim are all names for God. Still there are those who insist the ENTIRE Jewish legacy is wrong, and that they ALL conspired to keep God's name hidden from us. I used to believe such a thing when I was younger and will mention it here so you get an overview over the supposed names.

The Yasha-Ahayah Bible (which I own) says the following regarding Jesus, and God's name:

The whole world has been deceived! Revelation 12:9

You are praying to the wrong pagan gods! You are reading from a corrupted Bible.

GOD is the common Teutonic word for a personal object of religious worship, applied to all the superhuman beings of the heathen mythologies!

There was no letter J 500 years ago, so Jehovah or Jesus cannot be their real names!

Yahweh cannot be His name either because there was no letter E, in ancient Hebrew.

Jeremiah 23:26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

Jeremiah 23:27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

The Holy Bible was purposely inserted with the various names of Baal: (El) The BULL.

Ezekiel 48:11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

If you see old documents or ancient artefacts that show YHWH the Tetragrammaton or other names of Baal used, it's because even the Children of Israel and the Levites went Astray and worshipped pagan gods! That is why the Bible is filled with Pagan Gods, it's very important to be reading a sacred name Bible with Ahayah in it.

Matthew 4:4 But he (Yasha) answered and said, it is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeded out of the mouth of Ahayah.

Every word of the scriptures are important, thats why you want an Antioch Bible over an Alexandrian one. You want to read clean scriptures, not filled with pagan names.

John 14:13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in MY NAME, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

His Father's name is Ahayah and His Son's name is YASHA! Reading a Bible with His Holy Names will help in prayer!

/ end Ahayah Bible quote.

Note: This is only half true. We know the Hebrew alphabet to be sacred writing as Ivan Panin discovered, and the spoken language WAS different, and had vowels. Just ask the any Hebrew professor.

Whatever. You decide yourself. Worship Yahweh, Ehyeh and just call Jesus for Jesus or Yeshua. After all: Jesus himself calls himself Jesus in near death experiences although Jesus is Greek/Latin and completely different from his original name Yeshua. He also calls himself "The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. "

Seven Names of God in Judaism.

The tradition of seven names of God is not new. In medieval Judaism, God was sometimes called The Seven. Among the ancient Hebrews, the seven names for the Deity over which the scribes had to exercise particular care were:

- El (One of the oldest names of a monotheistic God, dating at least as early as tablets found in Syria 2300 BC)
- Elohim ("Strong One" or "Lord Almighty")
- Adonai ("My Lord" and origin of the Greek name Adonis)
- Ehyeh-Asher-Ehyeh ("I am that I am")
- YHWH (Pronounced Yahweh or Jehovah depending on the 22 guess names of the tetragrammaton.)
- Shaddai ("Almighty" According to Exodus 6:2, 3, Shaddai was the name by which God was known to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.)
- Zebaoth ("Heavenly Host")

Seven Names of God in Christianity

Some Christians recognize seven names of God, often citing Psalm 23.

- YHWH-Yireh — "Yahweh will provide" (Genesis 22:13-14)
- YHWH-Rapha — "Yahweh that healeth" (Exodus 15:26)
- YHWH-Niss"i — "Yahweh our Banner" (Exodus 17:8-15)
- YHWH-Shalom — "Yahweh our Peace" (Judges 6:24)
- YHWH-Ra-ah — "Yahweh is the Way, my Shepherd" (Psalm 23:1)
- YHWH-Tsidkenu — "Yahweh our Righteousness" (Jeremiah 23:6)
- YHWH-Shammah — "Yahweh is the Light, ever present" (Ezekiel 48:35)

Conclusions regarding sacred names.

Dividing the body through postulating names does no good. I asked the Holy Spirit, and he calls for unity. And remember. It's the nature of God, and your intimate relationship to him that matters, not necessarily what you call him.

It's not the name, but the person behind the name that matters. The quality of God, and the historical Jesus. If you were to worship Jesus as Earth-Pig than that would be heresy, but if Jesus means the historical Jesus to you, then it's good, although the latin name Jesus translates to "earth-pig" or "earthly swine" in Latin.

Yahweh is good. Yahwah is good. These are the most popular and are certainly among the ancient pronounciations of the tetragrammaton.

Yahuah, the non-vowel variant is ok if that's what you're convinced of, and might very well be among the ancient pronounciations of the tetragrammaton.

Ahayah, a non-vowel variant of Ehyeh is ok as well. Atleast it contains Yah.

Jehovah is 98% certainly the right pronounciation, but somewhat disputable. It should be worth mentioning that the name of the Greek God Jove (Zeus), is similar to Jehovah and that the ancient Greeks and Hebrews shared the same proto-Hebraic alphabet at the time prior to the Babylonian exile...

Jesus, and Yeshua are both fantastic. The non-vowel Yahusha is ok.

Christos is ok. The Greeks used both the word "Messias" (as in Norwegian), and Christos for the Hebrew Mashiach (anointed). The word Christos was far more acceptable to the pagans who were already worshiping Chreston and Chrestos. Chrestos was a Greek name that meant "good."

According to Realencyclopedia, the inscription Chrestos is to be seen on a Mithras relief in the Vatican. According to Christianity and Mythology, Osiris, the sun-deity of Egypt was revered as Chrestos. In the synagogue of the Marcionites on Mount Hermon, built in the third century A.D., the Messiah's title is spelled Chrestos. According to Tertullian and Lactantius, the common people usually called Christ "Chrestos." The link between Jesus, and the Osirian mysteries are many, and explored in my book "Jesus, and the Ritual of the Cross explained."

Elohim is ok. It is plural Eloah, which means “strong one”.

The EL hypothesis: The Phoenician Supreme God EL = Saturn, God of death, harvest and time.

The Elohim was originally plural for his sons. The powerful forces of the Heavens – angels. Planets. The Old Gods. Archons. Whatever you want to call them. But it means something else today...

El is the Canaanite word meaning God or Devil. He was the chief God of the Canaanites, and the father of Baal, and the Baal's. He was himself a Baal. Baal means Lord. His consort was Asherah. Elohim is ok.

God is ok.

God is the common teutonic (old Germanic) word for an object of personal worship, and also applied to all superhuman beings of mythologies, and real-life. The word survived Christianization and became the word we use for God today.

Our word God comes from the Germanic word for good, gott, which might trace its origins from the indo-european word “invoked one”, “sacrificed to”, etc, which is for instance used in relation to the Hindu god Indra, God of thunder. We used the same word “God” long before Christianity. Does that mean we worship Odin? Not so much. The Persian word for God, “khoda”, is also quite similar to “God”.

But the spelling “God” was also used in ancient Canaan and Israel. Some say God comes from Gad the Syrian or Canaanite deity of good luck or fortune. In Hebrew it is written GD, but with Masoretic vowel-pointing it gives us “Gad”. The Jews of today are never allowed to write God, and always write is G-d. They are also not allowed to utter his name (Jehovah).

Gad is identified with Jupiter, the Sky-deity or the Sun-deity. The word “God” is a title, translating the Hebrew Elohim, El, and Eloah. However, it is often used as a substitute for the Tetragrammaton (YHWH).

I must also say that Gad was the goat-god Gad of the Philistine city of Gad, and that the chief among fallen angels in esoteric Judaism and Magick, the name for Satan himself is Gadrael, pronounced “Godrail” somewhat. Some say this is where we get the word “God” from, but is this the case? I believe not...

Adonai is ok... It means “sovereign”. It's the plural form of Adon, which means “lord”, in Hebrew. But it really comes from Adonis which is an ancient pagan Bull-god! The heathens prayed to “Adonai” as well! This has continued since the Babylonian exile.

El Shaddai is very good and means "all powerful". Shaddai also means female breasts. El Shaddai is described as having many female qualities in the Bible.

Amen The scriptural Hebrew word that means "so be it, " "verily" or "surely is".

So now I've been very kind to give you what I know. I personally use Yahweh for God.

Church

Church is ok, but there exists great controversy around it. This is the word used in most English versions as a rendering of the Greek "ekklesia". The Greek word means "a calling out, " "a meeting", or "a gathering. " Ekklesia is the Greek equivalent of the Hebrew qahal which means an assembly , or a congregation.

The origin of the word "church" is kuriakon or kyriakon in Greek. The meaning is a building. (The house of Kurios – the lord)

Dictionaries give the origin of "church" as the anglo-saxon root, circe. Circe was the goddess-daughter of Helios the sun-deity. The word circe relates to "circus", "circle", "circuit", and "circulate. " Theos is the Greek word for God. That's where we get theatre etc from. Church theatre. The church is a theatre. It's all it is today.

Circe was originally a Greek goddess whose name was written and pronounced as "Kirke" the same as it's pronunciation and writing in Norwegian. Kirke is the Norwegian word for Church.

Easter.

Pesach in Hebrew is Passover, Easter is Ishtar, (Semiramis, widow of Nimrod, mother of Tammuz) the name of the bare-breasted pagan fertility goddess of the east who came out of Heaven in a giant egg (or meteor) , landing in the Euphrates river at sunrise on the first Sunday after the vernal equinox, busting out turning a into an egg-laying rabbit. After that point in time the priest of Easter would sacrifice infants, and then take the eggs of Easter, and die them in the blood of the sacrificed infants.

Stay away from the Catholic system of Babylon the Great. I do condemn the pagan Yule or Christmas. I do condemn the pagan Easter. But are we pagans? No. While the Bible specifically condemns adorning trees, some say the Christmas tree represents the world tree or sephiroth, not the tree of Tammuz, or the phallus of Nimrod as in ancient Babylon. While pagans celebrate evil, we fight them through celebrating something good! Easter celebrates the death of Christ, not Ishtar. But it's wise to know.

In essence.

You see there's something very strange with religion. It seems to be a computer program primarily from Jupiter and Saturn! Perhaps Jupiter represents creation/matter, whereas Saturn symbolizes time/death. It is probably these two opposites that constitute the entire physical universe. Ergo they made it into Jehovah (Jupiter/Jove) Elohim (El/Saturn) of Israel. The God above the Gods, or the All, or the Great I am that I am. Isis, Ra, and El were the prime Gods of Egypt. Ra was associated with Jupiter, and the Sun, Isis was associated with Venus and moon, and El was associated with Saturn. There we have the mightiest of the planets! You will soon discover the Hebrews went after something called the Heavenly Scroll: The Mazzaroth: The original Enocian Zodiac. Why do Jews burn 7 candles? 7 planets...

Does it matter?

Solomon says that fear of the lord is the beginning to wisdom. It is wise to know, or as Solomon says: Wisdom, and knowledge are brothers.

One could argue that we are all saved through faith, which is true, and that the ancient, Israelite God Elohim, and Yahweh would be the same as our word God. El, and Yah was the word for God in ancient Canaanite language just like God was the word for God in Germanic. Does that mean we worship Odin, or that the ancient Israelites worshipped the Phoenician El, or Egyptian Yah etc? No. At least not necessarily. It is the personality behind the word that matters.

Is Israel a composite word from Isis, Ra, and El, which were the prime deities of the time, as for instance with SolOmOn, which is a composite of solar deities? In peeling the onion: yes! This is not uncommon in religion.

The ancient Israelites were helped by the Elohim, the angels, for thousands of years. All went according to the pyramid prophecy plan of the messiah that Enoch/Metatron: Head of the Elohim made. They emigrated to Israel and defeated the giants. Because the Elohim knew the messiah would be born there. It barely worked. But the (Satanic) Illuminati still has to be taken care of.

The Elohim knew that Moses, and the law would all eventually lead up to the birth of Jesus, and that the world would be saved through Jesus completing it: Destroying the rulership of Saturn: King of the Gods, and possible creator of this world and man. We are now Jehovah's children through JESUS!

Remember that we're saved through FAITH. It doesn't matter too much if you know about all the corruption, as long as your heart is true in Christ, as he is the perfect representation of the father, and the way, the truth, and the life – the way TO the father.

Some say Judaism nothing more than another pagan religion assimilating pre-existing beliefs from comparative mythology worship of the Heavens, and stars/planets like Yahweh/Marduk, El/Elohim/Saturn, and Isis/Ashera/Venus. Astarte worship was very common in Israel, and never ended. No! Judaism was distinct and believed in a Most High. A ONE God ABOVE all Gods to whom ALL worship was directed.

The star of David

The Star of David (Magen David) predates Yah'shua Ha Mossiach (Jesus Christ the Messiah), six centuries the six-pointed star has been used in Jewish architecture and as a religious symbol of victory and protection for over 2600 years.

Additionally, Magen Davids were also used on synagogues, including Capernaum (where Yah'shua taught Mark 1:21, Luke 4:31, John 6:59), dating from the Second Temple period (in other words, from the time of Messiah).

The use of the hexagram IN the circle as an occult symbol is only about 1400 years old at most!

Years of Biblical research have proved that the Magen David, or Star of David is NOT OCCULT.

A hexagram is a six-pointed star circumscribed by a circle. I know this from spending 16 years as a witch and ceremonial magician. In that form within a circle it is a highly toxic occult symbol. However, the Magen David is NEVER seen in a circle and has an entirely different history one of Biblical proportions! Nor is it portrayed within a circle on the Israeli flag, or in the vast majority of Jewish buildings or artifacts. EVER.

Though attempts have been made by some to tie the Magen David to references to the "Star of Rempham" etc., there is no Biblical support to confirm these assumptions have merit. Because of the history of the Pentagram (5-pointed star), the wayward most certainly used this antiquated symbol of idolatry. However, this is what we DO know:

Ezra the Scribe (the one who has the book named after him in the Tenakh) modernized the Hebrew alphabet into what we have today. Before he came along, it was much different. This earlier alphabet is called Paleo Hebrew.

In this ancient form of Hebrew, the letter "D" (Daled in Hebrew) was drawn like a triangle. There is much evidence that the sixpointed star was called the Shield of David because David's name in Hebrew was spelled Daled Vav Daled. If you take the beginning and ending triangles (Daleds) of his name and interlace them, you have the Shield of David.

Finally, just in the past decade, an emblem has been found carved in stone that's believed to be the earliest symbol of Messianic believers. It is a fish symbol (vertical head down) where the tail turns into the bottom of a Magen David. Then the top of the Magen

David blends into the bottom of a Menorah.

After over 12 years of study and research on this, I have come to believe that the Magen David is a fine symbol of our ancient Hebraic roots. Contrary to the Star of David's rich Biblical heritage, the hexagram was instituted more recently by occult Kabbalists as a further way of slandering and tarnishing the reputation of Jewish people who were at that time under heavy persecution from the Roman church. Yes, in recent times, it has been used in occult work and ceremonial magick, but almost always within a circle (for reasons too abstruse to go into here). There is NO Scriptural evidence identifying the Magen David with the "star of Remphan" (Acts 7:43) or any other evil symbol.

The PENTAGRAM, being the number 5, is the number of death (Gen. 5:5, etc.) and IS incontrovertibly an occult symbol and is a much more likely candidate. It is universally regarded as a symbol of witchcraft or (in its upside-down mode) Satanism.

Everyone is free to believe as their conscience dictates.

But as someone who has been a serious student of the Bible for over 25 years (and of the occult), I feel that fears about the Magen David being occult or cursed in any way are totally unfounded.

William Schnoebelen also calls Jehovah for "Yahah. " Just as I, and many others have decided upon.

Allah.

The name for "God" in Arabic is Al-illah, pronounced Allah. But Allah is not al-illah, but a specific Muslim God worshipped at the Kaaba. More on this soon.

El was the God of the Phoenicians and Canaanites. The horned God Bull-EL, or Toru-El of the astrological age of Taurus. Many Christians have argued that Allah is El, or that he is a moon-God of the Kaaba. The latter is true, and Allah, just like the Hebrew Eloah linguistically originate from the Phoenician El.

Every tribe has their word for God, but it's the personality behind the name that matters. In this case, our Christian God is the God of Jesus. Jesus, the prophets, and the saints represent who our God is, and our God's name is Yahweh, with all the mysteries involved while Allah just translates to "God" from Al-illah, "the God." Specifically the moon-God of the pre-Muhammed Kaaba, whom they sacrificed humans to AT the time of Muhammad, so there is nothing good about Allah.

In ancient mythology, the most popular goddesses "came to earth in a ball of fire". Meteorites were sacred to the arrival of the goddess. The ancient Nabataeans, and the Emesans revered a sacred black stone they called El-Gabal just as goes on at the Kaaba today where they kiss a black meteor inside a vesica pisces (the vagina of the pre-Muhammad Arabian goddess Al-Uzza)... Worship of stones is mentioned and forbidden in the Bible.

As Allah can mean Goddess in Hindu Sanskrit, and also because the word is similar to the Sanskrit word om, some Christians have said Allah comes from Sanskrit, which there is no scholarly, or historical evidence of. Allah means God, and Om is the emanation of the universe, and the sound of the source field. Former radio-host Bill Jenkins also say Great Pyramid of Giza was also built to resonate chanting the name "om" in the Kings Chamber which is true because it's sacred geometry, and music carved in stone.

Allah is the Arabic form of the ancient Aramaic, so is there reason to believe Allah is not a proper Arabic term for the Judeo-Christian God?

Most Christian Muslims use the name Allah for God. Why? Because Allah comes from, and originally came from the term Al-Ilah in Arabic which simply translates to "the God", similar to the Hebrew Elah. That is what they believe. Little do they know that Muhammad's God of his Quraish tribe, Allah, was a pagan moon-God who fathered demons and whores they had sex-rites and human sacrifices to, AT the SAME Muslim Kaaba they worship today. Muhammad's very FATHER was supposed to be sacrificed to Allah.

So if you are an ignorant Arab former Muslim, and call the Christian God for Allah, because you believe it simply means "God", I will forgive you. But Near Death Experiences from former Muslims all say that Allah is a DEMON! Muhammad himself testifies that when he first met what he later called the archangel Gabriel, he tried to choke him, and since he thought he was possessed, he tried to kill himself by throwing himself over a cliff. But his wives convinced him it was the God of Abraham. This experience was the start of all Islam. A demon possession by one of Allah's demons.

Ilāh is an Arabic term meaning "deity" or "god". The feminine is 'ilāhah meaning "goddess". It appears in the name of the monotheistic god of Islam as al-Lāh, translated, that is, "the god".

Elahi/Eloi is the word Jesus used for God, and means "my God" in Aramaic, whereas Elah means "God". The Greek New Testament otherwise use the word "Kyrie" for God. With some vowel-points (invented in the 6th century by Masoretic scholars) the word becomes pronounced "Alloh" according to some Muslim-friendly Jews, but Hebrew dictionary says it's pronounced "el-aw" today. It still sounds similar to Allah though.

Also: Elohim in singular form is Eloah, meaning strong one in Hebrew. Eloah can be pronounced Allah in Hebrew, and is a Biblical term used both for pagan Gods, but mostly the God of Israel. Some argue Muslims only worship one of the aspects of our Jewish God as God is Yahweh Elohim, or Yah-Allah as has become so popular. Some say worship an aspect of the Greater Deity. I worship Yahweh Elohim. Not Allah.

I worship God as, god ABOVE Jupiter, Saturn, and star gods.

Why do I mention star gods? The Bible is clear that we shall not worship planetary Gods, and only the Highest.

Acts 7:43 You have taken up the tabernacle of Molek and the star of your god Rephan, the idols you made to worship. Therefore, I will send you into exile' beyond Babylon.

The symbols, and flag of Islam is the crescent moon and five-pointed star, and is the sacred, ancient symbol of several evil Gods. Namely Baal, Hu-Baal, El, Ishtar, and the Goddess at the Kaaba. Pagan Babylonian religion has survived both in Islam, and in Christianity. The El is king of the Gods, and Saturn, whom in Catholic demonology is the demon-prince Beelzebub/Baal. Hubal means "spirit Baal" and was the supreme deity of the pagan Kaaba. Allah was worshipped at the Kaaba as a moon-God. They also worshipped Ishtar/Venus at the Kaaba before Muhammad as a trinity goddess of Al-Uzza, Manat, and Allat, who were daughters and wives of Allah. Al-Uzza corresponds to Ishtar and Aphrodite, the sex goddess under many names.

Muhammad invaded Mecca, killed the pagans, killed the Jews, and killed the Christians for his tribal moon-God, Allah.

But Christians should help their Muslim brothers. For Jihad started with the Christian crusades, and Sharia started in the Ottoman Empire. We must unite, and bring our Jewish, and Muslim brothers under Christ. They worship God but cannot enter Heaven except through Jesus. This is a tragedy. Near-death experiences confirm this.

The symbol of Islam is something you've seen in the sky many times, perhaps not thinking of it. Venus, and the moon. This should not be the symbol of Islam, as it is the symbol of Baal. All historical, and archaeological evidence proves the symbol of Islam was used to represent Baal. That is a fact. The symbol also stems from the pagan Egypt, and is similar to the sun-disc, and horns the Gods had on their heads, particularly the goddess Isis as in the terror group.

Sadly, Muhammad ruined the beautiful evolution of Judaism into Christianity. He also managed to twist all Biblical history, and scripture that was 1400 years old at his time: Inventing his own version of the biblical stories. All based on his singular imagination, as he was illiterate. He just recorded some different version of Biblical stories he had heard. He could not read.

Back to the black cube of Mecca, where they kiss a meteor is definitely remnants of goddess-worship, and perhaps Indian Shiva-lingam worship. The coming of the Goddess was symbolized by a meteor or shooting star throughout the entire antique world. Furthermore, the meteor (said to carry the world's sins) is inside a vesica pisces at the Kaaba black cube. "They kiss a vagina" so to speak.

The symbol of Saturn is a black cube. Muslims walk around the (Saturn) square of the Kaaba representing the rings of Saturn. The Kaaba is still a pagan Moon-Saturn-death-cult. Pre-Muhammad Mystery Babylon beliefs in Baal, and El still survive in Islam just as Mystery Babylon has infiltrated Catholicism and Judaism.

We will still use the term "God", and "Jesus" throughout this book.

Regarding the trinity, monotheism, and polytheism surrounding the God-head.

As God is all, his singularity is relativistic. We believe God to be the all, the seven, the three, and all in one. As long as it is all in one. Because we cannot deny the existence of these other Gods, but we do NOT WORSHIP THEM! We worship God only as one person: God the father. And we worship his Son/Sun of the Mazzaroth/Nazareth: Jesus Christ. How can Jews argue against our concept of the trinity when they themselves have ideas like "God is all", which they believe? And the beforementioned "shekinah" - how we all have aspects of God within us and are in a sense Gods. A hand has five fingers. As we touched upon: God is God of Israel. The primary Gods of Egypt before Moses led them out, and reinstituted worship of Father Yahweh Elohim. But Yahweh Elohim is a singular plural! He is Yahweh of Elohim! That was what Judaism was ABOUT in the beginning. Ancient Israeli religion was a henotheistic monolatry!

And the trinity of Source, Love and Light is way older than Christianity and Judaism. I believe in the trinity, but the trinity is ONE! Just like the ancient Israelites incorporated El, Baal, and Asherah into Yahweh! So how can they be non-compromise towards the unity trinity? It's just a matter of relativity and perspective! I say Judaism, Islam, and Christianity has the same goal of bringing all worship of all creation, and lesser Gods towards the ONE. The Creator.

Israel= Isis is the moon and Venus. Ra is the Sun and Jupiter. El is Saturn. God is the God above all Gods.

The Mazzaroth, as discovered by Rav Sha`Ul was the very CORE of Jewish belief: That God is God of the Zodiac/Mazzaroth. God of the all. God`s spirit is described as 7 flames both in the old, and New Testament. The seven planets. That`s why we light the 7 candles of the menorah – the Jewish lampstand.

Revelation 4:5, see also 5:6.

“And proceeding from the throne were lightnings and thunders and voices, and seven lamps of fire, which are the seven spirits of God, were burning before the throne. ”

So how can the Jews not believe in the Holy Trinity? It is an ancient concept older than Judaism. But is it true, and is it biblical? Isn`t it pagan?

In the same way that I have two hands, and one head, god is both father and son like as in for instance Hinduism. Jews often say “all is God” but cannot understand that it implies God has a son. It would philosophically argue that he also has a daughter.

There is however no proof for the trinity in the Bible, and it is nothing but a relativistic concept, but I still believe in it. The Holy Spirit is the spirit of God, and/or probably includes the seven fires/planets. Jesus is God`s son just like you are: Like how we are all part of God. Hear oh Israel! God is one!

But that is when looking towards the beginning of the universe. Heaven. When all was and is one in Him. Seen from an earthly perspective: There is both 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. As well as a God, a son, a daughter etc. It`s relativistic.

We are also dualists in that there is God vs Evil, which is not relativistic, because God is judge. But we see God as almighty still as his holiness is reflected in how the Devil is just an aspect of his righteousness. If there was no d-evil: God would not be just, holy nor good, and he would not be God - if there was no evil to judge. Thus, this is the most perfect of all possible worlds.

I like to say we see dualism throughout creation said the angler fish (ugly deep-sea fish) when he stared into the mirror eyeball wondering why he wasn`t made according to sacred geometry, and if he wasn't Satan's creation... Darkness is UGLY!

Chapter 8: Ending words

Wow that was a deep historical and theological study! I hope you use google and do your own research! But let's wind up and finish the book where we started.

Let's talk about the Kingdom of the Living God!

Let's say we have won. We have destroyed the Satanic enemy! All give their uttermost for us. We lead the world into a Christian golden age through technology, and sacred science reuniting with religion. With the 10 lost tribes (the world) returning to the roots of their Noahide Israeli humanist heritage, we thus enter into a future world where the historical perspective we overcame became the eternal safe grounding between ethical groups: All learning from history, and thus, we have no more war, or (Satanic) Illuminati because of history books addressing their crimes. Amen? This world is just too good for war!

Let's say we win a truce, and the NWO is established instead. We have now invented something called never-ending music, and parties that will make war, and sharia Islam look so medieval, and outdated that it will never take root in the future generations. Oh yeah? But what matters if not our souls... Beware of the illusion of happiness!

We need a Reformation Revival Revolution Renaissance!

We are under attack by a vicious anti-Christian conspiracy in the conflict surrounding the structuring of the European Union: Babylon. If one sees the EU headquarters in Brussel, it is strikingly similar to the tower of Babylon. God destroyed Babel and meant for diversity: Beauty like a forest! The world is becoming one, but on what basis? Is war justified by eliminating polarities? No. All Abrahamic religions condemn the One World Babel.

The NWO must be stopped by an uproar of the revolution-renaissance west, or by socialist measures of the antique Church village project's media department: Cracking quackademics. All Muslims shall convert to science and be integrated once 1st century ministries establish their Tesla village. The Illuminati: Brussel, and the Talmudian Magog Jews of the Khazarian Rothschilds false JerUSAlem are destroying all the west.

Satan perverts all good things, and this is especially true with Judaism, Christianity and sex: the best things on Earth. I prophecy the 21st century has and will become a battle against the beast-whore-dragon where the Church fight a spiritual, and global war on all sides with no safe nation, and no Christian nations left!

Our weapon is light/enlightenment and love/humanism. We shall teach them a lesson in truth! Our weapon is not only guiding the Church, but humanity as a whole as eyes and prophets.

My goal is the creation of village-societies where we can be respected and treated as the only true heirs to the constitution of our founding fathers. We advocate a break-up from Scandinavia and see the neo-charismatic movement as in a journey through the desert towards the symbolic promised land of Israel as our European, and Scandinavian cultures are losing their Christianity, morals, identity, traditions, and national prides. They are no longer civilizations, but slaves ruled by a corporation: The State. I dream of the first TRUE Christian nation in history...

Every civilization needs homogenous ethics, Aristotle argued...

I believe a theocratic new independent Christian miniature state (like a village) of united Pentecostals and neo-charismatics, like the Vatican did, should be created as to unify all first century true apostolic ministries and do right the wrong of the Roman Church. A royal priesthood where Jesus is both King and God. I believe God will use us to spread revival to the ends of the Earth.

I hope you will join our cause and fight to strengthen Christianity both through the mission of love, and the new trend of scientific apologetics through alternative science if you caught the idea of spirit science. I hope you will spread the word of the lost tribes and start families of light wherever you are as part of the true church of www.1stcenturyministries.com

I hope you learned something from reading this, found your meaning with life, and start taking the world, the word and YOUR Christian path a little more personal and serious. I hope we awakened some dormant Jews and Christians. We hope you understand there is a Heaven, a Hell, and that you are a spiritual Israelite in Christ: God's responsible agents on Earth fighting a spiritual battle! YOU are responsible for Earth! NOT God!

I hope this raised your conscience, and that you see this world as it is: Satan`s playground where a Vatican, Jewish, and Islamic many-headed beast control nations through conglomerate lobbies of secrecy and conspiracy directing history as to survive through old order means of war and religious slavery.

We hope you dedicate all your life solely to Christ`s cause of winning souls and exposing evil. As it is written: Every secret will be shouted from the rooftops.

We end this as a request for you to have a blessed new future with long-lasting life of health, happiness, freedom from bondage of false religions, false society, and that you shalt prosper in joy, vitality, truth, freedom of expression, peace and caring.

Long live the Judeo-Christian humanism! The ethics upon which our entire western civilization is built upon! If protected: The west will survive. If defeated into an atheistic, carnal, survival-of-the-fittest populace without common ethics: The west will fall and give rise to the powerful police-state. Because a police-state will be needed to keep order among the different sub-cultures, and religions in this future soup of opinions.

This book catalogues true Christian laws, and outlines the Christian Biblical faith for the first time. We hope you will spread this book, and it`s truths to everyone on Earth. If there is anything you disagree upon, please contact me through google+ message. If you chose to be a responsible person, my brother, and a true citizen who sees the government as having gone too far: Stand up for the western UN-human rights, wage a meme-war on the internet against the beasts, inform Christians, and stand against "pretty politics", and career politicians with Christian, anarchistic, and national PRIDE!

Don`t let them label you! Your country was YOURS, built by YOUR forefathers. Our country WILL be ours again. A Christian nation. What is a nation without a nationality? What is a people without a language?

Yet the enemy is not immigrants, but our elected officials serving foreign monetary, and Satanic interests! They have abandoned the people! EVERYONE knows politicians lie. EVERYONE.

Know that YOU are the one to whom both Heaven, and Earth belongs in Christ. Know that YOU deserve the respect, and fear of the politicians, and NOT the Muslims! Because it is historically YOUR country, and we have lost ALL our countries...

Know that YOUR outcry, and protests of love should be heard! Know that YOU MUST prove Christianity, Hell, and the afterlife to every atheist. The battle is raging! It's not about US. It's about the LOST. Their SOULS... Know God is father, and that the father loves you, and everyone else.

We pray for the branches of Jesus to stand united under our church for a new, true faith for a worldwide body of light where all denominations have its role, and place in God's wonderful, all-encompassing love of plurality like the beauty of an entire forest. Know there are no boundaries, or national borders under God's one Heaven. The Earth belongs to us, Christianity proven through spiritual science! We are one. We are mankind! We stand against the beast in this pre-apocalyptic NWO!

The only hope to prevent global chaos is for Christians to complete their mission, and perfect their religious traditions, bringing forth a renaissance, revival, revolution, reformation, and an enlightened, exodus revival into worldwide unity through our common history as Noahide humanists of the global Israel which will be Christian! We will take Jerusalem by scientific, and loving force! We must all become one NOW, and act pre-emptively to secure, and hold this peaceful world for as long as possible! We need the first Illuminati free nation! The first neo-Charismatic, Pentecostal 1st century-Christian nation!

Alliance assembles! The world will become one in this modern technological era. That is inevitable. YOU better do your job as an enlightened Christian and start socialist centres of daily Christian fellowship. YOU better write your own books, expose the conspiracies of the cabal, and use all power through media to transform all quackademia knowledge into the Kingdom of God. We must create a library of all knowledge at ONCE before NWO internet censorship.

You will do much better than me who was bullied, harassed, and persecuted all my life...! YOU must be activist and start protesting against the communist crooks of the Rothschild beast! YOU must start private schools, and reform accepted scientific models, theories, physics, and theories like for instance gravity, and the earth model.

You must start spirit-science classes and embrace the reality of the Christian God's multidimensional universe in your curriculum! We are all the world's free citizens of the new world against spiritual demoniac powerbrokers, and evil alien takeovers! We are liberty! We are humanists! We divide not our species with terms such as socialists or liberalists! We are anarchists and bring the two together for: We are humans. You are me, and we are one.

We raise our voice from the Earth as one against differential terminology! Against the tools of the elite! Against the purging of human population! Against the divide and conquer agenda! Against order through chaos ideologies.

Against superstitions of Christian, and Islamic doomsday theories! Against the evil of the cabal!

We have now exposed the enemy and false prophets, be them Christian doomsday-preachers, Mohammedans, Jewish numerologist, kabbalists, and all whom read the Heavens to prophecy war working against the human race of God. We believe in peace, and our future.

Reveal the hidden truths, and conspiracies with a unified slogan that could be no simpler than: "Enough is enough! " or "love and light. " We will soon all be one through Judeo-Christendom's humanistic-western heritage as a global Christian Israel, and the king will come! Peace will return to Earth forever, and Islam will fall! We are human children, I am you, you are me, we are one, and life is our name! Praise Jesus

My efforts writing this book

I as a Christian am a targeted individual (TI) suffering electronic harassment, (Satanic) Illuminati voodoo persecution, and gangstalking. I am a peaceful civilian Christian, a book writer, a Reichian hobby scientist, and a humble artist. Yet I have no country, no rights, and no freedom. That is what fuelled my entire career as a writer, and the establishment of our ministry.

I am truly a disciple of the suffering messiah Jesus Ben Joseph in likeness! I have this purity that is not of the world. The world sets demand and loves only those who have pride like themselves. They hate angelic, and Jewish purity! They just want money, and I'll give it to them.

The elites just want me as a cash-cow and will kill me if they have no use for me! But I work! The Bible tells we're being seen as sheep for slaughter! Yet we are the lions to whom God intended for the world to rule! Such is our religious conviction.

I have no evidence of myself being a targeted individual other than my testimony, 3000 pages of painful diaries, evidence of forced mental hospitalization, and evidence of no friends, or family believing. I have not yet had the funds to hire a private investigator to my cause and has mostly given up. I have wished to write this book all my life, but never imagined it would be under such harsh conditions.

You have to fight! Our weapon is love and truth. I Love you!

Hope is all we have.

Gather the hot coals of my words to awaken flames for the biggest revival in world history. A 100-year small community will become a 1000-year global reign! It will happen once we let go of the religious label, and become a Kingdom, not a religion. Once we start affecting schools, education, history, and society in general.

If hope is all we have, then hope is all there is. So, there is nothing else but hope. When you have nothing, you have nothing to lose. You learn to dedicate every ounce of strength, and time to what matters. Your life. Your future. Your family. The eternal things.

What most others miss out, you can learn through rededicating your life. God often trials you and raises up mighty biblical examples like for instance Joseph or me. That is the turning point when you go for God: When you have lost everything like me. Go for God, and fight for all that is dear to you! Burn for truth, light and love!

To the seeking disbeliever, and young Christian I will quit with saying I believe the pilgrimage through life's trials, one's character, dreams, temptations, as well as the free man's will and desire, is a natural form for evolution that should not be bound to where it encumbers our spiritual work, and drives the individual to the opposite side of Christianity. Without Christ's loving relationship, all becomes strife, shame, mild neurosis, and damaged personalities, especially sexuality...!!!

The law must be freedom, and not slavery. Because in Christ, freedom is freedom from oneself, not freedom to be yourself. This wisdom comes with growth alongside Christ, but if a person tries too hard, he will end up hating the law, and become the very symbol of lawlessness, or even worse: A Christian wolf in sheep clothing.

You must free your emotions, or else you will lose your path, and might live in loneliness. I advocate natural growth as we believe that one learns on the path forward through the sanctification process. Some mistakes were worth it, as God taught you on the way. Our relationship to Christ is the most vital power to destroy Satan`s lies of a strict, merciless God.

But know that God will hold you accountable for everything...

May you be good. I anoint and bless you to live like royal stewards on Earth. Live your lives purposefully on the line! In dignity with responsibility! May you be blessed. Amen.

Hope you enjoyed the read! That was our official theology!

If I might add my personal opinion, I think this should be the official theology of all churches, and I pray it becomes a REFORMATION alongside my other books as I believe it is time for a new Martin Luther on his 500 year anniversary. (Which was the reason I wrote this book.)

A Romantic Revival Reformation Revolution Renaissance!

Blessings of loving light. Stay pure and safe.

You can use Wikipedia as source-material for mostly all topics.

I actually never intended becoming an author, this was originally a free PDF file of my teachings, and thus it doesn`t name sources, but trust me, and God bless you!

Comments by author:

As this was originally an online PDF file of my personal studies, I have not taken the time to elaborate and re-discover sources for all my material.

I have long scraped the bottom of the conspiracy deep of the web, and my scientific, ETHICAL, philosophical and religious interests bloomed in me from an early age. Thomas Edison they called out to me, loudly, in class when I reached 10, and I was popular with the girls too!!!

When I was 11, I already headed into the realm of politics, a writing career (due to my fluent English which I learnt in only 6 months as a missionary at Hawaii) , and sent a letter to George Bush, planning to literally take over the world.

By the time I was 12, my head cracked down on itself, I lost my girl, my will, was SO afraid, could not take it, cursed the world, made firearms, hand grenades, etc and never thought for music or any career ever again, bitter as I was against life, my enemy, as I isolated myself in fear.

I went to every Church, but could not find my home, and was persecuted by Christians. The walls I'd built fell over me when I was 22, and I was diagnosed paranoid schizophrenic, albeit with a high IQ, because of the bullying and slander, a post-traumatic breakdown from arrested emotional development (AED).

I was sick for many years, but when I finally broke free, I decided: Why not use my knowledge (that I had mostly memorized from meeting very many interesting persons) , so I wrote a total of 10 books in about 2 years, some under a pen-name.

Take it or leave it. I have given you all the clues for you to research material of these theories which are widely known and debated online, such as the Source-Field, alternative Genesis (a set of creator Elohim, research Miceal Ledwith), and all the religious theories, etc, which floods the internet. Take my word for it: When I check, I always, always triple check, I'm a hardcore guy, I don't buy stuff, and am not easily tricked, bitter as I became, but after writing the GRRRRR series, I feel better...

My search for God's name exemplifies my zeal for truth, contrary to all other authors out there who sell books claiming "God's name is Ahayah Yahuah", etc...!!! (Research Nehemia Gordon, etc) I hope for humanity's sake that someone wake up and start writing about the topics I have discussed, in this disillusioned time.

Going through all my resource material would take ages, and I plan on making music and living away from the pc-screen for a while, and as I said, it is my intention for you to research these topics yourself. But if I could personally choose only 6 books, in addition to the Bible, to have for the rest of my life, I think you know the answer. The truth has been told! Spread it!

Thank you sincerely.
